

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY CHARGED

Frosh Smashes Window At Delta Zeta House

By PETE WALLS

A 21-year-old San Jose State student who said he was just "taking part in a fraternity stunt," was charged by San Jose police with attempted burglary of the new Delta Zeta sorority house, 223 S. 11th St., early Thursday morning.

Daniel Francis Eggink, 475 E. San Antonio St., a limited freshman philosophy major, was booked at County Jail after he admitted he entered the building by smashing a kitchen window, police said.

He said he was going to paint "welcome" signs for the women who are moving into the house today.

Eggink was arrested as he walked down the driveway of the house at 2:30 a.m. Police officers, answering a call from Paula Covey at the Alpha Phi sorority house at 210 S. 10th St., immediately behind the new structure.

Miss Covey told officers she heard glass break and thought someone was trying to get into the house.

Eggink, when first questioned, according to police, denied breaking into the house, but said he came around to the rear of the building to get a water ski belonging to him.

But later, police said, he admitted he smashed the kitchen window. Officers said he had taped the window with adhesive tape, apparently to muffle the sound of breaking glass.

When Eggink was booked, officers said, police found a roll of adhesive tape on him. But they could not find any materials with which Eggink could paint signs, they said.

Mrs. Rachel Cavell, DZ housemother, said she did not know if anything had been stolen.

Several times during the school year, she said, persons have broken into the house. Cement blocks, electrical fixtures, and shelves from cupboards have been stolen, she added.

The new two-story structure will house 58 women next fall. About 30 women will move into the house today, she explained.

Spartan Shops Ends ASB Loan

Spartan Shops, Inc., this week canceled the second half of a $12,270 loan to the associated student body of San Jose State.

William M. Felse, student affairs business manager, said the loan was borrowed in 1956 to finance field lights for Spartan Stadium.

Felse said the student body did not have the necessary funds to buy the lights so the sum was transferred over from Spartan Shops, Inc.

The first half of the loan was canceled two and one-half years ago by the board. At last Tuesday's board meeting the second half was deleted from the records.

"At that time the campus association, which included Spartan Book Store and Coop, was simply lending ASB the money. Now the Spartan Shops Board feels the loan does not need to be repaid and has canceled it."

Platt, Gallo Overwhelm Phelan Field

Don M. Platt and Joseph Gallo swept four first places out of five in the annual Phelan Literary Contest awards made last night in Student Union. Both winners are graduate students.

The awards were as follows:
 Play: Don Platt and Tom Casalegno, first; Don Platt, second; James Witherell, third.
 Essay: Don Platt, first and second; Tom Casalegno, third.
 Short-story: Linley Jensen, first and second; Joel Atkins, third; Barbara Phelps, fourth.
 Sonnet: Joseph Gallo, first; George W. Gianola, second; Diane Burdin, third; Gianola, fourth.
 Lyric: Joseph Gallo, first; Stefani Cecil, second; Gianola, third and Gallo fourth.
 Prize money was distributed thusly: first place, worth $60, second $30, third $20, and $10 for fourth. Platt and Gallo won seven places in all out of 18 possible for a total of $140 for Platt and $130 for Gallo. There were 204 entries in the contest.

Bias Plan on Ballot 'Illegal' Says Parker

Charging that the referendum discrimination amendment to ASB by-laws was placed on the election ballot illegally, Billy Gene Parker yesterday told the Spartan Daily he plans to file a formal complaint against the Student Council.

Parker said he also has submitted the entire legal procedure of his petition outlawing discrimination to a local attorney.

"I have asked him to determine the course for action to proceed against the college, to enjoin it from having relations with discriminating student organizations," Parker said.

Basis for Parker's newest Student Council charge is Article VIII, Section 3, of the ASB Constitution which reads:
 "By-laws may be passed, or amended by a concurrence of a two-thirds vote of the entire Student Council at a regular meeting, provided the proposed change has been presented at the previous regular meeting."

Parker said: "Before the council could legally pass this measure and place it on the referendum ballot, as it did, if first would have had to present the measure in full at one meeting and then take final action the following week. It did both at the same meeting."

Dr. Lowell M. Walter, Student Council adviser, yesterday said he does not believe the council has acted illegally. "The council has not yet approved the measure," he said.

Brubeck Here Wednesday

Amiable Dave Brubeck, backed by his rhythmic quartet, will give a concert Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Morris Dailey Auditorium. Tickets, selling for $1.50 reserved and $1.25 general, still can be purchased in the Student Affairs Business Office, TH16. The concert marks the second time a big name jazz group will appear on campus this year under the sponsorship of the Social Affairs Committee.

First TV Operation Success; Dog Happy

Dr. Robert E. Richter, assistant professor of zoology, performed the first operation on SJS closed circuit television yesterday afternoon at 1:30.

The operation was done on a German shepard pup, in connection with the Biology Department seminar, to show the techniques used by a veterinary.

The nine-month-old pup underwent a spaying operation in the television center studios. The dog was laid on a tilted table, causing the viscera to flow down and away from the incision.

A similar operation is planned for May 18 for the Pre Med Society. All interested students may see the operation done on a collie pup at that meeting.

Dr. Richter narrated the operation while he worked. He explained each step as it was performed. The uterus was exposed and cut; he showed the ovaries, and explained what he was cutting and why.

The cameras were taking shots straight at the operation and reflected from an overhead mirror. The focus was good, and with the exception of an arm or hand which blocked the view from time to time, all the moves Dr. Richter made were clear.

Mrs. Terry Martin, director of educational television, assisted Dr. Richter during the operation. Dr. Albert F. Ellis, professor of physiology, stood by with a respirator, and Mrs. Richter, Dr. Richter's mother, administered ether near the end of the operation when the anesthetic began wearing off.

When Dr. Richter ended the operation, he said, "If the dog is not kept in tomorrow, she will probably be chasing cattle at the ranch where she lives."

Fraternities Get Fixtures If Coop Quits

When the Coop closes, some of its familiar furnishings will wind up in local fraternity houses.

The recent Coop furnishings sale was attended by many fraternities, local establishments and businessmen, Mrs. Margaret Ramonda, Coop manager said. Phi Sigma Kappa claimed a counter service unit, Pi Kappa Alpha a steam table, and Theta Xi 33 chairs.

"None of the equipment has been sold," explained William Felse, student affairs business manager. "We only have taken a deposit on the items, contingent on whether Coop closes or not."

He added that there was little possibility of the Coop remaining in operation after June.

Coop equipment remaining to be sold includes an IBM clock, tables, stools, refrigerators, a $200 fountain unit, coffee urns, cashier's stand, menu boards and 59 chairs at $3 each.

With the fountain, 59 chairs, sundry tables, stools and restaurant items yet to be sold, Mrs. Ramonda said students and organizations may still make deposits on the remaining equipment.

Dr. Robert Richter, assistant professor of zoology, performed the first SJS closed circuit television operation yesterday from the television center studio. Mrs. Terry Martin, of the TV center, assisted Dr. Richter during the spaying operation of a German shepard pup. "This type of demonstration could be used in classes," said John W. Westfall, coordinator of the TV center.

Puerto Rico 51st State?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Victor L. Anfuoso (D-N.Y.) yesterday introduced legislation to admit Puerto Rico as the 51st state of the union.

Anfuoso said in a prepared statement that Puerto Rico is of vital strategic importance to the United States and the entire Western Hemisphere. He said the Caribbean island's admission is "justified by its economic growth, adequacy of population, financial stability and increasing trade with the United States."

AGE PROVES BEST
 MOSCOW (UPI) — The Tass News Agency reported yesterday that Mito Khubulov, 141 years old, has won first place in a small-caliber rifle shooting contest at Tsinagari, the Caucasus village in which he lives.

The agency said Khubulov, one of the oldest men in the world, entered the contest sponsored by the village's young people, then shot rings around all the other contestants.

NEW DRUG FOUND
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—A new antibiotic designed to treat a variety of infections was described here yesterday during a medical symposium.

It is called "demethylchlorotetracycline." Dr. Harry F. Dowling of the University of Illinois College of Medicine said the new drug will be an improvement of antibiotics of the "tetracycline" family.

Kaucher Award Goes to Stephens

Harry Stephens, graduate speech and drama major, yesterday won the annual $50 Dorothy Kaucher Oral Reading Award.

Stephens read "The Great Wide World Over There" by Ray Bradbury. One of the few non-science fiction works Bradbury has written, it is a story of the discovery of the outside world by a young country girl through answering magazine advertisements.

Other finalists reading yesterday were Gilbert A. Gillespie, Yvonne Jackson, Dan Knowles, Jay Michelis and Joan Scott, all in the drama department.

Emcee of the program was John F. Snyder, last year's winner, who now is on the staff of a radio-TV school in San Francisco.

Contest judges were Dr. Harold Miller, head of the English Department and former speech instructor; Dr. Alice Dement, associate professor of psychology; and Dr. Helene Blattner, head of the Oral Interpretation Department at Stanford.

While awaiting the decision of the judges, Dr. Hugh Gillis, professor of drama, and former head of the department, spoke briefly on the value of oral interpretation. He said "Since it is basic, pure and direct communication, it is a rather awesome thing to attack."

Introduction to the program was by Noreen La Barge Mitchell, assistant professor of speech. She read a short letter from Dr. Kaucher, who was not present, sending her congratulations to the contestants.

Dr. Walter said a check on the minutes of the April 22 Student Council meeting shows that the council moved to place the discrimination by-law amendment on the ballot, but not to approve the amendment itself.

"If this is so, then Parker does not seem to have a valid claim," he added.

Chief Justice Dick Christiana said he would check into the constitutionality of Parker's claim before making a statement.

Parker said he hopes to void both sections of the discrimination proposal. "If they are declared invalid, we will be able to submit our petition right away," he declared. "If not, our present petitions are worthless, because they conflict with the constitutional amendment."

He added that he and his supporters are determined "that constitutional discrimination must end at SJS and that a definite date must be set for ending it."

He said if the present action fails, he does not think he will circulate new petitions this late in the semester.

"But if we're not successful this semester, we'll resume where we left off next fall," he vowed.

Teacher Pay Raise Gains In Assembly

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly Ways and Means Committee has gone down the line with Gov. Edmund G. Brown and voted 100,000 state employees and the faculty at UC and the state colleges a flat 5 per cent pay raise.

Despite pressure from representatives of UC, the colleges, the California Teachers Association and the State Employees' Association, the committee last night voted to uphold the governor's position.

The regents at UC had requested a 10 per cent raise for faculty members; colleges wanted at least 10 per cent, and state employees demanded a 7½ per cent raise.

Graveside Rites Planned Monday For Sociologist

Graveside funeral services for Dr. Heinz J. Graafls, who apparently took his own life early Wednesday morning, will be in Golden Gate Cemetery in San Bruno Monday at 2:30 p.m.

Milton B. Rendahl, head of the Sociology and Social Work Department, said Dr. Graafls' seminar in populations will be taken over by Marion Boat, a research consultant to the San Mateo County Planning Commission, and a specialist in population problems.

Clayton Lane, from Stanford, will teach Dr. Graafls' other classes for the remainder of the term, Rendahl said.

The body is presently resting in Monahan Mortuary, 174 W. San Carlos St.

Police Hunt Armed Man in San Jose Area

An all-points bulletin sent Santa Clara County sheriff's deputies searching yesterday for a Charles Ledbetter, described as dangerous and armed with a sawed-off shotgun, UPI reported.

The bulletin originated in Los Angeles, where he is wanted for armed robbery.

Police here had no description of him other than that he was believed headed for East Palo Alto and that he may be driving a 1951 green Mercury or a 1949 Ford station wagon.

GradDivision Admits 1417 During Year

A total of 1,417 new students were admitted to the Graduate Division at San Jose State during the period from April 1958 through April 1959.

Of this number, 564 have a master's degree as their objective; 820 students want a credential only, said Dr. James W. Brown, head of the Graduate Studies Division and professor of education.

In a listing prepared by the Division of Graduate Studies, a further breakdown is given.

Of the 624 persons whose objective is a M.A. degree, 69 are in men's physical education and 66 are in elementary administration.

Persons interested in business topped the list of 370 students seeking a M.S. degree, with 140 in this field alone. Engineering, mathematics and sociology figures also ranked high.

Of the total 390 persons who want a credential only, 165 in the general secondary field top the list.

General secondary people also ranked first with 214 out of a total of 430 persons that seek both a credential and a master's degree, Dr. Brown concluded.

Tour Plan, Tea Highlight Oriental Eve

Steve Jarvis, San Jose State sophomore history major, will tour Japan this summer with six Stanford students, Yoshi Tsurumi, exchange student at Stanford, it was announced at the Humanities Club's "Japanese Evening" dinner Wednesday at Sakura Gardens.

Tsurumi, a junior economics major at Tokyo's Keio University, arranged the summer exchange program to help further "better understanding between the countries."

He said he wished SJS would take the initiative to have exchange students.

He urged the near capacity crowd of approximately 100 students and faculty members to see the similarities instead of differences between cultures.

Tsurumi deplored Americans' lack of knowledge of the Orient but said he was "very happy to see the Japanese influences in architecture in this country."

THE MANY LOVES OF THORWALD DOCKSTADER

When Thorwald Dockstader—sophomore, epicure, and sportsman—first took up smoking, he did not simply choose the first brand of cigarettes that came to hand.

I will lie upon the shore, I will be a dreamer. I will feel the sea once more Pounding on my femur.

Thorwald's second date was with a physical education major named Peaches Glendower, a broth of a girl with a ready smile and a size 18 neck.

"I think I'll stick with PHILIP MORRIS," he said Thorwald's final date was with a golden-haired, creamy-browed, green-eyed, red-lipped, full-calved girl named Totsi Sigafos.

Totsi started the evening with Thorwald at a luxurious restaurant where she consumed her own weight in Cornish rock hen. From there they went to a de luxe movie palace where Totsi had popcorn with butter.

While waiting, Thorwald thought over all of his girls and came to a sensible decision. "I think," he said to himself, "that I will stick with Philip Morris. I am not rich enough for girls."

Re-unite Germany Soon?

BONN, Germany (UPI)—The West and the Soviet Union each insist a reunited Germany should be molded in their own image.

The Big Four Foreign Ministers meeting in Geneva to discuss the German problem on that level for the first time since 1955 will seek to determine whether there is any hope of compromise somewhere between the poles.

The Germans are in the middle. While they are the people who will be most directly affected by any agreement or disagreement at Geneva, they have the least influence on any decisions to be reached there.

As Germany looks on, these are the issues to be taken up at Geneva:

Question: How is Germany to be reunited?

Answer: The Western powers—the U.S., Britain and France—and the West German government believe the nation should be reunited by means of free and secret general elections.

They probably would agree to the establishment of some kind of East-West German group commissioned to try to write an all-German election law.

Perhaps a second group could try to arrange greater freedom of movement of persons and publications across the East-West German frontiers before elections are held. But the West German government must remain sovereign until such elections are held.

The Soviet Union says reunification can come about only as the result of a confederation of the existing East and West German governments.

The Big Four, the Soviets insist, no longer have any responsibility for arranging reunification. All-German elections must be indefinitely postponed.

Khrushchev told visiting West German Socialists recently that he could not approve any elections in which "the 50,000,000 people under the Adenauer regime would impose their majority on the 17,000,000 living in East Germany."

Q: What about a German peace treaty?

A: Western powers and West

Germany say that only the sovereign, freely-elected government of the whole of Germany may negotiate and sign a peace treaty with the victorious powers of World War II.

The Soviet Union proposes that the wartime Allies now sign a peace treaty with each of the existing German governments, and has even suggested that some sections of the treaty might be different for each Germany.

Light Opera, Art Deserve Top Billing

By MARJORIE NICKSON

For 21 years, the San Francisco Civic Light Opera has been delighting theater-goers on the peninsula.

The 22nd annual season opens June 1 at the Curran Theatre with Judy Holliday in "Bells Are Ringing." The Broadway comedy will run five weeks, nightly except Sundays.

Other productions scheduled are a rejuvenated version of "Oklahoma!," "West Side Story" (which contains a fascinating lesson on teenage "rumbles") and an optional added attraction, "My Fair Lady." The latter, which played in the city a season ago, will be staged at War Memorial Opera House.

Season tickets only may be obtained now from the Curran Theatre, 445 Geary St., San Francisco 2.

Winsome Marcia Day, sophomore art major, was named "Miss Congeniality" at the annual Miss San Jose contest in Montgomery Theater Wednesday night.

Kathy Harrington, 18-year-old Los Gatos High School student, was named Miss San Jose. She will represent the city in the Miss California contest at Santa Cruz June 25-26-27-28.

Three other SJS lovelies, Erica Rossi, Rilma Morris and Gayle Treese were among the 12 finalists in Wednesday night's judging. They were selected from among 30 contestants who took part in preliminary judging April 29.

Contestants were judged in three categories, intellect and personality, appearance in evening gowns, and appearance in bathing suits.

Miss Day was elected Miss Congeniality by the other contestants. She is a member of Alpha Phi.

Golden Gate Bomb Hoax Causes Stir

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A report that the Golden Gate Bridge would be blown up at midnight Wednesday sent police, highway patrolmen and FBI agents scurrying over the span last night in a search for explosives.

The alert came when two girls, aged 13 and 14, in Campbell, inadvertently dialed a wrong telephone prefix. A man with a deep voice and foreign accent answered. "I've been waiting for your call," he said, lowering his voice conspiratorially. "The plans are all set to blow up the Golden State Bridge at 12."

The girls gulped and hung up. "But golly," they gasped and called the number again.

"Is that you, Erika," the voice said. This was enough to cause the girls to slam down the receiver and run to a police station.

Sgt. Joe Morgan of Campbell had them try again.

"Ah, ha, I've been waiting," the man said, and again described the bridge plot.

An alert, given at 7:30 p.m., set off a search of the 1 1/4-mile long span with authorities counting the minutes until midnight.

The mysterious telephone turned out to be the unlisted number of a San Jose business executive, who was not at home, and he wasn't reached until 11:44 p.m.

It was all a joke, he said. He was tired of people who dial wrong numbers, and just wanted to discourage them from repeating the error.

Names of Scripters No Longer Hidden

by LOU LUCIA

Would you please give the names of movies and tell who wrote the script?

All right. First on the list is "Some Like It Hot." It was written by the chef who cooks the soup at the Cafeteria.

"The Journey" was scribbled by a student who found a close parking spot one morning. Three miles.

"Imitation General" was authored by an ROTC cadet here.

"Separate Tables" was a collaboration between a male and female who were sitting in the Library and joined forces.

"The Sound and the Fury" consisted of a professor talking and the student who received an F putting down their differences on paper.

"Home Before Dark" was put on parchment by women's living groups and housemothers.

"The Crawling Eye" was written by a student who was deficient in reading ability.

"The Perfect Furlough" was thought of by a professor in France on his sabbatical leave. (His wife wasn't with him.)

"Tunnel of Love" was typed by a student sitting next to the juke box in the Coop.

"Night of the Quarter Moon" was authored at a local drive-in movie by persons unknown.

"The Trap" was scrawled by a professor who fiendishly wrote a book and then insisted that all members of his class use his text.

"Imitation of Life" was written by the many students who must perform an internship for no pay while in college.

"The Robe" was typed by a graduating senior who received an F and couldn't participate in commencement exercises.

"Green Mansions" was put on

NEW ROUTE TO EUROPE!

Sail from California to France and England this summer for as little as $367—on Orient & Pacific!

THIS IS THE West Coast's new way to Europe. Twenty sunlit days of swimming, dancing, sight-seeing and parties on a golden Orient & Pacific liner—bound for France and England.

A vacation at sea before your holiday on the Continent begins!

The cost is amazingly low. You can do the whole thing for as little as $18 a day! Fares on the Orcades start at $367 tourist, $650 first class. (Fares on the Chusan are slightly higher.) And there are special round-trip rates.

Orient & Pacific Lines Europe Lines

Your Itinerary

You sail first from San Francisco or Los Angeles to Panama and its charming old Spanish towns and fantastic Canal.

Next stop, Trinidad—for a day of exploring, shopping and steel band music. Then on to Madeira (Las Palmas if you sail on the Chusan) where you can sample great wines, toboggan down a 3000-foot mountain and sight-see in bullock carts. Three days later you are in Le Havre, another day and you're in London—ready for the second half of your European holiday.

Sailing Dates

Orient & Pacific Lines offer two great new European sailings for 1959.

The Chusan sails from San Francisco June 20th and Los Angeles June 21st, arriving in London July 12th.

Orcades sails from San Francisco June 29th and Los Angeles June 30th, arriving in London July 20th.

You return on the Orsova, sailing from London August 19th and arriving in Los Angeles September 7th, San Francisco September 8th.

See your travel agent now for reservations. These sailings fill up quickly.

Norton-Morrow Duel Highlights 33rd Fresno Relays

San Jose State's sprint relay team of (l. to r.) Ray Norton, Bob Brooks, Kent Herkenrath and Bob Poynter prepare to go in the West Coast Relays. The SJS quartet has recorded the fastest time in the nation this year in the 440 relay (40.4). The Spartans will be facing excellent running teams from Occidental, USC and the Southern California Striders, in the WCR tomorrow.

Texan Holds 2-1 Bulge Over Ray

By GREGORY H. BROWN

A torrid match in the 100-yard dash, the greatest array of shot put men, and the appearance of four Olympic champions will highlight the running of the 33rd annual West Coast Relays in Fresno's Ratcliffe Stadium tomorrow.

Half a dozen world records will be in jeopardy at the WCR, which is internationally known as the place "Where World Records Are Broken."

A new record for entries, 1646, are entered, including Parry O'Brien, Adhemar DaSilva, Bobby Morrow, and Charlie Dumas, all Olympic champions.

Ray Norton, San Jose sprint star, will be battling the Texas whiz, Morrow, for the fourth time. The former Abilene Christian great has a 2-1 edge over Norton. Morrow holds victories over the Spartan at last year's Modesto Relays (9.4-9.5) and the AAU (9.4-9.7), with the Rapidman taking Morrow in the Coliseum Relays last year, each man stepped in a comparatively slow 9.7.

Norton has again tied the world's record this year and also has tied the world's 100 meter mark of 10.1. He also has a 20.8-220 around a curve, fastest in the nation this year.

Both sprint greats will be pushed by Norton's teammate Bobbie Poynter (9.4) and California's Willie White.

Orlando Haley of Oklahoma State, Munn of the USC freshman team and Willie "Whip" Williams of the San Jose freshman team also are entries in the 100.

Coach Bud Winter will take a 15-man squad to the Fresno meet with Mac Burton, school record holder in the broad jump, a question mark. Dick Bocks, who threw the javelin 235 feet in this same stadium a few weeks ago, will not make the trip due to a sore arm.

San Jose State's sprint relay team of Norton, Poynter, Kent Herkenrath and Chuck McNeil, possessors of the fastest time in the nation this year in the 440 (40.4), will go against strong running Occidental, USC and the Striders.

The Spartans, running under handicaps both times they have attempted the 880-yard relay, will be tested by a tough Occidental squad.

In the mile relay event for the locals will be Herkenrath, McNeil, Bob Myers and Chuck McNeil. This group hardly figures near the rest on paper but the quartet has yet to run at full strength all year. Their best effort was a 3:15.5 in a winning effort against Stanford earlier this year.

The Spartans will be two strong in the discus event with Tom Daniels (167-8) and Larry Collier (155-8 1/2) representing the home camp. Rink Babka, former USC great, will be favored in the event and will be shooting for a new world's record.

Tomorrow afternoon Coach Bert Bonanno's freshman mile relay team will test many of the top olympic clubs and freshman teams in the nation as they set their sights on a new intercollegiate record in the mile event. Jim Flemons, who was suffering from a slight muscle pull, has been given the green light and the team will be at full strength. The quartet has run a 5:15.8 this year and will be shooting for the freshman record of 3:14.4, set by Texas U. last year.

Wilton Jones, school record holder in the hop, step, jump event, will carry the Spartan colors as he goes against the best, DaSilva, a two-time Olympic champion and former world record holder. Stanford's John Kelly is one of the other favorites.

In the 5000-meter un (slightly more than two miles) Wes Bond, Don Kelly and Sam Holt are entered for San Jose State. Max Truex is expected to challenge both his American record of

... World shot put champ

Long, Nieder Challenge Put Marks

Although many records are on the brink of being shattered tomorrow, the most likely is a new world's mark in the shot put.

Not even a troublesome wrist and business commitments forcing two-time Olympic winner Parry O'Brien to scratch, can dim the luster of this event which pits USC's 260-lb. freshman sensation, Dallas Long, against Bill Nieder of the San Francisco Olympic Club.

Also in the field are USC's ineligible Dave Davis, holder of the national collegiate record, and Charley Butt and Bob Humphreys of the Striders, both of whom have put over 58 feet.

Lost in the shuffle are a raft of collegians in the 55 and 56-foot bracket—marks which would have won almost any meet a few years ago.

In the 32 runnings of the West Coast Relays, world records have been broken or equaled in every running event of the program but one. Only the two-mile relay has escaped the record onslaught.

Since the innovation of the relays, world records have been broken or tied 28 times at Fresno's Ratcliffe Stadium. There has been four interscholastic records set, six American records and 26 national junior college marks.

Sunny skies have been forecast for the meeting, assuring fans that the meet will go on as scheduled. No West Coast Relays has ever been postponed or canceled.

There have been three close calls, however. Only a few hours after the initial running of the WCR in 1927 an irrigation ditch running behind the field overflowed and flooded the track. Rain fell the morning of the 1957 WCR and necessitated drying the track by two giant agricultural burners. A light shower fell during the actual running of the '58 relays.

IFC Softballers In Tight Contest

Delta Upsilon kept alive its hopes for at least a tie for the American League crown of the IFC League with a come-through 2-1 victory over Delta Sigma Phi yesterday.

The win gives DU a 3-1 record for the season, just one-half a game behind league-leading Alpha Tau Omega.

In National League action Pi Kappa Alpha lost 8-7 to Phi Sigma Kappa, thereby dropping two full games behind league-leading Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Other scores:
Sigma Nu 7, Theta Xi 5.
Sigma Phi Epsilon won by forfeit over Kappa Alpha.

Local Golfers Seek Revenge Against Indians

A determined San Jose State golf squad takes on Stanford this afternoon at 1 on the San Jose Country Club course.

Stanford is one of the three teams to defeat the Spartans in dual meet competition this year. The Indians edged out the local swingers 15 1/2-11 1/2 on the Stanford course earlier this year.

Jack Lucetti, who has been burning up the local courses, will tee-off in the number one spot for the Spartans. Coach Walt McPherson voiced concern that his men haven't been playing up to their potential, but says, "We'll be playing on our home course so we have a good chance of winning."

Harvey Kohs, Linn Dunaway, Ron Ginn, Don Palmer and Keith Rockwell or Jim Sullivan will comprise the SJS squad.

WHO SAID IT FIRST?

A column of incidental intelligence
by Jockey brand

"GENTLEMAN AND SCHOLAR"
High praise, indeed, for any man! But did you know that the description comes from Robert Burns—who said it first about a dog? Here's the quote:
"His locked, lettered, brow brass collar
Showed him the gentleman and scholar."
You'll find the couplet in Burns' "The Two Dogs."

"THE MORNING AFTER"
This horrible time was first immortalized by George Ade in "The Sultan of Solu." Here's the way he put it:
"But, RE-MORSE!
The water-wagon is the place for me;
It is no time for mirth and laughter,
The cold, gray dawn of the morning after!"

"MAN BITES DOG"
That's everybody's definition of news, and we're all indebted to John B. Bogart, city editor of the old New York Sun (1873-90) who first said:
"When a dog bites a man, that is not news, because it happens so often. But if a man bites a dog, that is news!"

Jockey Underwear

What's true about expressions is also true about styles. Somebody always got there first. Take Jockey brand underwear. Jockey brand is made only by Coopers. Coopers invented Jockey underwear—and no copy can compare with Jockey brand for quality, comfort and fit. For underwear that feels better because it fits better, insist on Jockey brand—the original comfort-tailored underwear. You'll find it at better stores everywhere. CRIES OF PROTEST have reached this corner during the past few weeks concerning the scheduling of 1959 football games.

Primary among protests has been the disagreement among certain members of the student body with the scheduling of the College of Pacific game at Stockton, instead of at San Jose.

From a financial standpoint it is fortunate that San Jose can take advantage of such a football star as Dick Bass in scheduling the game for Stockton. Through an agreement with COP officials San Jose State will share in the revenue of the game.

Let's take a look at this financial situation. Say the game is being played at Spartan Stadium, which has a seating capacity of approximately 16,000. Approximately 8000 of these seats are taken up by students and faculty of SJS as non-paying customers. That leaves another 8000 open for the public. With $2.50 as the cost of the average seat SJS would have $20,000.

This same game at Stockton would attract anywhere in the neighborhood of 27,000-35,000 persons. Last season SJS-COP played before 27,000 fans. At the time SJS was on a three-game winning streak and COP had a three-game losing streak. Memorial Stadium at Stockton has a seating capacity of 35,000, and as Bass enters his last season of college eligibility, it is safe to assume the park will be near capacity any time COP plays a game.

THE FACT THAT SJS has shifted the COP game to Stockton this year does not mean this will become an annual practice.

On the road last year the Spartans made money. At home they lost. As an example let us take the season opener at Seattle where the Spartans met University of Washington. At that game SJS made $25,000, from a school which has a student body of 15,000. At the game 29,000 persons were in attendance.

In five games at SJS last season the Spartans lost approximately $10,000 before an estimated 55,000 fans. In two games on the road (University of Washington and Arizona State) SJS played before 58,000. Not once during the entire schedule did the SJS students fill the section designated for them in Spartan Stadium. For this you want the COP game scheduled for Spartan Stadium.

Nowhere in the United States, among major college football schedules, will the students find a schedule more "inviting" than the SJS calendar.

Eight games are to be played within a 200-mile radius of the campus. Five home games, the COP contest, one at Stanford and Fresno.

LAST SEASON SAN JOSE STATE'S two big money winning games were played away from home. This season Washington and Arizona State will be here at San Jose. At Arizona State the Spartans played before the largest crowd in the state of Arizona last season, 29,000. This asset has been wiped from the ledger this season.

In its place San Jose students may enjoy one of the best football schedules in the country. And still there are gripes. Let me pose this question to you in closing. Would the student body be willing to pay $1 as admission price when the COP game is moved back to San Jose to defray expenses? At Stanford, students must pay an admission price to all football games along with the purchase of an ASB card.

Coed Tennis Tournament Here Today

The 1959 Coed Tennis Tournament gets way today at 2 p.m. on the Spartan courts.

The tournament is sponsored by WAA, Co-Rec, Men's Intramurals and the Leadership Class.

Miss Ardith E. Frost, assistant professor of Recreation, is heading the tournament committee. Miss Frost is aided by student co-chairmen Gayle Pinkney and Jerry Reynolds.

One of the aims of the tourney is that it will provide enough enthusiasm to pave the way for more tennis on the campus in the hope that a future coed tennis club may be formed.

Baseballers Battle Dons, San Diego

San Jose State varsity baseball squad will close its West Coast Athletic Conference schedule tonight, with a single game under the lights in Municipal Stadium, against the USF Dons. Game time is 7:30.

Coach Sobczak plans to split the pitching chores between righthanders Joel Guthrie and Bob Woods.

Sobczak was elated over the team performance against St. Mary's Tuesday. SJS scored a double victory over the Gaels. "They have always had the potential," the head coach said, "and they finally released it against St. Mary's."

The coach was particularly pleased with the pitching performances of lefthanders Larry Williams and Dick Holden. "That was the best I have seen them throw this season," said Sobczak. Williams pitched five full innings, allowed one hit and struck out 13 of the 15 batters he faced. Holden came on in the sixth and promptly struck out four of the six batters he faced.

The only hit of the game was given up by Williams in the third.

SJS has already captured three wins from the Dons. In the Dons' last appearance in Municipal Stadium, righthander Bill Leach hurled a four-hitter as the Spartans scored a 10-4 rout over USF.

Tomorrow the Spartans will host what Sobczak terms "a top Marine ball club," in the San Diego Marines. Game time is 2 p.m.

The Marines have copied victories over Stanford, Cal Poly and USF on their northern swing. The San Diego roster will undoubtedly carry the names of many professional and ex-pro athletes.

Sobczak was undecided on his choice of pitchers for tomorrow's game but indicated he would use three or four pitchers in the game.

For tonight's ball game no changes are expected in the starting lineup.

LINE DRIVES: A former Spartan, Bob Colombo, who performed in the outfield for the 1957 edition, has been offered a professional contract with the Washington Senators organization . . . top Spartan hitters in the past few games have been Emmett Lee, Jim Pusateri, Ted Coutts and Doug McChesney. . . Lee needs four hits to equal a record set in 1957 for the most hits in a single season. He has 46 hits . . . the Spartans' WCAC record is 9-6. They suffered three defeats to league-leading Santa Clara, two to College of the Pacific and one to St. Mary's . . . their wins, besides the three over USF, have been two from COP, three from St. Mary's, and one from Santa Clara . . . the only defeat Santa Clara suffered this season was against the Spartans. Errol Williams (6-9%) will go against USC's Charlie Dumas in the high jump for the second time this year. The two matched jumps at Mt. Sac with the Olympic champ taking the event. Williams finished second.

In the hurdles, Ancel Robinson, Chuck Cobb and Clarence Treat will oppose each other. Freshman Bob Gill of San Jose has a 14.3 this year and will be entered in the open event.

Los Angeles State's consistent Joel Wiley is the broad jump favorite with Cebron Russ of California, John Kelly of Stanford, and comebacking Ross Range, 1955 Pan-American Games champ, the top contenders. If Mac Burton (SJS) is able to make the trip he could cause the top boys trouble.

Stan Hopkins and Dick Kimmel will represent the Spartans in the pole vault. Oklahoma State's Jim Graham has cleared the 15-foot mark and will be against UCLA's George Roubanis and USC's Jim Brewer as well as Hopkins and Kimmel.

WAA Swim Squad Second at Mills

Six San Jose State coeds captured second place at the Mills College swim play day last weekend and also won individual honors in the events.

The WAA group presented two synchronized swimming numbers: Marilyn Anderson and Ailee Kunz in "Taboo," and Nan Greco and Mary Quigley presented "Happy Harliquins."

Mary Maloney, Ann Arnett and Miss Anderson won second place in the medley relay; Miss Maloney won the 50-yard backstroke, and Miss Arnett placed second in diving.

Miss Donna J. Garrett, assistant professor of nursing, who advises the group, accompanied the coeds. The synchronized swimming group is a regular WAA activity.

Hurdler Kent Herkenrath's Lunge Victory, One of Track's Greatest

The Cal-San Jose track meet is a thing of the past but to this writer the final-lunge victory of Kent Herkenrath over California's Willie White to give SJS a one point margin of victory will long be remembered as one of the real come-through performances in track and field.

Chatting with Kent recently the topic of this pulsating duel was still fresh in his mind. "I knew I had to beat Willie over that first hurdle in order to whip him," co-captain Herkenrath remarked. "I knew we sorely needed that five points in order to win the meet."

Herky is in his second year of collegiate competition for coach Bud Winter's crew, a coach who Kent describes as "The greatest in the world." He was a fourth place finisher to world-record holder Charley Tidwell in last year's NCAA meet in Berkeley.

Herkenrath, 21, is a graduate of Monrovia High School in the same town as the school. "I ran the low and high hurdles and the 100 and 220 yard dashes," he said. Herkenrath's potential leadership capabilities were firmly established after his first year at Citrus Junior College in Glendora. He was co-captain of the championship team in 1956 and was the first to represent Citrus in the State Junior College meet in Modesto.

Asked about SJS, "I heard what a good physical education and journalism school San Jose State had, so I decided to go there," he quipped. Kent originally intended to major in journalism but after one semester changed his emphasis to P.E. "I felt this is where my prime interest was," he said.

"I was really surprised at the competition I was thrown against when I first came here," Herkenrath confessed. "I had always been first in most everything I did back home and now I was only third or fourth in some events." Herkenrath attributed his fine progress to the guiding of his coach, Bud Winter. "When every man on the team improves you have to give the coach credit."

Last year Kent ran his best 220 hurdle race with a 22.7, clocking against Ancel Robinson who took the event at the Sangar Invitational. "I plan to give the 400 meter hurdles a whirl," informed the fleet sprinter. Herkenrath ran a 48.4 in the 440 last week and liked the distance well enough to try the difficult long hurdle event.

At present Herkenrath, along with Bobby Staten of USC is the only man ranked coast-wide in four events. Kent has a 9.7 100-yard dash, a 48.4 440-yard dash, a 23.4 low hurdle mark and is ranked with the teams fine relay mark, 3:15.5.

"I feel we have the team this year to beat the USC Trojans, and I sure wish we could play them," Kent believes that San Jose State is the best in the United States this year. "We should even have a better team next year even with losing men like Norton, Hopkins, Bond, and Holt and myself."

Kent is looking toward the future with hopes of becoming a coach somewhere along the Peninsula. "I would like to coach cross-country and track," he finished. G.H.B.

Anti-LA Dodger Move Nears Court

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — An attempt to prevent the Los Angeles Dodgers from moving into Chavez Ravine was taken one step closer to the U.S. Supreme Court yesterday when attorney Phill Silver asked the State Supreme Court for a rehearing on its most recent opinion in the case.

The state high court recently upheld the Dodger-city contract to alter a deed restriction which requires Chavez Ravine land be used for only "public purposes."

the Feminine Touch

By JOYCE FLORES
Women's Editor

With June, the traditional wedding month, close at hand, many coeds' fancies will lightly turn to thoughts of love and marriage, mainly the latter.

Coeds will take part in bridal parties, either as bridesmaids or as star attraction. Others will be interested spectators as their friends take the altar path.

But I'll guess that few women stop to think on the history behind various modern wedding customs.

The bridal party originated in the aboriginal days when loyal tribesmen and close friends of the bridegroom helped him invade enemy territory to capture his bride. While he escaped with her, his friends stayed behind to fight off her relatives. Hence, we have a best man and ushers.

The women's section of the modern bridal party can be traced directly to Saxon England. First maid-of-honor was the oldest woman friend of the bride who tended her before the wedding. She dressed the bride, made the bridal wreath and feast decorations.

The first attendants were just that—persons who protected the maiden from capture.

Another bit of history relates to the aftermath of marriage—the honeymoon.

Since 'way back at the turn of the century, Niagara Falls has been the foremost honeymoon spot, that is, until recently.

The Niagara Falls, N.Y., Chamber of Commerce counted only 3500 honeymooning couples out of the 3 million visitors last year.

Replacing this traditional romantic spot are such sophisticated spots as Las Vegas, Miami, and Hawaii. Newly-weds also show an affinity for Canada and Carmel.

Before the wedding comes the engagement ring, traditionally, and before that came plaited grass and rushes worn about the bride-to-be's wrists or ankles. Later, these were reduced to finger size.

I wonder who painted the first "Just Married" signs?

Panhellenic Group Strives for Goal Of Sorority Unity

Representing more than 900 San Jose State coeds is Panhellenic Council, which works to unite and coordinate activities of sorority women.

Each of the 12 houses has two representatives in Panhel, which meets twice a month. The junior delegate is new to council; the senior delegate has served one semester. She trains the junior representative, who will fill her position the following semester.

"This way, our new Council members do not have to learn by trial and error," explained Panhellenic president Joan Price.

Equal leadership opportunities for all houses is secured by the rotation plan for presidency. Each spring the Panhel leader is selected on a seniority basis of her house, determined by date of establishment on campus.

Officers and chairman also are filled in order of sorority seniority.

Brothers Mourn; PiKA Mascot Dog Killed by Auto

He was nothing but a shaggy dog named Theodore Craig, but his owners, the brothers of Pi Kappa Alpha, mourned his recent death.

The late Craig was of mixed parentage—German Shepherd and Australian sheep dog. He was 7 years old at time of death. For five years he resided at the PiKA house on Reed St.

"Teddy Bear," as he often was called, was more like a lion after recently being shaved to appear as one of the pledges. Actives found him, wearing a necktie, tied to their fire bell.

Last weekend the lion-like Teddy Bear was hit by a car, putting a damper on the Fireman's Ball, according to one brother. The mascot was to have been guest of honor.

Leathers, Bows Take New Look

Accessories are taking a new twist this season. Leather is getting fancier. It has been combined with furs and fine fabrics, and now comes with embroidery. Designer Vincent Danzi perfected a technique to put embroidery right on the leather, instead of as an applique.

Hairbows are now lacquered to match hair and dress.

Policewomen Invade Man's World

Another "man's world" invaded by the modern woman is police work. The SJS police school includes coeds' names on its enrollment sheet.

How can the lady be an officer? "Their initiative and maternal instincts, their natural curiosity and attention to detail make them invaluable in crime prevention and delinquency," says Dr. Lois Higgins, International Policewomen president.
