

Contributors

John A. Board (Gynecological Problems of Adolescents) is professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the Medical College of Virginia. He received his M.D. degree from MCV, did his internship at Louisville General Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky and returned to MCV for his residency in 1956. In 1961 Dr. Board left MCV to become a fellow in infertility and reproductive physiology at Yale University, returning to his faculty post here in 1962.

John Buckman (Psychology of Drug Abuse) is an associate professor of psychiatry at the University of Virginia School of Medicine in Charlottesville, Virginia. Dr. Buckman was born in Poland, but lived primarily in England where he received his medical degree from the University of London. In 1954 he began his psychiatric training in London at the Epsom Hospitals, Maudsley Hospital, Tavistock Clinic, and the Institute of Human Relations. He also received neurological training at the National Hospital, Queens Square in London. Dr. Buckman joined the staff of the University of Virginia in 1966.

Philip B. Chase (Current Trends in College Health Medicine) is director of the college health service at Tufts University, Medford, Massachusetts. Dr. Chase received his M.D. degree from the Yale University School of Medicine. He became affiliated with the college health service at Tufts in 1963 as associate director and assumed his present position in 1966. He is also an instructor in the school of medicine there.

Isao Hirata, Jr. (The Adolescent and Competitive Athletics) is surgeon-in-chief for the Yale department of university health, surgeon for the intercollegiate athletic program and team physician for varsity football at Yale University. Dr. Hirata received his M.D. degree from Yale where he also did his surgical residency. He has been a member of the faculty there since 1955. He is the author of the book THE DOCTOR AND THE ATHLETE: J. B. Lippincott; 1968.

Charlene P. Holton (Psychological Aspects of the Management of Adolescents with Malignancy) is director of clinical oncology at Children's Hospital in Denver, Colorado and assistant clinical professor of pediatrics at the University of Colorado School of Medicine. In 1963 she received her M.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Medicine, Miami, Florida. Dr. Holton did her resident training in pediatrics at the John Gaston Hospital, Baptist Memorial Hospital and St. Jude Children's Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee. She became an assistant professor in the department of pediatrics at the University of Tennessee School of Medicine in Memphis in 1968 and assumed her present positions in 1969.