1950 Issue Features Photos of All Phases Of Campus Activities

By ALAN LONG

Beautiful color photos and numerous pictures of campus life highlight the 1950 La Torre.

One of the best of the color pictures is the Student Union, lights blazing within, taken at night. Other pictures are the Tower taken from the Library entrance, the red girders of the new Women's gym outlined against the blue sky, and five of casual campus scenes.

Student affairs, student government, class officers, campus publications, the 1949 Spardl Gras, fraternities, sororities, clubs, and organizations are included in La Torre.

Another innovation of Editor Lou Frangione is the listing of the degree earned by the graduating seniors along with their names and pictures.

Instead of printing pictures of all the faculty, this year's yearbook has pictures of the department heads with some background material of their department.

Students who have paid for their La Torres may pick them up today and tomorrow between 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. in the Inner Quad hallway nearest the Reserve Book room. Frangione said.

Warren, James Roosevelt Win Primary Tests

Governor Earl Warren and Democratic possibility Jimmy Roosevelt got the "go" sign from voters as they won out on their respective tickets as expected in Tuesday's state primary.

From now until November they get down to the business of convincing Californians which has the best to offer for the next four years.

Governor Warren, vice-presidential nominee in 1948, captured GOP support going away with something like a 9-1 edge on the Republican side of the ballot returns. Roosevelt, a political newcomer with a respected name, qualified as the Democratic entry in the gubernatorial race with a slight margin verdict.

Presidential aspirations might be in the offing in 1952 as Warren and Roosevelt contest the job of bossing the nation's second largest state.

Incumbent Goodwin J. Knight won't have to worry about a November run-off. The Republican swept both nominations to maintain his post as lieutenant governor over Democrat George Miller Jr. and Republican Raymond Darby.

Republican Edward S. Shattuck and Democrat Edmund G. "Pat" Brown earned the right to square off for ousted Fred N. Hower's position of attorney general.

Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas will challenge Republican Congressman Richard M. Nixon for Sheridan Downey's U.S. Senate seat. Democrat Manchester Boddy, Los Angeles publisher, trailed on both ballots.

Prexy to Seek Library Funds

President T. W. MacQuarrie took an administrative stand on the "library situation" yesterday by declaring that extended service is only a future possibility.

The college executive indicated he "would make a request for additional library funds as an item in the '51-'52 budget". State appropriations are needed if longer service is to be authorized, he stated. More money to meet librarian, janitorial, and engineering expenses is necessary for proposed longer service.

His decision came after a conference Tuesday with Dr. Esther Shephard, chairman of the Library committee who presented statistics and recommendations on the May trial period. The trial period was authorized after 1300 students petitioned for longer "open hours".

Trial Period Faulty

According to Dr. Shephard, the Library committee felt that the experimental period was "not the best for the test".

"Attendance figures revealed that library attendance is highest during the fall months. The slight student response to the extra service might be attributed to the weather, among other things. The fact that a large number of students live far away from the campus also might have something to do with the poor turnout," she said.

The Library committee decided that the Saturday afternoon opening, already planned for next quarter, is "very desirable". Dr. Shephard recommended that another trial period over a longer period of time be tried.

"Although statistics show attendance was poor during the May period, we feel that the results aren't entirely representative," Dr. MacQuarrie said.

Longer Hours Needed

"I think that if a longer period is provided for later on, students will get used to the idea, and it should prove worthwhile. Certainly, longer hours could be utilized by many students. We have tried longer service before, but results were similar to the May experiment."

Dr. MacQuarrie said that the library staff was overburdened considerably during the trial period. Librarian Joyce Backus declared the extra hours in May necessitated several shifts in working personnel.

Members of the Order department were switched around to meet the need, and "hours in extent of half of the librarians' time plus student help" were added to the schedule, according to Miss Backus.

"There was no noticeable increase in book circulation over the past month," Miss Backus added.

The Weather

Do you recall yesterday's forecast? Well, it's valid for today also. Fair with little temperature change on both ballots. Yesterday's mercury topper was 76 with a low of 47. Skies were as befuddled and cloudy as the mind of a defeated primary candidate.

'Time and the Conways' Opens Tonight; Pat Ironside will Have Leading Role

By MARION SUMMERS

"Time and the Conways", sixth and final production in the 1949-50 drama season, will open tonight at 8:15, in the Little Theater.

The play is a fantasy about a typical English family which is projected 20 years into the future, and brought back again.

Pat Ironside, a young professional actress from Saratoga and former San Jose State college drama major, will play the leading role of Mrs. Conway. Bert Graf will play Alan, the Conway son who adjusts to the startling changes of time.

Gwen Samuelson will portray Madge, the idealistic girl who becomes an embittered school teacher. The part of Robin, the indolent, good-for-nothing Conway son, will be acted by Jim Jensen. Gwen Dam will play Hazel, the selfish one, who learns a cruel lesson from her husband Ernest, played by Cliff Roche.

Shirley Wilber, as Kay, will portray a would-be novelist discontinued with a journalistic career.

Dorothy Williams will be Carol Conway, Joan Buechner will play Joan Helford, the girl next door, and Jim Clark will play Gerald Thornton, a lawyer.

John R. Kerr is directing "Time and the Conways". Settings are designed by J. Wendell Johnson, and constructed under the supervision of Jim Lioi and Doug Morrison. Costumes of two periods are designed and constructed by Bernice Prisk and Chez Haehl.

The difficult make-up for the production is supervised by Alden Smith. The entire cast ages 20 years in the second act, and the make-up is vitally important.

Council Discusses Health Program

The Student Council will hold a special meeting at 3:30 p.m. today in the Student Union. The group will consider recommendations of the council's health committee on alternative plans to the present system of health protection in use at San Jose State college, according to Dave Down, ASB president.

AWS Presents Dinner Tonite

The installation of the new officers will highlight the AWS banquet at Lou's Village tonight. The banquet honors the 100 most active women students for the past school year.

The new officers are Joan Hale, president; Jo Ann Keeler, first vice-president; Pat Flanagan, second vice-president; Shirley Crandall, secretary, and Ingrid Anderson, treasurer.

Guest speaker at the banquet will be Dr. Dorothy Kaucher. The special program has been arranged by Ingrid Anderson, program chairman.

The 100 women to be honored at the banquet were chosen for their outstanding enthusiasm and interest in San Jose State college's activities.

SJS Instructor Voted to OT Post

Mrs. Eleanor Mann, occupational therapy instructor, received notice yesterday morning that she has been elected to the position of vice-president of the Northern California Occupational Therapy association.

Mrs. Mann will be installed Friday evening at a meeting of the group at the Palo Alto Allied Arts Guild. Before the installation, the association will tour the Palo Alto Veterans' hospital.

Part of the duties of the vice-president of the organization are to act as program chairman, arrange meetings and meeting places and organize programs of entertainment for the gatherings. Another part of her job is, she says, "to hope the president is present at all of the meetings".

Juniors to Swim

Tickets for the junior class swimming party go on sale at 9:30 o'clock this morning under the Library arch, Ed Gasper, class social chairman, announced yesterday. The party is scheduled for June 15 at Club Almaden.

Two Receive Cash Awards

Co-recipients of the Alice Bassler Award, which was presented at Tuesday night's meeting of the Physical Education and Recreation Majors club were Leta Walter and Carol Nystuen.

Miss Walter has been president of WAA and active in Tau Gamma, honorary professional physical education women's honorary, and the Majors club. She is now student teaching at Hayward high school and plans to take graduate study at Columbia university in New York next year.

Also active in WAA and Tau Gamma, Miss Nystuen has been a member of Spartan Spears and Black Masque.

She was recreation chairman for AWS and manager of the annual swim show this year. She is student teaching at David Starr Jordan junior high school in Palo Alto, and next year will teach in the Santa Clara high school.

The $25 award which each girl received has been given annually since 1937, honoring Alice Bassler, who began the women's physical education department more than 25 years ago.

It is given to outstanding physical education and recreation senior majors, who have contributed the most service to the department and the college and also on a scholarship basis.

Spinners Scramble

The cold weather last night forced the Spartan Spinners to move their "Inner Quad Scramble" to the YWCA, according to Jack Golden, publicity chairman.

More than 100 persons were present for the evening of dancing. Dr. and Mrs. Carl Duncan were presented $10 for a record album in recognition of their service to the Spartan Spinners.

What Do You Think?

The failure of the recent "Spring Sing" leaves the way open for consideration of a joint fraternity-sorority-independent singing festival on Washington square.

Several weeks ago the Daily suggested that the Inter-fraternity council and Panhellenic council give thought to the idea of combining their present singing events into a program to be presented annually on Mother's Day.

We will have our first annual Dad's Night football game this fall. But we still haven't succeeded in setting aside a day for Spartan mothers.

The Daily sees a joint IFC-Panhellenic-Independent music festival as the solution to our problem. Such an event would attract wide interest among students and parents alike. The publicity gained from a program of this type would be beneficial to the college.

Rules governing the "sing" could be drawn up by representatives of the three groups. Each group which participates in the festival could be limited to one song so that the program would not be too lengthy.

By placing this proposed festival under the joint sponsorship of the IFC-Panhellenic-and Independents there would be an excellent opportunity for closer cooperation and harmony between these groups, as well as the avoidance of inter-fraternity bickering in the future.

The Daily believes that the Inter-fraternity and Panhellenic councils and the Independents could help themselves and our college immeasurably by adopting this plan for an all-campus Mother's Day festival. This affair easily could develop into one of the outstanding collegiate events on the Pacific Coast.

What do you think?

Promising Future

The basketball barnstorming tour of the East and Middle West now being lined up by the Athletic department is a tribute to State's fast-growing fame in the sports world.

Athletic Director Tiny Hartranft and Basketball Coach Walt McPherson have succeeded in scheduling games with Manhattan, Beloit and Hamline. Contests with other schools in those areas are still pending.

State has come a long way in basketball since the end of the war. The Spartans' fine showings against Cow Palace opponents climaxed a long, hard uphill fight for national recognition. Many years of untiring effort by McPherson and other members of the department have brought desired results.

Now that State has been successful in scheduling "big time" opponents our athletic future appears promising indeed.

ON THE SQUARE

By JACK RUSSELL

State election results yesterday tended to demonstrate that California is once more back in the fold of the two-party system. For the past few years under the Warren administration and under the out-moded cross-filing technique our state was beginning to move down the path to one-party control.

Cutting across party lines sounds fine in campaign literature but in attempting to be "all things to all men, Democratic and Republican alike" Warren was definitely moving away from the two-party method.

Roosevelt's victory in the primary insures a red-hot fight for the final election. Evidence of voters' apathy which always happens without a strong campaign should be eliminated next November.

It is interesting to note that the Spartan Daily's straw ballot on campus correctly prophesied the election results. The Daily poll gave Warren a large lead with Roosevelt second in total voting. Helen Gahagan Douglas and Richard Nixon were Spartan students' top choices for the Senatorial race.

Mrs. Douglas had a slight edge over Nixon at San Jose State. It will be up to the November election to determine this part of the Daily ballot.

Skilly's Corner

By BOB SKILLICORN
Spartan Daily Editor

During the past few weeks various student factions about campus have seen fit to attribute the failure of the student-faculty Memorial Chapel drive to the Spartan Daily.

These people have asserted that the Daily completely failed to support the drive. They offer no other reasons for the failure of the fund-raising campaign.

The Daily did not answer these charges because we felt that the answer to the drive's failure was obvious. Since these groups have not ceased presenting their views, and have made no apparent attempt to look at the facts, the Daily now presents its case.

Before we start, however, let's get one thing understood. The Spartan Daily makes no pretense of being lilywhite. There could have been additional news stories during the week of the Chapel drive. We admit that. But that's as far as we'll go along in assuming our rightful portion of the blame.

These irate students assert that the Spartan Daily didn't present ANY material concerning the Chapel. The truth is that the Daily ran a series of articles dealing with the background and purposes of the Chapel, columns by the Feature Editor dealing exclusively with the Chapel, a column written by Dr. Dudley T. Moorhead which was directed toward the faculty campaign, and news stories concerning all Chapel committee meetings.

Your editor reported to the last Chapel committee meeting the articles which had run and those planned to run concerning the Chapel. Committee members voiced their approval.

A newspaper, any newspaper, can only do so much in helping any fund-raising drive. Newspapers could devote an entire issue to an event, but there will be no results if people can't afford to give or have decided not to contribute.

We believe that a majority of State students and faculty members would like to contribute to the Chapel fund but find themselves financially unable. Take the seniors for example. In recent weeks, they've had to pay a graduation fee of $9, cap and gown fee of $4.50, announcement and personal card costs, a senior ball bid fee of $3.60, and the cost for the senior overnight. Add to this list the cost of a La Torre for $5.

While other classmates might not have had such large expenditures to make, the fact remains that a good many students here are forced to work while attending State. Others barely scrape through on their GI allotments.

A Thrust and Parry letter yesterday pointed out that there was no place for contributions to be made at the Chapel Ball. Wouldn't it be wholly unfair to claim that this one mistake spelled doom for the Chapel drive?

Dean Pitman, a man who has worked untiringly on behalf of the Chapel, pointed out at one Chapel committee meeting that contributions for the Chapel should come from the heart. There was to be, he pointed out, no high pressure advertising or tactics employed to convince students or faculty that they should give. They should contribute, the dean said, of their own volition.

Would it therefore have been appropriate for the Spartan Daily to have tried to "talk" students and faculty into contributing? The Daily presented the whys and wherefores of the Chapel as objectively as it knew how. The anti-Chapel Thrust and Parry letters showed all too clearly that there is not complete support for the Chapel.

The Daily is the newspaper for ALL THE STUDENTS AND FACULTY and therefore shouldn't have and did not take sides.

We sincerely hope that the disgruntled student factions on Washington square will realize that there were many factors which

DAVE DOWN REPORTS ON YOSEMITE PSPA MEET

By JEANNE THOMAS

Newly-elected ASB President Dave Down returned recently from a four-day session in Yosemite national park, where he and four other San Jose State college delegates attended the annual Pacific Student President's association meeting.

Accompanied by Don Schaeffer, Bob Seal, Bob Madsen, and Pete Cirivelli, Down met with student leaders from Washington, Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Montana, Hawaii, and all parts of California.

Common Meeting Ground
"Representatives from large and small colleges and universities found a common meeting ground to discuss the basic problems of each school. By combining these we often found solutions to our individual questions," Down said.

"During our discussion periods and by comparing situations with others schools, we found that San Jose has the closest student-faculty relationship of any of the other state colleges," Down continued. "It is this rapport, which we have succeeded in establishing, which will make San Jose State college even stronger."

The PSPA convention was highlighted by nine working discussion groups. Representatives from this campus attended five of these. Peter Cirivelli, recently-elected ASB treasurer, attended discussion meetings centered around, "Financial Operation of the Student Government."

Down attended a pertinent session on "Organization of the Student Government." "More than 20 different colleges were represented at the particular meeting. The mutual suggestions and schedules of each institution gave the San Jose delegates many valuable tips, some of which will be put into practice next year," he said.

"Relationship of the Campus Newspaper to the Student Government, and the College Administration," was the topic discussed by the group ASB Treasurer Bob Seal attended.

"Orientation Programs" were dissected by Bob Madsen, recent winner of the ASB vice-presidential race, and delegates from 16 other universities and small colleges.

Other discussion groups centered around the questions of "Union Building Administration", "Campus Community Philosophy", "Relationship of NSA to Student Government", and "Inter-collegiate Non-athletic Programs."

Don Schaeffer, ASB president, and his wife Katie attended panel discussions on "Leadership Training Program" and "Report of the PSPA Convention," a complete record of the proceedings and accomplishments of each group, will be available to the student body in about two weeks, according to Dave.

Beginning next quarter the ASB office will figuratively expand to make way for the solid platform which the new student leader promised his supporters.

No. 1 Headache

Number one on the council's "headache" parade for next quarter will be the revision of the present Health program. "If our tentative plans for the Health program work out, the students will be more adequately covered, and our budget will be relieved considerably," Dave explained.

"The question of the budget will be a very important one next year. State's enrollment is expected to decrease by at least 15 per cent. The overall appropriations will therefore be less than in previous years," the intensely-serious leader continued. "Only through 100 per cent cooperation from the students can we hope to have a full schedule of ASB activities."

Other future plans include a revision of the ASB constitution, thus providing more student representation. Following the 1950 football season, a concert and lecture series will be sponsored by the school. "Of course," Dave said, "All of our plans will depend on the budget."

Outstanding events of SJSC for the 1950-51 year include Homecoming and the annual "Football Festival", to be staged at Berkeley. In competition with 21 universities and colleges, who will meet to inaugurate the collegiate football season, SJSC will enter a float.

SJS Symphony to Give American Music Concert

By CHARLEEN LITTLE

A program of American music will be presented Tuesday by the San Jose State college symphony orchestra. The concert will be held in Morris Dailey auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

The orchestra is under the direction of Dr. Lyle Downey, Music department head. Mr. Nikola Ovanin will be guest composer-conductor.

Mr. Ovanin will conduct his composition "Dusk". The work was composed in Seattle in 1948, and its name was suggested by the music itself, as it developed in the composer's mind. It is scored for strings, woodwinds, horns, and harp.

"Dusk" evolves from two themes, an ascending theme and a descending theme, and their treatment. According to Miss Alma Williams, "There is no key signature to hold the composition within the bounds of any specific tonality, to which extent it may be called atonal."

The concert overture "Comes Autumn Time" is one of the early works of Leo Sowerby. The title indicates its intended meaning.

"Symphony in E Minor" by Harry Thatcher, Jr., is in three movements, slow, moderately quick, and fast. Each movement represents a part of the short story "The Song of the Tombelaine" from "The House of Lost Identity" by Donald Corley.

Miss Patsy Olsen will be piano soloist for Walter Piston's "Concertino for Piano and Chamber Orchestra". This contemporary work uses no brass instruments. Miss Olsen has been a pupil of Thomas Ryan for the last two years.

The story of the famous "Selections from McGuffey's Readers" by Burrill Phillips is the romance of the publication of American text books in its beginning.

McGuffey was contacted by a publisher to prepare readers for the public schools in 1835, and scoured the world's great literature for materials usable for his texts.

Two selections, "John Alden and Priscilla", from the famous Miles Standish story, and "The One-Horse Shay", from Holme's "The Deacon's Masterpiece", will be presented.

Trainee Jobs Open In Two SF Stores

Two large San Francisco stores, one a department store and the other a music store, are looking for young men to work as trainees in their programs. Dr. Milburn D. Wright, associate professor of commerce, announced recently.

The department store is looking for a young man for its training program, with a starting salary of $200 a month. At the end of the training period the trainee must be available for transfer to those cities in which the store has branches, namely: Oakland, Berkeley, San Jose, Palo Alto, Sacramento and Fresno.

The music store is seeking young men who are interested in retail business as a career and who will eventually become administrative heads.

Each successful applicant is given a thorough training in all phases of the business, the entire course requiring three years. The goal is to train people to become merchandising managers, branch managers, or salesmen. While knowledge of music and the ability to play is advantageous, it is not an essential qualification.

Pelt Wins Award

Daniel Van Pelt, former student at San Jose State college, recently was awarded the $300 Jesse D. Carr scholarship, according to an announcement from the Natural Science department.

Van Pelt is attending the University of California Agriculture school at Davis, where he is a member of the first class at Davis to study veterinary medicine.

Summer Term Budget Good

"From a budget standpoint the 1950 Summer Session will be successful." This was the statement made by Mr. Glen Guttormsen, college accounting officer, in an interview yesterday.

Mr. Guttormsen referred to recent figures from the Summer Session office which show that registration for 1950 is already 22 per cent over last year. As of Tuesday, 2808 registration permits had been issued to summer students. Last year the figure was 2294. This increase of 514 students exceeds last year's Business office estimate of the 1950 summer session by 7 per cent, according to Mr. Guttormsen.

Some of the reasons for the enrollment increase were pointed out by the accounting officer. He said that the Summer Session is more popular because the college is bigger, more people are anxious to get out of school and into the field, the state has increased in population, and more teachers seem to be returning to school for education courses.

Registrar's Survey Reveals Women Students Outpoint SJS Males in Grade Averages

By LAVERNE POTTS

The "aweful" truth is out. A sampling survey of grade point averages of San Jose State college students made by the Registrar's office shows that the women outpoint the men.

The survey was made at the request of various college deans and officials who wanted to know how the students were doing scholastically, according to Miss Eileen Wilson of the Registrar's office.

Undergraduate students were found to have a grade point average of 1.4. A GPA of 1.52 for women and 1.43 for men were recorded.

Graduate women had a 1.86 average, and graduate men 1.68, for a total GPA of 1.7 for graduate students.

Grade point averages for the four undergraduate classes determined by the survey are as follows: Freshmen men, 1.33; freshmen women, 1.42; sophomore men,

1.34; sophomore women, 1.45; junior men, 1.42; junior women, 1.51; senior men, 1.47; and senior women, 1.60.

An installation banquet for the newly elected Associated Student Body officers was held at Vahl's club at Alviso Sunday night, according to Mr. Edward W. Clements, adviser of student affairs.

1950 Tennis Team Gives Coach Ted Mumby Third Loop Title of Year

By FRANK ERROTA

Never considered a power in California Collegiate Athletic association tennis circles, San Jose State college made its last year in the CCAA a winning one.

Spartan football, track, boxing, wrestling, swimming, and golf teams won at least five titles during their stint in the CCAA loop. The basketball and gymnastic teams won three undisputed crowns in the same span, but previous to this year, only the 1946 tennis team won an undisputed CCAA loop title. The 1941 crew tied for first place.

Prospects were bright but few people gave the Golden Raiders much chance for a title at the beginning of this past season. San Jose went on to compile one of its best won and lost records in history, completing the season with 17 wins and 6 losses.

Head Coach Ted Mumby's warriors started slowly, dropping 9-0 and 8-1 matches to the San Francisco Dons, 1949 National collegiate champions, and the University of California respectively. They recovered from these two setbacks and opened the CCAA race against Fresno State with six wins and three losses in pre-league play.

Spartans Win Title

The Raiders went on to take the northern division of the 2C2A unscathed. Cal Poly proved a hard nut to crack however. They bowed to the locals here by a 6-3 count, and then almost turned the tables in a rematch at San Luis Obispo before losing 5-4. San Jose beat Fresno State by 9-0 on two occasions.

Between northern division loop matches, the Gold and White courtsters dropped 7-2 and 8-1 non-loop decisions to USF and College of the Pacific respectively. The Stockton school also prevailed in a second meeting, 7-2. Mumby's Spartans won the 2C2A title in mid-May, scoring a convincing 6-3 victory over Pepperdine college of Los Angeles, southern division kings.

The net triumph over Pepperdine gave Coach Mumby his third circuit crown of the school year. His wrestling and gymnastic aggregations won league titles earlier in the school year. Three championships makes Mumby the winningest coach on Washington Square.

Cruze Coaches Spartans

When the net season opened, the genial tennis tutor was busy with the mat and gymnastic teams. In his absence, Jim Cruze, 1949 letterman in tennis, ran the courtmen through their early season practice sessions. Mumby gives Cruze, and his 1950 court champions, full credit for their success.

Mumby, a quiet, mild-mannered individual, was instrumental in installing a winning spirit in this year's team, however. He is the type of coach a competitor likes to play for.

the top ranking campaigners in collegiate court circles. When the season opened, the Mumbymen could call on only two lettermen. One veteran was Dave Parnay, a senior, the other was Chet Bulwa, classy junior courtster.

Krikorian Beats Conway

Krikorian won the fall quarter school net tournament and became the squads top singles entrant this spring. His best performance was turned in against USF's touted Conway Catton at Spartan village. The southpaw-swatting Spartan won after three furious sets, 6-4, 3-6, 8-6.

Bulwa, the Woonsocket, R. I. ace, showed his usual steady play throughout the season. He has been a top performer for three years at SJS and is the team comic. The jocular New Englander teamed up with Krikorian to form one of the most feared doubles duos in coast college ranks.

Parnay, lanky veteran who won the San Jose city championship in 1948, made his last year in Spartan spangles a successful one. He showed his best form in the crucial Pepperdine affair. He won his singles match over a favored Wave performer in singles competition, then teamed with freshman Joe Dawkins to whip the Pep's No. 3 doubles combine and clinch the CCAA title.

Parnay-Dawkins Clinch Win

When Parnay and Dawkins had polished off their Wave adversaries, Sparta's No. 1 duo of Krikorian and Bulwa, were trailing in their match. The Spartans were leading 4-2 when singles competition ended. This meant Sparta had to win one doubles match for a victory, thus making the Parnay-Dawkins win the clincher. Krikorian and Bulwa came from behind to win their match and give the locals their 6-3 margin.

One of the pleasant surprises of the campaign was the steady improvement of Don Gale, the Los Banos belter. Gale, a sophomore, seemed to play best against the toughest opponents. Dick Russo, another sophomore, showed promise of developing into a top-notch college racket-wielder.

Picnic Tomorrow

The wrestling team picnic will be held tomorrow at Alum Rock park at 4:30 p.m. Friday, Coach Ted Mumby revealed yesterday. Those intending to attend the barbecue are asked to sign up in the gym.

SCARRED BUT NOT SUC-CUMBED . . . A battle-wise but accident-weary San Jose State college golf team, present CCAA champs, will attempt to uphold the remarkable record of past Spartan teams, at the NCAA tournament at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, later this month.

In the last four years, SJS teams have emerged with more than their share of national golfing laurels, both team and individual. The Spartan foursome made their presence felt in a small way in 1947 by finishing a respectable, but not sensational, fourth in a battle with the nation's best collegiate teams.

But it was the following year that San Jose State posted several records that still stand in the NCAA records . . . As a team, the Spartans walked off with the NCAA championship . . . but the manner they did it is a topic of discussion still prevalent among college circles . . . The Spartan quartet of Morgan Fottrell, Ross Smith, Eli Bariteau, and Howard Verutti set a team record of 579, shattering the previous mark of 590, posted by LSU the year before. To further emphasize that bit of phenomenal golf, the tourney was held over Stanford's rugged, narrow course, considered as one of finest in college ranks. All the locals did was to average a fraction over par per man after 36 holes of strenuous medal play.

Fottrell, at the same time, established an NCAA individual low medal record by carding a three-under 139 (69-70). Earlier this year the golf squad played the same sharp game as their predecessors, but then the roof fell in.

Bill King, sophomore sensation, had to leave school as the result of a broken ankle sustained in an auto accident . . . Bud Watts followed suit a few days later. He sustained head injuries and numerous abrasions as he too was involved in an auto wreck . . . Ruskin Shepherd, team member of the troupe leaving for the nationals, just is recovering from a broken arm. Several golfers, who helped the varsity finish the regular season with nine wins and three defeats, are unable to compete because of jobs and other obligations.

ROUGH ROW TO HOE . . . Not only will the Spartan team have its share of trouble but judging from the entry list every team present will be forced to their extreme best.

Defending champs, North Texas State, will face strong competition from Purdue Boilermakers, Oklahoma Aggies, Duke Blue Devils, and Ohio State, Big Ten champs.

Gridders Hold Annual BBQ

San Jose State's varsity football team members and coaches, their wives and friends, were feted at an annual barbecue and dance Tuesday night at Cedar Brook park, by the college's P.E. department. A total of 110 attended the festivities.

'Red' Moore, Varsity house chef, prepared a feast that was a gourmet's delight, according to Bill Perry, assistant football coach. Moore also baked two enormous cakes, for the occasion, in the form of football gridirons, containing inscriptions to the players and coaches.

Mel Stein's quintet, composed of Stu Inman, Bill Pentony, Jack Casey, and Ernie Esch, provided the evening's entertainment with songs and various skits. The Stein quintete also led the party members in college songs.

Dancing to recorded music climaxed the evening's festivities.

Traina, DiCiccio Carry Golds to Uphill Win

By 'ROD' RODRIGUES

The Gene Menges' led Gold team came from behind in the fourth quarter to punch over three touchdowns defeating Dean Sensenbaugh's Whites 28-19 in last night's annual intra-squad game played at Spartan stadium. The hard-fought encounter was the third intra-squad game won by the veteran dominated Golds, during the spring practice drills. The Whites completely dominated the play for three quarters with newcomers

Bill Walker, Bob Osborne and the veteran Al Cementina carrying the brunt of the ball-carrying. More than 2500 fans were anticipating an upset by the underrated Whites as they went into the fourth quarter leading the Golds 19-7. The Golds, led by relentless driving by Halfback Buddy Traina and newcomer Orland DiCiccio, fought an uphill battle to overcome the lead and go on to put the game on ice two minutes before the final gun sounded.

With Osborne, Cementina and Walker alternating, the Whites on a sustained drive, brought the ball down to the Gold two in 12 plays with Gold Guard Carl DeSalvo repeatedly making the stops. Walker punched over from the two to draw first blood for the Whites. Wayne Buck's kick was no good.

DE SALVO

Wilson Circus Catches Cementina slashed 12 yards for the second White marker shortly before the half ended with Sensenbaugh to Poznekoff passes setting up the touchdown march. The Golds came right back to score their initial TD with a beautiful diving circus catch by Billy Wilson of a Menges tossed heave, Mendonsa's try for point was good.

The half ended with the Whites leading 13-7.

Jim Reilly, in his first time carrying the ball, broke off right tackle and ambled 71 yards for the third White touchdown midway in the third quarter. Buck's kick was no good, and that ended the White scoring for the evening.

DiCiccio and Traina, along with Mendonsa and Dick Hadama, spearheaded the Golds' big fourth quarter that produced three TDs. DiCiccio bowled over from the 12 for the quarter's first score, followed shortly thereafter by Traina's pay-line crossing from the one. Then Quarterback Stan Wacholz, also on his first play, heaved a 50-yard pass gathered in by DiCiccio for the final Gold score.

DeSalvo, Keith Carpenter and Eddie Salvadale shone for the Golds defensively and Ends Johnny Lankas and Wilson were the two offensive gems. Ray Poznekoff played brilliantly defensively and offensively for the Whites as did Guards Porter, Dondelle Halliday, Tackles Jim Moulton, Bill Gallagher and Center Hitchcock.

Two veteran backs and three rookies were the chief ground gainers during the contest. "Buddy" Traina took up where he left off from last season by sprinting for 170 yards in 19 tries for a 8.9 average per carry. Gibby Mendonsa aided his Gold team-

Mendonsa mate with 55 yards in 8 tries for a 6.8 average.

Gold rookie Orland DiCiccio, Little Rose Bowl performer from Chaffey J.C., was right up there with his pony teammates by carving out 78 yards in seven slants at the stubborn White defense. His average was 11.1.

IFC Keglers Vie For Title Saturday

The Fourth Annual Inter-Fraternity Council bowling tournament will be held in the Valley Bowl on Saturday at 3:30 p.m., Armen Hanzad, chairman for the event, announced yesterday.

Previous team winners were the Pi Kappa Alpha and Theta Chi fraternities. Theta Chi, 1949 titlists, have won the event on two occasions. A victory Saturday would give the S. Eighth streeters permanent possession of the trophy which goes to the frat winning the team championship three times.

Big ground gobble for the White team was unheralded Jim Reilly who made 79 yards in but six attempts for a 13.1 average. Number two man on White offense was Bill Walker, slashing for 65 yards in 12 cracks. His average was 5.4.

Dean Sensenbaugh and Max Houlihan divided the pitching duties. Dean was more consistent but Max was the boy who brought the crowd to their feet. Sensenbaugh tried 15, nailing six, with no interceptions. His total was 64 yards. Houlihan got off eight, connecting on three for a total of 55 yards. White total was 23 attempted, nine completed, for 104 yards.

The Gold unit picked up 292 yards from rushing as compared to 161 yards by the White squad.

Open Division Quarter Final Play Begins Today

Three quarter-final matches in the Open division of the All-College tennis tournament will be played on the Spartan city courts this afternoon. All matches are slated for 3:30 o'clock. The winner of the Butch Krikorian-Bob Rimmer match to be played Monday, will meet Joe Dawkins in the fourth quarter-final match Tuesday or Wednesday. Dawkins qualified for quarter-finals play with a surprise three set victory over Bob Castle, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3.

Other netters to reach the round of eight were Don Gale, 6-2, 6-0 victor over Tom Castaldo; Jim Cruze, who defeated Larry Brown 11-3; Dave Parnay, extended to three sets, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4 by Larry Mumma; Bud Slover, 6-2, 6-0 winner over Lee Jensen; Bob Phelps, 6-1, 6-0 victor over Dick Russo, and Chet Bulwa who downed Phil Latimer 11-3.

Gale and Cruze hook up in one quarter-final match today. In the City tournament Sunday, Gale upset Cruze to enter the semi-finals. Cruze, finalist in the school tournament last year, hopes to reverse Sunday's decision on the improved Gale today.

Bulwa faces Phelps, easy winner over Russo yesterday, in what may be the best match of the day.

Play in the second round losers division started yesterday with Wayne Thiebaud turning back two rivals, Gerard Wright and Bud Edmondson. Thiebaud won over the latter, 7-5, 6-4.

Other winners in the second round losers division include Keith Cakebread, 11-8 winner over Audrey Auerback; Tom Castaldo, 11-6 winner over Bill Jefferds, and Tom Fike and Warren Van Dusen who won by default.

In the first round losers division, Julie Menendez turned back two rivals, including an 11-0 victory over Jim Collins. Other winners were Norm Ansley, an 11-9 victor over George Clark; Jack Henselman 11-7 winner over Bill Pettit, and Leslie Halliday who won by default.

Other matches today: PE division—Les Halliday vs. Phil O'Connor, 10:30; Jim Collins vs. Orval Gillett, 4:30; and Norm Ansley vs. Fred Jobs at 4:30. First round losers class—Jim Council vs. Lou Costello, 10:30; Fiedler vs. Henselman, 4:30, and Abe Abrami vs. Jim McNicholas at 5:30.

Knee Injury Keeps Wilkins On Sidelines for Spring Drills

By FERMO CAMBIANICA Fullback Dave Wilkins was looking very well in the Spartan football drills this spring when a recent knee injury put him on the sidelines for the remainder of the practice session.

Wilkins comes to San Jose from Pasadena City college, where he alternated at right half in Coach Bob Blackman's V-formation with Bobby Ashworth, all-Southern California J.C. second team last year. Ashworth now is at Oregon university.

The V-formation is similar to the T, except that the fullback is used mainly for blocking, and lines up next to the quarterback on either side and one step back. The right half takes up the normal fullback duties on line plunges.

Wilkins, who is a sophomore police major, lettered twice on the PCC varsity in football. Last season he did most of the punting for the Bulldogs, averaging 38.3 yards on 36 punts, which placed him among the leaders in this department in the Western States conference.

He also made his only attempted conversion and booted a 25-yard field goal against Sterling college of Colorado. In the ball-packing department last year he picked up 168 yards in 49 carries for an average of 3.4 yards.

Last spring Dave defeated teammate Bob Meyers, who was the '48 WSC punting champion, in a kicking duel when he averaged 56.9 yards in the air on six punts.

The six-foot, 200-pound blond bomber was voted the outstanding defensive back in the Pacific league and the most valuable player on the team while attending South Pasadena high school in 1946. He won the heavyweight and light-heavyweight golden gloves titles at Pasadena City college.

Dave Wilkins may prove a big asset in the punting department for the Spartans this fall. The former Pasadena City college fullback was one of the leading punters in the Western States Conference last year.

A Phi O Builds Model of Chapel; Project Displayed in Student Union

Want a glimpse at San Jose State college's proposed $50,000 Memorial Chapel?

Then take a stroll over to the Student Union and have a look at a model of the future memorial for the college's war dead.

Alpha Phi Omega, campus service fraternity, recently finished building a 6 ft. long and 2 1/2 ft. high version of the Chapel which is now displayed in the room opposite the Student Union's main entrance. The model, set somewhat to scale from an architect's original drawing, was built by the Alpha Phi Omegas for Duke Deras and the Social Affairs committee. The latter group supplied the necessary materials.

The framework of the model is made of wood and the painted outside coverings consist of cardboard topped by a red millboard roof.

Several A Phi O members spent "six or seven days working on the project," according to Carl Ketchum, organization president.

Survey Shows SJS Has Race Prejudice Groups

By SAM GOLDMAN

Five out of the 19 San Jose State college sororities and fraternities interviewed recently admitted having in their constitutions written clauses which prohibit members of minority groups from entering their organizations. This fact was pointed out in the report issued by Mr. Claude N. Settles' 9:30 a.m., Sociology 153, race relations class. The data collected on social and fraternal groups was one of the 11 subjects surveyed by the college students for San Jose's Council for Civic Unity.

The report went on to state that Negroes are named as the ones discriminated against most often. No significant isolation nor acceptance is shown Filipinos or Japanese. However, it stated that an insignificant number of Jewish, Chinese, and Mexican students had been accepted for membership into the grecian-lettered organizations.

Only 20 off-campus and community groups, out of at least 300 non-racial lodges, were interviewed.

Files Aid Survey

The class' study on the SJS campus was simplified by the presence of several up-to-date files of the college's fraternal and independent groups from the Dean of Women and Student Body president's offices.

Approximately 39 per cent of the social organizations was interviewed. There are 10 on-campus sororities and 11 on-campus fraternities, of which 19 were interviewed.

"The groups contacted were quite cooperative and willingly volunteered information for our survey; however a few were hesitant about divulging information."

"Although 14 of the sororities and fraternities have no written restrictions concerning restrictive membership, nine of these have no members of the minority groups. Of the five organizations with minority groups, one has pledged members of the Jewish and Mexican groups, one has a Mexican member, and two have Jewish members."

Fifteen of the 19 fraternal organizations favored the mixing of minority clubs with whites at social events, such as student body dances and organizational exchange meetings.

One Grecian group was in favor so long as the events were "limited" (no definition of the word "limited" was given) and as long as the members of the minority groups were on nearly the same educational level as the rest of the organizations.

The remaining four "Greek Gods" stated that they did not wish to participate in social events with members of the minority groups.

Less Prejudice in Sports

One fraternal affiliation said they would refrain from taking part in athletic competition with the so-called minorities. No specific reason was given for this attitude.

The report stated that in the field of athletics, racial prejudice was less prevalent than in the social activities arena.

Another part of the study for the Council for Civic Unity by the Spartan students was the interviewing of 29 on-campus clubs. Sixteen of them were connected with specific college departments, 11 dealt with various phases of student activities on the campus, and two were religious clubs.

The report declared:

"None had racial clauses in their membership requirements. Only seven of these 29 did not have members from some minority group. Twenty-two had minority members with at least 15 Japanese, 15 Chinese, 10 Negroes, 11 Jews, and four Mexicans."

"All but one of these 29 are in favor of minority groups mixing with white persons at social events, and none would refrain from participating in sporting events."

Rally Leaders Meet Tonight

The Rally committee will meet in Room 24 at 7 o'clock tonight, Ed Mosher, committee chairman, announced yesterday.

Members did not meet last night because of the intra-squad game.

With only one more meeting remaining, Mosher urged all rally committee members to be present.

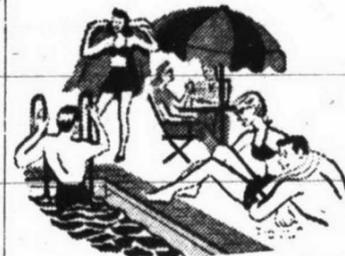

Slated for discussion tonight are final rally activity plans for football season. Several card stunt ideas also will be presented to the committee. All card stunt plans must be completed before the end of the quarter, Mosher said.

We cut hair of any size. Without anticipation of a prize. Our only reward and satisfaction is to see you happy and go into action.
