Not the face but a face one without need
for a mask,
I am cast. Filled
I am creased, teased
I am tethered.

I am not the image
the scattered shrunken, stretched fraction
is not, but a moment's mimic, for I am neither the projection nor reflection which is thrown unto this thin skinned shell form from your mind's eye understood not to understand

not all, but one
