ABSTRACT

This Alberta curriculum guide defines competencies that help students build daily living skills, investigate career options in financial management, use technology in the financial management field effectively and efficiently, and prepare for entry into the workplace or related postsecondary programs. The first section provides a program rationale and philosophy for career and technology studies, general learner expectations, program organization information, curriculum and assessment standards, and types of competencies. The second section provides an opportunity for students to learn about the development and use of financial information and to apply this information within the context of business and personal life. It includes a rationale and philosophy for the financial management strand, strand organization, and planning for instruction. The 14 modules are organized into introductory, intermediate, and advanced levels that cover a comprehensive set of competencies in these areas of financial management: financial information, taxation, business management, financial software, and accounting. Modules also define exit-level competencies, specify prerequisites, and outline specific learner expectations. Other sections of the guide contain the following: module curriculum and assessment standards; assessment tools; linkages and transitions with other strands, other educational programs, and to the community, the workplace and the credentialing process; a learning resource guide listing 76 resources keyed to modules, plus sources for further information; and sample student learning guides. CAREER AND TECHNOLOGY STUDIES

A. PROGRAM RATIONALE AND PHILOSOPHY

Through Career and Technology Studies (CTS), secondary education in Alberta is responding to the many challenges of modern society, helping young people develop daily living skills and nurturing a flexible, well-qualified work force.

In Canada's information society, characterized by rapid change in the social and economic environment, students must be confident in their ability to respond to change and successfully meet the challenges they face in their own personal and work lives. In particular, they make decisions about what they will do when they finish high school. Many students will enter the work force, others will continue their education. All students face the challenges of growing independence and responsibility, and of entering post-secondary programs and/or the highly competitive workplace.

Secondary schools also face challenges. They must deliver, on a consistent basis, high quality, cost-effective programs that students, parents and the community find credible and relevant.

CTS helps schools and students meet these challenges. Schools can respond more efficiently and effectively to student and community needs and expectations by taking advantage of the opportunities in the CTS curriculum to design courses and access school, community and distance learning resources. Students can develop the confidence they need as they move into adult roles by assuming increased responsibility for their learning; cultivating their individual talents, interests and abilities; and by defining and acting on their goals.

As an important component of education in Alberta secondary schools, CTS promotes student achievement by setting clear expectations and recognizing student success. Students in CTS develop competencies—the knowledge, skills and attitudes they are expected to demonstrate, that is, what they know and what they are able to do.

Acquired competencies can be applied now and in the future as students make a smooth transition into adult roles in the family, community, workplace and/or further education. To facilitate this transition, clearly stated expectations and standards have been defined in cooperation with teachers, business and industry representatives and post-secondary educators.

CTS offers all students important learning opportunities. Regardless of the particular area of study chosen, students in CTS will:

- develop skills that can be applied in their daily lives, now and in the future
- refine career-planning skills
- develop technology-related skills
- enhance employability skills
- apply and reinforce learnings developed in other subject areas.

In CTS, students build skills they can apply in their everyday lives. For example, in the CTS program, particularly at the introductory levels, students have the opportunity to improve their ability to make sound consumer decisions and to appreciate environmental and safety precautions.

CAREERS

A career encompasses more than activities just related to a person's job or occupation; it involves one's personal life in both local and global contexts; e.g., as a family member, a friend, a community volunteer, a citizen of the world.

The integration of careers throughout the CTS program helps students to make effective career decisions and to target their efforts. CTS students will have the opportunity to expand their knowledge about careers, occupations and job opportunities, as well as the education and/or training requirements involved. Also, students come to recognize the need for lifelong learning.

Students in CTS have the opportunity to use and apply technology and systems effectively and efficiently. This involves:

- a decision regarding which processes and procedures best suit the task at hand
- the appropriate selection and skilled use of the tools and/or resources available
- an assessment of and management of the impact the use of the technology may have on themselves, on others and on the environment.

TECHNOLOGY

Integrated throughout CTS are employability skills, those basic competencies that help students develop their personal management and social skills. Personal management skills are improved as students take increased responsibility for their learning, design innovative solutions to problems and challenges, and manage resources effectively and efficiently. Social skills improve through learning experiences that require students to work effectively with others, demonstrate teamwork and leadership, and maintain high standards in safety and accountability.

As well as honing employability skills, CTS reinforces and enhances learnings developed in core and other complementary courses. The curriculum emphasizes, as appropriate, the effective application of communication and numeracy skills.

In addition to the common outcomes described above, students focusing on a particular area of study will develop career-specific competencies that support entry into the workplace and/or related post-secondary programs. Career-specific competencies can involve understanding and applying appropriate terminology, processes and technologies related to a specific career, occupation or job.

GENERAL LEARNER EXPECTATIONS

General learner expectations describe the basic competencies integrated throughout the CTS program.

Within an applied context relevant to personal goals, aptitudes and abilities; the student in CTS will:

- demonstrate the basic knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary for achievement and fulfillment in personal life
- develop an action plan that relates personal interests, abilities and aptitudes to career opportunities and requirements
- use technology effectively to link and apply appropriate tools, management and processes to produce a desired outcome
- develop basic competencies (employability skills), by:
 - selecting relevant, goal-related activities, ranking them in order of importance, allocating necessary time, and preparing and following schedules (managing learning)
 - linking theory and practice, using resources, tools, technology and processes responsibly and efficiently (managing resources)
 - applying effective and innovative decision-making and problem-solving strategies in the design, production, marketing and consumption of goods and services (problem solving and innovation)
 - demonstrating appropriate written and verbal skills, such as composition, summarization and presentation (communicating effectively)
 - participating as a team member by working cooperatively with others and contributing to the group with ideas, suggestions and effort (working with others)

- maintaining high standards of ethics, diligence, attendance and punctuality, following safe procedures consistently, and recognizing and eliminating potential hazards (demonstrating responsibility).

PROGRAM ORGANIZATION

CURRICULUM STRUCTURE

Career and Technology Studies is organized into strands and modules.

Strands in CTS define competencies that help students:

- build daily living skills
- investigate career options
- use technology (managing, processes, tools) effectively and efficiently
- prepare for entry into the workplace and/or related post-secondary programs.

In general, strands relate to selected industry sectors offering positive occupational opportunities for students. Some occupational opportunities require further education after high school, and some allow direct entry into the workplace. Industry sectors encompass goods-producing industries, such as agriculture, manufacturing and construction; and service-producing industries, such as business, health, finance and insurance.

Modules are the building blocks for each strand. They define what a student is expected to know and be able to do (exit-level competencies). Modules also specify prerequisites. Recommendations for module parameters, such as instructional qualifications, facilities and equipment can be found in the guides to implementation.

The competencies a student must demonstrate to achieve success in a module are defined through the module learner expectations. Senior high school students who can demonstrate the module learner expectations; i.e., who have the designated competencies, will qualify for one credit toward their high school diploma.

Specific learner expectations provide a more detailed framework for instruction. Within the context of module learner expectations, the specific learner expectations further define the knowledge, skills and attitudes the student should acquire.

The following chart shows the 22 strands that comprise the CTS program and the number of modules available in each strand.

LEVELS OF ACHIEVEMENT

Modules are organized into three levels of achievement: introductory, intermediate and advanced. As students progress through the levels, they will be expected to meet higher standards and demonstrate an increased degree of competence, in both the general learner expectations and the module learner expectations.

Introductory level modules help students build daily living skills and form the basis for further learning. Introductory modules are for students who have no previous experience in the strand.

Intermediate level modules build on the competencies developed at the introductory level. They provide a broader perspective, helping students recognize the wide range of related career opportunities available within the strand.

Advanced level modules refine expertise and help prepare students for entry into the workplace or a related post-secondary program.

The graph below illustrates the relative emphasis on the aspects of career planning at each of the levels.

CURRICULUM AND ASSESSMENT STANDARDS

Curriculum standards in CTS define what students must know and be able to do. Curriculum standards are expressed through general learner expectations for CTS, and through module and specific learner expectations for each strand.

Assessment standards define how student performance is to be judged. In CTS, each assessment standard defines the conditions and criteria to be used for assessing the competencies of each module learner expectation. To receive credit for a module, students must demonstrate competency at the level specified by the conditions and criteria defined for each module learner expectation.

Students throughout the province receive a fair and reliable assessment as they use the standards to guide their efforts, thus ensuring they participate more effectively and successfully in the learning and assessment process. Standards at advanced levels are, as much as possible, linked to workplace and post-secondary entry-level requirements.

TYPES OF COMPETENCIES

Two types of competencies are defined within the CTS program: basic and career-specific.

Basic competencies are generic to any career area and are developed within each module. Basic competencies include:

- personal management; e.g., managing learning, being innovative, ethics, managing resources
- social; e.g., communication, teamwork, leadership and service, demonstrating responsibility (safety and accountability).

Career-specific competencies relate to a particular strand. These competencies build daily living skills at the introductory levels and support the smooth transition to the workplace and/or post-secondary programs at the intermediate and advanced levels.

The model below shows the relationship of the two types of competencies within the 22 strands of the CTS program.

BASIC COMPETENCIES REFERENCE GUIDE

The chart below outlines basic competencies that students endeavour to develop and enhance in each of the CTS strands and modules. Students' basic competencies should be assessed through observations involving the student, teacher(s), peers and others as they complete the requirements for each module. In general, there is a progression of task complexity and student initiative as outlined in the Developmental Framework*. As students progress through Stages 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this reference guide, they build on the competencies gained in earlier stages. Students leaving high school should set themselves a goal of being able to demonstrate Stage 3 performance.

Suggested strategies for classroom use include:

- having students rate themselves and each other
- using in reflective conversation between teacher and student
- highlighting areas of strength
- tracking growth in various CTS strands
- highlighting areas upon which to focus
- maintaining a student portfolio.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

B. STRAND RATIONALE AND PHILOSOPHY

In our rapidly changing, complex world, the ability to manage our financial affairs is a basic requirement. Financial management is required in all aspects of society and is an essential life skill.

The Financial Management strand of Career and Technology Studies will provide an opportunity for students to learn about the development and use of financial information and to apply this information within the context of business and personal life. The field of financial management offers many occupational opportunities.

Within the philosophy of Career and Technology Studies, students in Financial Management will:

- develop an appreciation for ethics in personal and business financial management
 - develop an awareness of the impact of the economy on self, society and the workplace
 - develop basic knowledge, skills and attitudes that have specific applications to financial management and broad career applications to the world of work
 - develop an awareness of realistic career choices related to personal interests, abilities and aptitudes; and recognize the need for lifelong learning
 - develop decision-making, problem-solving and communicative skills that demonstrate initiative, creativity and flexibility within a rapidly changing financial environment
- use information and technology effectively and efficiently
 - link the knowledge, skills and attitudes developed in Financial Management to other curricular areas
 - demonstrate the ability to work cooperatively with others
 - use community and business partnerships to relate and apply theory to realistic situations
 - demonstrate mastery of basic competencies.

STRAND ORGANIZATION

THEMES

Modules in Financial Management have been grouped into three theme areas: user, user/preparer, and user/analyst. The modules in the user theme provide basic information and skills for personal use. Students who complete modules in the user/preparer theme acquire knowledge, skills and attitudes that may give them job-entry skills. User/analyst modules stress the competencies related to management decision making and provide students with some indication as to whether they would be interested in pursuing training at a post-secondary level.

CONCEPTS

The module learner expectations describe the competencies that students are expected to develop. The concepts attached to the specific learner expectations are based upon what the student is required to learn to meet the exit-level competencies. The sequence in which the learning should take place to achieve the assessment criteria and conditions provides the basis for the choice of the concepts for each module.

LEVELS

The Financial Management curriculum is organized into three levels of learning: introductory, intermediate and advanced, denoting the degree of complexity and the level of student ability expected for success. Students at the introductory level work with teacher guidance. The introductory level provides basic skills and knowledge. At the intermediate level, the modules build on the competencies learned at the introductory level. When students have been taught the prerequisite skills and knowledge, teachers should expect students to assume more responsibility for their learning as they apply this knowledge. At the advanced level, students are expected to take personal responsibility for their learning, to work cooperatively in groups when appropriate, and to require less direct instruction from their teacher. At the advanced level, the students are more involved in research and decision making. The assessment criteria and conditions at each level reflect the change in expectations.

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

_____ Prerequisite Recommended sequence
 * Prerequisite to all modules in this strand.

MODULE DESCRIPTIONS

Module FIN1010: Financial Information

Students explore such concepts as ethics, the economic environment, acquiring and using financial resources, and the effects of government legislation on the finances of an individual and a small business.

Module FIN1020: Service Business 1

Students are introduced to the accounting cycle. They establish a set of books and record business transactions. Students are also introduced to terminology unique to financial accounting.

Module FIN1030: Service Business 2

Students complete the accounting cycle begun in FIN1020 Service Business 1, and prepare financial statements and a budget. Students also develop an awareness of the many career challenges and opportunities to be found in the financial management field.

Module FIN2010: Taxation (Personal & Small Business)

Students examine the Canadian income tax system through the preparation of a variety of personal and small business income tax returns.

Module FIN2020: Merchandising Business 1

Students apply specialized financial accounting procedures associated with the buying and selling of goods in a retail system.

Module FIN2030: Merchandising Business 2

Students complete the accounting cycle established in FIN2020 Merchandising Business 1, prepare financial statements, and establish and operate a payroll system.

Module FIN2040: Financial Software

Students learn how to use an accounting software package that is used in business.

Module FIN2050: Financial Simulation

Students apply accounting principles to realistic business situations, using manual and/or computer simulations based on the records of a proprietorship and/or a partnership.

Module FIN3010: Advanced Accounting

Students apply advanced accounting procedures—including capital assets and uncollectible accounts—used by a variety of businesses. Students also prepare adjustments, using the accrual method of accounting, and examine manufacturing or departmental accounting.

Module FIN3020: Management Accounting

Students explain management accounting, which involves optimizing capital assets for maximum return on investments. Students also examine various internal systems used to safeguard business assets.

Module FIN3030: Business Organizations

Students examine the accounting procedures related to proprietorships, partnerships, corporations and other entities. Students determine the effect the different forms of business ownership have on the equity section of the balance sheet.

Module FIN3040: Financial Statements

Students examine the content and structure of financial statements, and prepare customized financial statements for a variety of businesses.

Module FIN3060: Financial Analysis

Students use formulas and ratios to evaluate the financial status of business organizations, interpret data, report results and recommend change based on the analysis.

Module FIN3070: Financial Planning

Students explain the value of financial planning for a business. They explore the impact of economic trends, changing world markets and tax implications, all of which must be considered when preparing financial forecasts. The concept of market research is also discussed.

SECTION C: PLANNING FOR INSTRUCTION

CTS provides increased opportunity for junior and senior high schools to design courses based on the needs and interests of their students and the circumstances within the school and community. Some strands may be appropriately introduced at the junior high school level. Other strands are more appropriately introduced at the senior high school level or to Grade 9 students. Refer to this section for recommendations regarding the Financial Management strand, or the Career & Technology Studies Manual for Administrators, Counsellors and Teachers for a summary of the recommended grade levels for each strand.

PLANNING FOR CTS

Defining Courses

Schools determine which strands and modules will be offered in a particular school, and will combine modules into courses.

Each module was designed for approximately 25 hours of instruction. However, this time frame is only a guideline to facilitate planning. The CTS curricula are competency based, and the student may take more or less time to gain the designated competencies within each module.

A course will usually consist of modules primarily from the same strand but, where appropriate, may include modules from other CTS strands. Refer to the Career & Technology Studies Manual for Administrators, Counsellors and Teachers (Appendix 4) for more information on course names and course codes.

Module selection and sequencing should consider:

- prerequisite(s)
- supporting module(s) (other CTS modules that may enhance the learning opportunity if offered with the module)
- module parameters:
 - instructional qualifications, if specialized
 - equipment and facility requirements, if specialized.

The module parameters are defined for each module in Sections D, E and F of this Guide.

Degree of Flexibility

The CTS program, while designed using the modular structure to facilitate flexible timetabling and instructional delivery, does not mandate the degree of flexibility a school or teacher will offer. The teacher and school will determine the degree of flexibility available to the student. Within the instructional plan established by the school, the student may:

- be given the opportunity to progress at a rate that is personally challenging
- have increased opportunity to select modules that develop competencies he or she finds most relevant.

Integrating Basic Competencies

The basic competencies relate to managing learning and resources, problem solving and innovation, communicating effectively, working with others and demonstrating responsibility are developed throughout the CTS program, and are within each module.

Assessment of student achievement on the basic competencies is integrated throughout the other module learner expectations. Refer to Section G (Assessment Tools) of this Guide for the description of student behaviours expected at each of the four developmental stages defined for the basic competencies.

Assessment of basic competencies could include input and reflection involving the student, teacher(s), peers and others. Description of the observed behaviour could be provided through a competency profile for the module. Positive, ongoing interaction between the student and teacher will support motivation for student growth and improvement.

Assessing Student Achievement

Assessing student achievement is a process of gathering information by way of observations of process, product and student interaction.

Where appropriate, assessment tools have been defined to assist the teacher and student in the assessment. Refer to Section G (Assessment Tools) of this Guide for copies of the various tools (worksheets, checklists, sample questions, etc.).

A suggested emphasis for each module learner expectation has also been established. The suggested emphasis provides a guideline to help teachers determine time allocation and/or the appropriate emphasis for each MLE and student grade.

Recognizing Student Achievement

At the high school level, successful demonstration of the exit-level competencies in a module qualifies the student for one credit. Refer to Section A of this Guide for more detailed information about how curriculum and assessment standards are defined in CTS. Refer to the Career & Technology Studies Manual for Administrators, Counsellors and Teachers (Appendix 12) for more information on how student achievement can be recognized and reported at the school and provincial levels.

Portfolios

When planning for instruction and assessment, consider a portfolio as an excellent tool to provide evidence of a student's effort, progress and achievement. Portfolios will aid students in identifying skills and interest. They also provide the receiving teacher, employer and/or post-secondary institution proof of a student's accomplishments. The make-up and evaluation of the portfolio should be a collaborative agreement between the student and teacher.

Resources

A comprehensive resource base, including print, software and audio-visual, has been identified to support CTS strands. It is intended that these resources form the basis of a resource centre, encouraging teachers and students to access a wide selection of resources and other information sources throughout the learning process. Unless otherwise noted, these resources are considered to be suitable for both junior and senior high school students.

Authorized resources may be obtained from the Learning Resources Distributing Centre or directly from the publisher or distributor. Refer to Section I (Learning Resource Guide) of this Guide for the complete resource list including curriculum correlations and resource annotations. Additional sources refer to noncommercial or government agencies that offer resources that may be of assistance in this strand.

Sample Student Learning Guides

In addition to the resources, Sample Student Learning Guides are available (refer to Section J of this Guide). These samples, designed for individual student or small group use, provide an instructional plan for selected modules and include the following components:

- Why take this module?
- What are the entry-level competencies?
- What are the exit-level competencies?
- What resources may be accessed?
- What assignments/activities must be completed?
- What are the timelines?
- How will the final mark be calculated?

Sample Student Learning Guides (in Section J of this Guide) have been developed for the following modules in Financial Management:

- Financial Information
- Advanced Accounting

PLANNING FOR FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

The following suggestions are provided to assist teachers and school and school system administrators as they plan to deliver modules from the Financial Management strand.

The Financial Information module may be offered at the junior high school Grade 9 level. It is intended that all other modules in Financial Management would be offered at the senior high school level.

There have not been specific modules developed to replace the Record Keeping course. Some of the concepts are covered in Financial Management modules (see correlation of Financial Management to Record Keeping in Section H). Teachers may wish to develop modules that will meet the needs of those students for whom the Financial Management modules are not suitable.

There are no specialized facility requirements for any of the Financial Management modules. Access to computers and software is optional at the introductory and intermediate levels and access to computers and software is recommended at the advanced level.

To ensure the students comprehend accounting principles, it is recommended that the emphasis be placed on manual spreadsheet applications prior to the introduction of accounting packages.

Selecting Modules

The scope and sequence chart in Section B provides an overview of the Financial Management modules, indicating prerequisites and theme areas. Brief descriptions of the modules follow the scope and sequence chart in Section B.

Following are sample courses that could be delivered to senior high school students.

A 3-credit course for students without any previous Financial Management might contain the following modules:

MODULES
Financial Information (FIN1010) Service Business 1 (FIN1020) Service Business 2 (FIN1030)
RATIONALE/KEY LEARNINGS
The students learn to process financial information (by applying steps in the accounting cycle), to make decisions about future financial plans (through budgeting, credit and economic environment analysis), to value ethical conduct (through discussion and case study) and to plot career paths in financial management.
This course complements all CTS strands and provides students with the opportunity to use their knowledge and skills in financial management in different contexts.

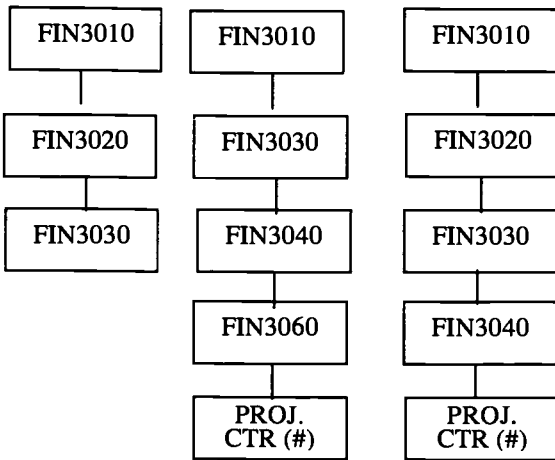

Another 3-credit course might have the following modules:

For a 5-credit course for students without any previous financial management, the following sample courses may be considered:

The following are suggestions for 3- and 5-credit courses where students have the prerequisites.

Organizing for Learning

While some modules in Financial Management lend themselves to individualized instruction, it is suggested that the module Financial Information (FIN1010) be presented to a group of students to allow for group discussion and other activities.

The basic competencies related to teamwork, leadership and service can be emphasized in modules at the advanced level where group activities and projects would be appropriate.

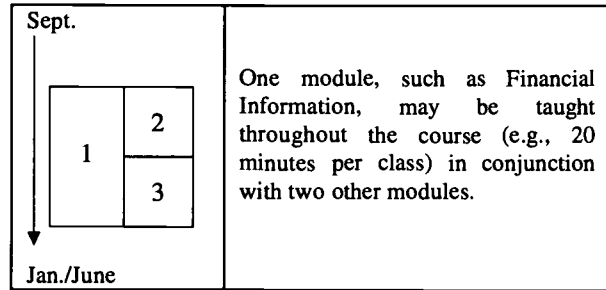

Before selecting modules, teachers should check the module parameters outlined in each module (see Sections D, E and F of this Guide).

Modules can be delivered sequentially, concurrently or combined as 3-, 5- or 6-credit courses as outlined below:

Scenario A

Scenario B

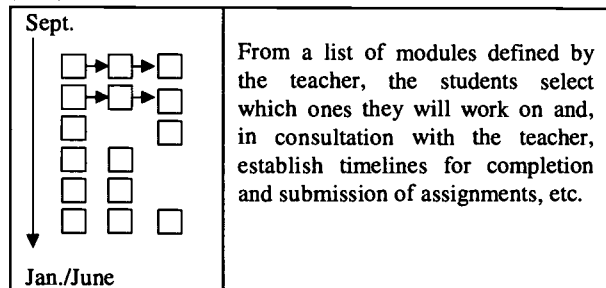

Teachers can also allow students to progress at a rate that is personally challenging; e.g.:

Scenario C

Scenario D

Identifying Linkages

Section H of this Guide describes linkages within CTS and with core and complementary programs.

Note that project modules from the Career Transitions strand may be combined with modules from Financial Management to provide increased opportunity for students to develop expertise and refine their competencies. Project modules are not designed to be offered as distinct courses and should not be used to extend Work Experience 15, 25 and 35 courses.

An example of an appropriate project related to Financial Management is outlined in Section H of this Guide. Other projects could be determined based upon the student's interests.

Improving Smooth Transitions to the Workplace and/or Related Post-secondary Programs

Refer to Section H of this Guide for potential transitions students may make into the workplace and/or related post-secondary programs or other avenues for further learning.

MODULE CURRICULUM AND ASSESSMENT STANDARDS:

SECTION D: INTRODUCTORY LEVEL

The following pages define the curriculum and assessment standards for the introductory level of Financial Management.

Introductory level modules help students build daily living skills and form the basis for further learning. Introductory modules are developed for students who have no previous experience in the strand.

Module learner expectations define the competencies a student must demonstrate to achieve success in a module. Assessment standards define the criteria and conditions to be used for assessing the competencies defined in the module learner expectations.

Specific learner expectations provide a detailed framework for instruction to help students build the competencies defined in the module learner expectations. Additional information and suggestions for instruction are provided in the Notes column; teachers may wish to use this space to record their ideas for instruction or student projects.

MODULE CURRICULUM AND ASSESSMENT STANDARDS:

SECTION F: ADVANCED LEVEL

The following pages define the curriculum and assessment standards for the advanced level of Financial Management.

Advanced level modules demand a higher level of expertise and help prepare students for entry into the workplace or a related post-secondary program.

Module FIN3010:	Advanced Accounting	F.3
Module FIN3020:	Management Accounting	F.7
Module FIN3030:	Business Organizations	F.9

SECTION G: ASSESSMENT TOOLS

The following pages comprise background information and strategies for assessing student achievement and the assessment tools that are listed in Sections D, E and F of this Guide.

This section of the Guide to Standards and Implementation has been designed to provide a common base of understanding about the level of competencies students are expected to demonstrate to successfully complete a module. The goal is to establish assessment standards for junior and senior high school students that are fair, credible and challenging.

These tools will assist teachers throughout the province to more consistently assess student achievement. The purpose of expanding on the assessment standards is to:

- increase confidence among students, parents, business/industry and post-secondary that students can demonstrate the competencies specified in the modules they have completed
- encourage fairness and equity in how students' efforts are judged
- enable learners to focus effort on key learnings
- support teachers and community partners in planning and implementing CTS.

These tools were validated during the optional stage of CTS implementation.

ASSESSING STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT IN CTS

The CTS assessment standards assess two basic forms of competency:

- What can a student do?
 - make a product (e.g., wood bowl, report, garment)
 - demonstrate a process
 - strand-related competencies (e.g., keyboarding, hair cutting, sewing techniques, lab procedures)
 - basic competencies (e.g., resource use, safety procedures, teamwork).
- What does a student know?
 - knowledge base needed to demonstrate a competency (link theory and practice).

CTS Defines Summative Assessment Standards

The assessment standards and tools defined for the CTS modules, referenced in Sections D, E and F of this Guide, focus on the final (or summative) assessment of student achievement.

Assessment throughout the learning period (formative assessment) will continue to evaluate how students are progressing. Teachers direct and respond to students' efforts to learn—setting and marking tasks and assignments, indicating where improvement is needed, sending out interim reports, congratulating excellence, etc.

Teachers will decide which instructional and assessment strategies to apply during the formative learning period. As formative and summative assessment are closely linked, some teachers may wish to modify the tools included in this section to use during the instructional process. Teachers may also develop their own summative assessment tools as long as the standards are consistent with the minimum expectations outlined by Alberta Education.

Grading and Reporting Student Achievement

When a student can demonstrate ALL of the exit-level competencies defined for the module (module learner expectations), the teacher will designate the module as “successfully completed.” The teacher will then use accepted grading practices to determine the percentage grade to be given for the module—a mark not less than 50%.

The time frame a teacher allows a student to develop the exit-level competency is a local decision. NOTE: The Senior High School Handbook specifies that students must have access to 25 hours of instruction for each credit. Students may, however, attain the required competencies in less time and may proceed to other modules.

Teachers are encouraged to consult their colleagues to ensure grading practices are as consistent as possible.

High school teachers may wish to refer to “Directions for Reporting Student Achievement in CTS” for information on how to use the CTS course codes to report the credits that students have earned to Alberta Education. (Copies of this document have been forwarded to superintendents and senior high school principals.)

Components of Assessment Standards in CTS

The following components are included in each module:

- module learner expectations (in the shaded left column of the module) define the exit-level competencies students are expected to achieve to complete a module. Each MLE defines and describes critical behaviours that can be measured and observed. The student must meet the standard specified for ALL MLEs within a module to be successful.
- suggested emphasis (in the right column of the module) provides a guideline for the relative significance of each MLE and can be used to organize for instruction.

- criteria and conditions (in the middle column of the module) set the framework for the assessment of student competency, specifying the minimum standard for performance and including a reference to assessment tools, where appropriate.

Criteria define the behaviours that a student must demonstrate to meet the designated standard. For example, the criteria could describe the various techniques that must be demonstrated when using a tool, and/or describe the minimum components of a project the student must complete.

Conditions outline the specifications under which a student's competency can be judged. For example, the conditions could specify whether the assessment should be timed or not, or if the student should be allowed to access to support resources or references.

Standard may be defined by (1) assessment tools, which are referenced in this section (or sometimes in approved learning resources) and/or (2) "illustrative examples" of student work, if appropriate.

Assessment Tools included in this section of the Guide tend to be of two types:

- tools generic to a strand or to the entire CTS program; e.g., a standard five-point rating scale is used in all strands. Other generic tools include assessing reports and presentations and lab safety checklists. (Names of these tools include the strand code [e.g., "INF" for Information Processing] and a code for the type of tool [e.g., "TDENT" for Text-Data Entry].)
- tools specific to a module; e.g., assessment checklist for assessing a venture plan in Enterprise and Innovation or a checklist for sketching, drawing and modelling in Design Studies. (Names of these tools include the module code; e.g., "INF1010-1" indicating that it is the first module-specific tool used in Information Processing Module 101.)

Development and Validation Processes

The "Criteria and Conditions" and "Suggested Emphasis" columns were validated with extensive input from teachers, professional associations/contacts and post-secondary institutions. The goal was to prepare well-structured assessment standards and related assessment tools that:

- establish an appropriate level of challenge and rigour
- relate directly to the type of learning described in the curriculum standard
- are easy to understand
- are efficient to implement
- can provide a consistent measure of what was expected to be measured.

As students and teachers work with the assessment standards and tools, it is expected that levels of performance will increase as more and more students are able to achieve the minimum standard. Therefore, the assessment standards and related tools will continue to be monitored, and revised as necessary to ensure appropriate levels or rigour and challenge, and successful transitions for students as they leave high school and enter the workplace or related post-secondary programs.

ASSESSING STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

The Financial Management curriculum is based on the premise that recognizable outcomes may be compared to stated standards. In Financial Management, the standards identify students' growth in knowledge, skills and attitudes. The curriculum defines outcomes through the module learner expectations (MLEs) and specific learner expectations (SLEs). It also suggests criteria and conditions for assessment and the emphasis to be placed on each expectation. These elements combine to provide an overall framework for instruction and assessment.

Assessment Strategies and Tools

A variety of tools have been provided for your reference and use. In the development of the assessment materials there has been an attempt to keep it as simple as possible while also providing guidance and assistance to teachers. The tools are intended to help you assess students' work as accurately and consistently as possible by stating standards of performance for elements felt to be important within the curriculum as a whole or in specific modules. They also provide standards for "basic competencies" students should be able to demonstrate while engaged in learning.

The tools that have been developed are intended to be used as summative assessment tools. Depending on the way the classroom is organized, they may be used when the student has indicated he or she is ready for the final assessment or by the entire class at the end of the learning period.

Tools Generic to CTS

The generic rating scale has been used to develop several of the tools in CTS. A generic framework for assessing the processes CTS students apply in completing a task or project is included in this section. It is based on the notion that students will follow a process as they work through their projects and that this process has a number of sequential steps. The framework shows the increasing expectations from the introductory, to the intermediate, to the advanced level.

Tools Generic to Financial Management

Some MLEs in the Financial Management strand have as the conditions and criteria for assessment the completion of a project. The tool, Assessment Tool for Financial Management Documents/Components (FINDOC-A), has been developed to help assess the documents/components that may be included in a project, e.g., income statement, balance sheet. There are also Marking Guides to assist with the assessment of some of the documents/components. These guides were prepared to provide consistency in the way in which these items are assessed. Tool FINDOC-A may be used at the introductory, intermediate and advanced levels.

Some tools in Financial Management provide a standard five-point rating scale to determine whether the level of competency is above standard, at standard or below standard. The tools generic to CTS have also been developed with a five-point scale. It is recognized that this scale will have to be translated into a percentage mark for reporting purposes

Tools Specific to Financial Management Modules

The tools that have been developed to assess specific MLEs in a module are labelled with the module number and the tool number (e.g., FIN1010-1 or FIN1010-2). They are referred to under the criteria and conditions column in Sections D, E and F of this Guide.

In some instances where the tool suggested has been a test, a sample test or sample questions have been included. The authorized learning resources for Financial Management include teaching resources that have test banks and other suggested assessment strategies. It is recommended that these be used to prepare appropriate test banks. When test banks are being used, a separate assessment of the basic competencies would be required. Sample checklists to assess basic competencies are included. Choose the one most appropriate. Assessment materials currently being used may continue to be used if they assess the criteria and conditions for an MLE.

Emphasis for Assessment

The “Suggested Emphasis” column provides a guideline for the relative significance of each MLE to assist in organizing for instruction. The basic competencies are expected to be integrated throughout and therefore the tools have been designed to assess the relevant basic competencies and the product, process and/or theory. The exception to this would be when a test bank is being used. In this case it is recommended that basic competencies be assessed separately.

BASIC COMPETENCIES REFERENCE GUIDE

The chart below outlines basic competencies that students endeavour to develop and enhance in each of the CTS strands and modules. Students' basic competencies should be assessed through observations involving the student, teacher(s), peers and others as they complete the requirements for each module. In general, there is a progression of task complexity and student initiative as outlined in the Developmental Framework*. As students progress through the Stages 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this reference guide, they build on the competencies gained in earlier stages. Students leaving high school should set themselves a goal of being able to demonstrate Stage 3 performance.

Suggested strategies for classroom use include:

- having students rate themselves and each other
- using for a reflective conversation between teacher and student
- highlighting areas of strength
- tracking growth in various CTS strands
- highlighting areas upon which to focus
- maintaining a student portfolio

The student:

- 4 exceeds defined outcomes. Plans and solves problems effectively and creatively in a self-directed manner. Tools, materials and/or processes are selected and used efficiently, effectively and with confidence. Quality, particularly details and finishes, and productivity are consistent and exceed standards. No errors or deficiencies noted. Leads others to contribute team goals.
- 3 meets defined outcomes. Plans and solves problems in a self-directed manner. Tools, materials and/or processes are selected and used efficiently and effectively. Quality and productivity are consistent. No numerical errors but minor formatting errors may be noted. Works cooperatively and contributes ideas and suggestions that enhance team effort.
- 2 meets defined outcomes. Plans and solves problems with limited assistance. Tools, materials and/or processes are selected and used appropriately. Quality and productivity are reasonably consistent. Minor numerical and/or formatting errors are noted. Works cooperatively to achieve team goals.
- 1 meets defined outcomes. Follows a guided plan of action. A limited range of tools, materials and/or processes are used appropriately. Quality and productivity are reasonably consistent. Minor numerical and/or formatting errors are noted. Works cooperatively.
- 0 has not completed defined outcomes. Tools, materials and/or processes are used inappropriately.

Manual	Computer-assisted	FM Software
use of pen and paper and/or calculator	use of spreadsheet and/or word-processing, software, e.g., Excel, Clarisworks	use of accounting software package, e.g., Simply Accounting (see Tool FIN2040-1 for additional guidance)

Minor Numerical Errors – transposition errors, correct amount transferred to wrong account.

Minor Formatting Errors – errors in underlining, use of abbreviations, spelling, neatness (input sheets, appropriate method of correction), organization of materials.

(1) Heading

The order of the items in the heading is important—WHO? WHAT? WHEN? (Note: "For the Month of ..." or "For the Year Ended ..." must be used)

(2) Trial Balance

The accounts from the general ledger are listed in the account title column in the same numerical order in which they appear in the general ledger (even if the account does not have a balance). The Trial Balance columns are totalled and checked for accuracy. The columns must be underlined.

(3) Adjustments (if applicable)

The adjustment columns are used to bring various general ledger accounts up to date. These may include Merchandise Inventory, Supplies and Pre-paid Insurance. It is important that the amount used up (the expense in this case) is the amount of the adjustment.

(4) & (5) Income Statement & Balance Sheet

Account balances should be extended with adjustments included to the proper column of the Income Statement of the Balance Sheet. It is important that the Net Income or Net Loss at the bottom of the worksheet correct and that it be properly labelled.

(1) Heading

The order of the items in the heading is important—WHO? WHAT? WHEN? (Note: “For the Month of ...” or “For the Year Ended ...” must be used to indicate that it is dealing with operations over a period of time).

(2) Revenue

The column on the right is for final totals, columns to the left are subtotalled columns. If there is more than one revenue account, list them in the second column and total in the column on the right.

(3) Cost of Merchandise Sold (if applicable)

It is important that this information be accurately taken from the worksheet. Calculations should be made in the left column and the final total for Cost of Merchandise Sold placed in the right column.

(4) Gross Profit (if applicable)

This is the difference between Sales and Cost of Goods Sold.

(5) Expenses

Expenses should appear in the left column and the Total Expenses be placed in the right column.

(6) Net Income (Loss)

Net Income (Loss) is the difference between Gross Profit and Total. The Total must be underlined.

SAMPLE ANALYSIS QUESTIONS

NOTE:

These are suggested questions only. Other questions should be developed which relate specifically to the project being completed by the student.

1. Why does Net Income appear in the Balance Sheet credit column and Net Loss appear in the Balance Sheet debit column of the work sheet?
2. Explain how a proprietorship can show a net income in the Income Statement and a net decrease of Owner's Equity in the Balance Sheet.
3. Explain why expense accounts are debited and revenue accounts are credited.
4. One of your customers has her scalp burned as a result of the hair solution used on her hair at your beauty salon. You receive a letter from her lawyer asking for a settlement of $5,000. What change will you record in your accounting records as a result of receiving this letter?

The following questions relate specifically to closing entries and the answer are provided.

1. Name 3 classifications of accounts in the general ledger which are referred to as temporary capital accounts.

A. Revenue

B. Expense

C. Income Summary

2. In what division of the general ledger is the Income Summary account placed?

Capital

3. What kind of accounts remain open in the ledger after the closing entries have been posted?

Balance Sheet Accounts

4. What is the purpose of taking a post-closing trial balance?

To be sure that the accounts that are open are in balance. The capital account should agree with the amount shown on the balance sheet for owner's equity.

REFLECTIONS/COMMENTS

Sample Test Questions
(with suggested answers in bold)

- Q Which act gave the federal government unlimited powers of taxation?
- A The Constitution Act of 1867.
- Q How did the government propose to pay the expenses that were incurred during the First World War, and how does that relate to today's tax situation?
- A The government proposed to pay the expenses of the war by enforcing the Income War Tax Act, which stated that taxes would be paid by corporations and individuals based on their income. These taxes were considered a temporary measure, and they have continued ever since.

Match the terms in Column 1 with the definitions in Column 2

Column 1	Column 2
d head tax	a. a tax paid to use a facility or service, such as the toll charged for using a bridge or road
h income tax	b. a tax on the value of property when it changes ownership, such as when land is transferred under certain conditions
f wealth tax	c. a tax usually applied on imported goods to make domestic goods more competitively priced
a user tax	d. a flat tax imposed on a specific group of taxpayers. For instance, everyone over a certain age has to pay an amount of tax.
g commodity tax	e. a value-added tax, or a multi-stage sales tax, applied on the value of a product as it moves through the stages of production and distribution.
c duty	f. a tax on a taxpayer's accumulated capital, such as a tax on capital gains and succession duties
b transfer tax	g. a tax, such as a sales tax, on the consumption of products.
e business transfer tax	h. a tax on the income of a person or a corporation

Q Define the self-assessment system.

A Canadian residents and non-residents with Canadian income are responsible for making sure they have paid their taxes according to the law. In other words, it is your responsibility to pay your taxes, not the government's responsibility to collect them.

Q Do you require a social insurance number (SIN) to file an income tax return? If so, how do you get one?

A Yes, to file a tax return, you need a SIN. Also, you have to give your SIN to anyone who prepares a tax information slip (such as a T4 slip) for you. If you do not have a SIN, you can apply for one through any Canada Employment Centre.

Q The Declaration of Taxpayer Rights was introduced in February 1985. One of the rights contained in the declaration states:

People have the right to expect that any information they give will be kept confidential. This is one of the underlying principles of the Canadian tax system.

Why is the aspect of confidentiality so important to taxpayers?

A Individuals generally prefer to keep confidential information concerning their financial records. They consider this information personal, such as the amount of money they make each year.

Q Tony said, "I never file a tax return, because I don't have any taxes to pay." What is wrong with this statement.

A A person has to file a return only if they owe tax or are specifically asked to file a return by Revenue Canada, have to contribute to the Canada Pension Plan on self-employed earnings, or sold or disposed of capital property. However, if Tony wishes to claim a refund or refundable tax credits or apply for the GST credit, he needs to file a return.

Q Where are our tax dollars spent? List as many categories as you can think of.

A

- revenue for government operations
- research
- transportation
- housing
- health and welfare
- defence
- culture and recreation
- foreign aid
- economic development

TASK CHECKLIST

The student is able to:

Set Up

- load the program efficiently
- use appropriate keystrokes to move between modules
- adjust integration accounts to reflect the needs of the business
- create, modify, delete ledger accounts (including historical data)
- set the system ready (including precautionary backup)
- discuss and demonstrate data security and safety precautions

Input

- input day-to-day transactions in an efficient manner
- input specialized transactions in an efficient manner (i.e., partial payments, prepayments, correcting entries, bad debts)

Output

- produce financial statements, schedules, and reports in an efficient manner
- prepare for next reporting period
- print out appropriate reports

Presentation (written, oral or audio-visual)

- list the advantages and disadvantages of computerized accounting vs. manual accounting (i.e., posting, closing entries, finding errors)
- compare manually generated and computer generated financial statements (e.g., post-closing trial balance)

Workstation Management

- appropriately adjust monitor, keyboard, desk, chair and other equipment to ensure workstation environment is ergonomically appropriate, comfortable and efficient to work
- maintain good body posture to avoid health hazards
- ensure safe and secure handling of hardware, software and supplies
- maintain an organized, neat workstation

Sample Concept Test
(with suggested answers in bold)

Price/Cost

A clothing store has a monthly income statement that shows the following figures:

Sales, 100 dresses	7 000.00
Cost of Goods Sold, 100 dresses	4 000.00
Gross Income Before Expenses	3 000.00
Expenses	1 250.00
Net Income	1 750.00

Individual dresses were purchased at varying prices and sold at varying prices.

What is the unit cost of a dress before expenses? $40.00

What is the unit cost of a dress after expenses? $52.50

What is the unit selling price of a dress? $70.00

Suppose the store manager decides to purchase 100 dresses of a more expensive line at $120.00 each for the next month. The store manager wants to maintain at least the same net income as the previous month. The manager assumes that expenses will not change, and that all 100 dresses will be sold. The manager asks you, the accountant, to calculate what the selling price of the dresses should be.

Calculate the total sales required to maintain the same net income by completing the following partial income statement

Sales	15 000.00
Cost of Goods Sold	12 000.00
Gross Income Before Expenses	3 000.00
Expenses	1 250.00
Net Income	1 750.00

Calculate the unit selling price for each dress. $150.00

Break-Even Point

Don wants to start a lawn care business for the summer. He advertises around the neighbourhood and collects 15 customers. He is to maintain each yard once a week. Don has listed all the following factors to calculate his break-even point:

- it will take approximately 3 hours to complete each yard
- his services are worth $10 per hour

- wear and tear on the power mower of approximately $30 (he has borrowed it from his family)
- rakes at a cost of $25 in total
- weed spray at a cost of $8.00 per litre. Don estimates that he will require one litre per yard over the month
- gloves and masks at a cost of $35 in total
- gas for the mower at a cost of $.25 per hour

Calculate the total expenses for the month. Calculate the break even-point.

Labour:	3 hrs. at $10/hr = $30 per yard x 15 yards x 4 weeks
	=	$1 800.00
Equipment		60.00
Weed Spray	$8 x 15 yards =	120.00
Gas	$.25 x 3 hrs. x 15 yards x 4 weeks =	45.00
Deprec. on Mower		30.00
Total Expenses		$2 055.00

$2055.00/15 = $137.00 is the break-even point for Don.

If Don charges $150.00 per month, calculate his net income for the month.

Revenue:
$150 x 15	2 250.00
Expenses:	2 055.00
Net Income	195.00

Note that the net income of $195.00 is the profit after Don pay himself $1 800 in wages.

In mid-month, two families decide not to continue with the lawn service. Recalculate the expenses and net income.

Labor:	3 hrs. at $10/hr = $30 per yard x 15 yards
	x 2 weeks	900.00
	3 hrs. at $10/hr = $30 per yard x 13 yards
	x 2 weeks	780.00
		1 680.00
Equipment		60.00
Weed Spray	$120 - ($2/week x 4 weeks)	112.00
Gas	$45 - ($.75/week x 4 weeks)	42.00
Deprec. on Mower		30.00
Total Expenses		$1 924.00

Revenue:
$150 x 13	1 950.00
$ 75 x 2	150.00
Total		2 100.00
Expenses		1 924.00
Net Income		176.00

Inventory Management

Sweets is a small coffee and gift shop. Suzy, the manager, reviewed the latest financial records and wondered where the company was losing money. Business was doing well. What could be the problem? She decided to do a spot inventory check to help her solve the problem. Suzy discovered the following items to be missing: two cases of coffee, 24 danish pastries, 3 gift items and 13 cans of pop. She decided to confront her staff. She discovered that the staff was making too much coffee before the end of the night and throwing out approximately 6 pots each evening. The danishes were discarded because they were stale. Three gift items were still unaccounted for, but the staff determined these items may have been stolen because they were close to the exit door. The 13 cans of pop were consumed by the staff but not recorded on their staff purchase sheets.

How can the manager improve optimal inventory levels?

By maintaining a perpetual inventory and comparing this with the actual sales. The company can estimate more accurately the amount of perishables—fresh pastries and coffee—that will be required on individual evenings. For example, a Thursday evening may turn out to be a busier evening at the shop. Other factors should be considered when analyzing the inventory (weather, season of the year, events in the surrounding area, local economic conditions). This is called demand forecasting.

Phil's Novelty Shoppe has the following month-end financial information:

Revenue:
Net Sales			3 700.00
Cost of Goods Sold:
Beginning Inventory	1 400.00
Net Purchases	800.00
Merchandise Available for Sale	2 200.00
Less Ending Merchandise Inventory	950.00
Cost of Merchandise Sold			1 250.00
Gross Profit on Sales			2 450.00
Total Expenses			989.00
Net Income			1 461.00

A further check of the inventory noted that it was overvalued by $300.00. What effect would this error have on the net income of the business?

The net income should accurately be recorded as $1 761.00.

Explain the difference between perpetual and periodic inventory.

Interview an accountant or manager of a merchandising or manufacturing business in your area and provide an oral report to your class. In your interview, find the following information:

1. What type of inventory system is used and why?
2. Which method is used by the company to determine the value of its inventory?
3. How does inflation affect this company's inventory? Why?
4. Does the company use a computerized system of controlling inventory, or manual records? Explain the advantages and disadvantages of each.

Complete the following table comparing three methods of valuing inventory.

Summary of Three Methods of Valuing Inventory
Purchase		FIFO		LIFO		Weighted Average
Date	Cost	Quant.	Value	Quant.	Value
June 1	$2.40	25	$60.00	100	$240.00	Average Cost $2.07
Sept. 1	2.10	75	157.50	75	157.50
Dec. 1	1.70	100	170.00	25	42.50
Totals		200	$387.50	200	$440.00	$414.00

Which method of valuing the inventory would result in the higher net income for the company? FIFO

Internal Controls

What is an internal control system?

An internal control system is a set of procedures put in place to prevent loss of assets, particularly cash because it is the most liquid.

What are the seven principles of good internal control?

1. Clearly establish responsibilities
2. Maintain adequate records
3. Insure assets and bond employees.
4. Separate record-keeping and custody over assets.
5. Divide responsibilities for related transactions.
6. Use mechanical devices where practicable.
7. Perform regular and independent reviews.

What are three principles of internal controls for cash?

1. separation of duties
2. cash receipts deposited each day
3. payments made by cheque.

Bank Reconciliation

You are given the following information for the Senior Centre. Prepare a bank reconciliation for the Senior Centre as of June 30, 19xx on the form provided.

The balance in the general ledger Cash account is $2 873.25.

The balance according to the bank statement as of June 30, 19xx is $2 489.32.

Your company made a night deposit of $1 245.68 on June 29, 19xx. It was not received by the bank in time to make the printing of the statement.

The following cheques were written by your company but have not been received by the bank prior to the printing of the statement:

Internal Audit

What are some of the reasons for an internal audit?

An internal audit may look at financial matters or compliance with regulations. Audits may also involve looking at whether or not operations are efficient, effective and economical.

Cecile ran a data management service as a sole proprietor for the past five years. She has now expanded to the point where she is considering going into partnership with Phillip, who has marketing and advertising expertise. They have decided to hire two part-time individuals for data entry and research, and move the business from Cecile's home to a leased office. Cecile has asked you to recommend a plan that looks at inventory management systems, internal controls and internal audit for the new partnership. Draft the questions (at least 10) which you would want answered by Cecile to enable you to develop the plan.

Module Learner Expectation: The student will describe the organizational differences among various forms of business organization.

SAMPLE ASSIGNMENTS

(suggested answers in bold)

Sadie's Software Company has assets of $900 000 and liabilities of $580 000. Prepare the ownership equity section of Sadie's balance sheet under each of the following independent assumptions:

- a. The business is organized as a sole proprietorship, owned by Carly Haster.
- b. The business is a partnership, owned by Carly Haster and Alissa Dawson. Haster's equity amounts to $220 000.
- c. The business is a corporation with 20 shareholders, each of whom originally invested $15 000 in exchange for shares of the company's capital stock. The remainder of the shareholders' equity has resulted from profitable operation of the business.

Use TOOL FINDOC-A to assess the assignment.

Owner's Equity

D. Jason and R. Small are partners in a travel agency. The partnership does not require any additional capital, but on September 1, 19xx, they agree to admit T. Saville as an equal partner. The partners agree to sell one-third of their equities to Mr. Saville to enable Mr. Saville to have a one-third interest.

The Capital accounts of D. Jason and R. Small amount to $90 000 for each partner.

If Mr. Saville is to have a one-third interest in the business, what must his total equity amount to?
$60 000

Why would Mr. Saville's admission as a new partner require no entry in the cash receipts journal of the business? Mr. Saville purchased the interest from the partners privately. No injection of cash was made into the business.

C. Bronski, B. London and M. Rodriguez are partners in a restaurant. On January 2, 19xx, the three partners agree to admit G. Christopher with one-quarter interest. The equity of each of the old partners amounts to $40 000.00. G. Christopher agrees to enter into the new partnership with a one-quarter interest for $60 000.00

To enter the new business, how much equity must G. Christopher transfer to each of the old partners?
$5 000 to each partner for a total of $15 000.

Module Learner Expectation: The student will explain how a balance sheet reflects the financial position of a business on a specific date, and explain how the income statement reflects the financial operations of a business for a specific period of time; and adapt the financial statements to various types of businesses.

Criteria and Conditions: Assessment of student achievement should be based on preparing a report (including tables, graphs, etc.) that deals with the purpose, format and components of an income statement and a balance sheet, and discusses adapting financial statements to various types of businesses.

TASK CHECKLIST

The student is able to:

Preparation and Planning

- set goals and follow instructions accurately
- respond to directed questions and follow necessary steps to find answers
- access basic in-school/community information sources
- interpret and organize information into a logical sequence
- record information accurately using correct technical terms
- use time effectively

Content

- explain the purpose of the balance sheet and the income statement
- outline and describe the reasons for the accepted formats
- identify the main sections of a commonly used balance sheet and income statement
- discuss the purpose of notes to the financial statements
- explain the difference between an audit and review of financial statements
- include a glossary or chart defining terminology relevant to the financial statements and identifying items specific to each component (i.e., intangible assets, fixed assets, cost of merchandise sold)
- include a chart that illustrates common financial statement items and business-specific items for a variety of businesses from information gathered or provided

Presenting/Reporting

- demonstrate effective use of one or more communication media:
e.g., Written: spelling, punctuation, grammar, basic format
Oral: voice projection, body language
Audio-visual: techniques, tools
- use correct grammatical convention and technical terms through proofreading/editing
- provide an introduction that describes the purpose of the project
- communicate information in a logical sequence
- state a conclusion based on a summary of facts

Module Learner Expectation: The student will recognize the importance of using appropriate data for reporting and decision making.

Criteria and Conditions: Assessment of student achievement should be based on, given a company's financial statements, calculating various ratios, researching the comparative financial statements, drawing conclusions and making recommendations for action, now and in the future.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

SECTION H: LINKAGES/TRANSITIONS

This section of the Guide has been designed to provide an overview of linkages and transitions of CTS modules with a number of organizations. The charts and information presented in this section will assist CTS students and teachers in understanding the potential application of CTS modules as students move into the workplace.

LINKAGES/TRANSITIONS

LINKAGES

With Other CTS Strands

Financial Management can be linked with other CTS strands including Information Processing (Keyboarding, Spreadsheet), Enterprise and Innovation (Making It Happen), Management and Marketing and Career Transitions (project modules). Examples of appropriate projects could include the student keeping the financial records and reporting for the Students' Union, the school store or other ongoing school activities. The student would be under the supervision of the teacher while involved in the project module(s).

In the following strands, specific modules may be of interest to Financial Management students.

Strand	Module	Linkage Opportunity
Career Transitions	Project modules	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • if a student undertakes an extensive project beyond the expectations of the Financial Management module • to increase the proficiency level of knowledge and skills developed in Financial Management modules.
Information Processing	Keyboarding 1 Spreadsheet 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to increase speed and accuracy as student uses accounting software • to increase efficiency in preparing spreadsheets used in many of the Financial Management modules.
Management and Marketing	Management & Marketing Basics Records Management 1 & 2 The Business Organization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to provide an opportunity for the student to focus on other aspects of management in addition to Financial Management.

Financial Management modules may also be incorporated into other strands, e.g.:

Strand	Financial Management Related Themes
Construction Technologies	Project Management
Enterprise and Innovation	Analyzing Ventures, Financing Ventures

Potential linkages of Financial Management with other CTS strands, determined by course emphasis and area of specialization, are identified in this section (see “Connections with Other CTS Strands”).

A number of modules from other CTS strands can be combined effectively with modules from the Information Processing and Career Transitions strands. These “linkage modules” are shown in “Financial Management: Extended Scope and Sequence” and “Financial Management: Linkage Opportunities within CTS.”

With Other Secondary Programs

The Financial Management strand has many links with other core and complementary subject areas across the curriculum. Potential linkages of Financial Management with other core and complementary subject areas across the curriculum are identified in this section (see “Financial Management: Connections Across the Curriculum,” “Financial Management: Math Objective Match,” and “Financial Management: Linkages with Career and Life Management”).

With Practical Arts Courses

Modules in the Financial Management strand replace existing content in the senior high Accounting 10, 20 and 30. A detailed correlation of the Financial Management strand to these practical arts courses can be found in this section (see “Financial Management: Correlations with Practical Arts Courses: Accounting 10, 20 and 30, Record Keeping and Business Calculations Courses,” and “Financial Management: Correlations with Practical Arts Courses: Accounting 10, 20 and 30”).

TRANSITIONS

To the Community/Workplace

The introductory and intermediate level modules are designed to provide students with the knowledge, skills and attitudes (the basic competencies) that are required in the workplace. Some businesses welcome an individual who has the basic skills and is prepared for further training from the employer.

Information from the National Occupational Classification (NOC) regarding occupations in financial management-related areas that can be accessed upon completion of high school is provided in this section (see “Financial Management: Related Occupations”).

To Related Post-secondary Programs

The advanced level modules will provide students with some indication as to whether they would be interested in entering one of the business administration courses at the college or university level.

An outline of post-secondary institutions in Alberta currently offering programs in financial management-related areas is provided in this section (see “Financial Management: Summary of Related Post-secondary Programs”).

CREDENTIALLING

There are no credentialling opportunities for Financial Management modules.

SECTION I: LEARNING RESOURCE GUIDE

This section of the GSI has been designed to provide a list of resources that support student learning.

Three types of resources are identified:

- Authorized: Resources authorized by Alberta Education for CTS curriculum; these resources are categorized as basic, support, or teaching
- Other: Titles provided as a service to assist local jurisdictions to identify resources that contain potentially useful ideas for teachers. Alberta Education has done a preliminary review of these resources, but further review will be necessary prior to use in school jurisdictions
- Additional: A list of local, provincial and national sources of information available to teachers, including the community, government, industry, and professional agencies and organizations.

The information contained in this Guide, although as complete and accurate as possible as of June 1997, is time-sensitive.

For the most up-to-date information on learning resources and newer editions/versions, consult the LRDC Buyers Guide and/or the agencies listed in the Distributor Directory at the end of this section.

CTS is on the Internet.

INTRODUCTION

CTS AND THE RESOURCE-BASED CLASSROOM

Career and Technology Studies (CTS) encourages teachers to establish a resource-based classroom, where a variety of appropriate, up-to-date print and nonprint resources are available. Learning resources identified for CTS strands include print, software, video and CD-ROM formats. Also of significance and identified as appropriate throughout each strand are sources of information available through the Internet.

The resource-based classroom approach accommodates a variety of instructional strategies and teaching styles, and supports individual or small group planning. It provides students with opportunities to interact with a wide range of information sources in a variety of learning situations. Students in CTS are encouraged to take an active role in managing their own learning. Ready access to a strong resource base enables students to learn to screen and use information appropriately, to solve problems, to meet specific classroom and learning needs, and to develop competency in reading, writing, speaking, listening and viewing.

PURPOSE AND ORGANIZATION OF THIS DOCUMENT

The purpose of this document is to help teachers identify a variety of resources to meet their needs and those of the students taking the new CTS curriculum. It is hoped that this practical guide to resources will help teachers develop a useful, accessible resource centre that will encourage students to become independent, creative thinkers.

This document is organized as follows:

- Authorized Resources:
 - basic learning resources
 - support learning resources
 - teaching resources
- Other Resources
- Additional Sources.
- Distributor Directory.

Some resources in the guide have been authorized for use in some or all of the CTS strands, e.g., the Career and Technology Studies video series produced by ACCESS: The Education Station. Further information is provided in relevant sections of this resource guide.

Each resource in the guide provides bibliographic information, an annotation where appropriate, and a module correlation to the CTS modules. The distributor code for each entry will facilitate ordering resources. It is recommended that teachers preview all resources before purchasing, or purchase one copy for their reference and additional copies as required.

Please check LRDC for availability of videos.

RESOURCE POLICY

Alberta Education withdraws learning and teaching resources from the provincial list of approved materials for a variety of reasons; e.g., the resource is out of print; a new edition has been published; the program has been revised. Under section 44 (2) of the School Act, school boards may approve materials for their schools, including resources that are withdrawn from the provincial list. Many school boards have delegated this power to approve resources to school staff or other board employees under section 45 (1) of the School Act.

For further information on resource policy and definitions, refer to the Student Learning Resources Policy and Teaching Resources Policy or contact:

Learning Resources Unit, Curriculum Standards Branch

ADDITIONAL SOURCES

Available to Career and Technology Studies (CTS) teachers, locally and provincially, are many sources of information that can be used to enhance CTS. These sources are available through the community (e.g., libraries, boards, committees, clubs, associations) and through government agencies, resource centres and organizations. Some sources, e.g., government departments, undergo frequent name and/or telephone number changes. Please consult your telephone directory or an appropriate government directory.

The following is a partial list of sources to consider:

TEACHER-LIBRARIANS

Planned and purposeful use of library resources helps students grow in their ability to gather, process and share information. Research activities require access to an adequate quantity and variety of appropriate, up-to-date print and non print resources from the school library, other libraries, the community and additional sources. Some techniques to consider are:

- planning together
- establishing specific objectives
- integrating research skills into planning.

Cooperation between the teacher-librarian and the subject area teacher in the development of effectively planned resource-based research activities ensures that students are taught the research skills as well as the subject content. Also see Focus on Research: A Guide to Developing Student's Research Skills referenced in the Alberta Education resources section.

ALBERTA EDUCATION SOURCES

Alberta Government telephone numbers can be reached toll free from outside Edmonton by dialing 310-0000.

The following monographs are available for purchase from the Learning Resources Distributing Centre. Refer to the Distributor Directory at the end of this section for address, telephone, fax and Internet address.

Please consult the "Support Documents" section or the "Legal, Service and Information Publications" section in the LRDC Buyers Guide for ordering information and costs.

Developmental Framework Documents

- The Emerging Student: Relationships Among the Cognitive, Social and Physical Domains of Development, 1991 (Stock No. 161555)

This document examines the child, or student, as a productive learner, integrating all the domains of development: cognitive, social and physical. It emphasizes the need for providing balanced curriculum and instruction.

- Students' Interactions Developmental Framework: The Social Sphere, 1988 (Stock No. 161399)

This document examines children's perceptual, structural and motor development and how such physical development affects certain learning processes.

- Students' Physical Growth: Developmental Framework Physical Dimension, 1988 (Stock No. 161414)

This document examines children's normal physical growth in three areas: perceptual, structural and motor development. In none of these areas is the child's growth in a single continuous curve throughout the first two decades of life. Physical growth is characterized by periods of rapid growth and periods of slower growth. Consequently, differences and changes in growth patterns may affect the timing of certain learning processes.

Other

- Focus on Research: A Guide to Developing Students' Research Skills, 1990 (Stock No. 161802)

This document outlines a resource-based research model that helps students manage information effectively and efficiently, and gain skills that are transferable to school and work situations. This model provides a developmental approach to teaching students how to do research.

- Teaching Thinking: Enhancing Learning, 1990 (Stock No. 161521)

Principles and guidelines for cultivating thinking, ECS to Grade 12, have been developed in this resource. It offers a definition of thinking, describes nine basic principles on which the suggested practices are based, and discusses possible procedures for implementation in schools and classrooms.

ACCESS: The Education Station

ACCESS: The Education Station offers a variety of resources and services to teachers. For a nominal dubbing and tape fee, teachers may have ACCESS: The Education Station audio and video library tapes copied. ACCESS: The Education Station publishes listings of audio and video cassettes as well as a comprehensive programming schedule.

Of particular interest are the CTS videos, which are available with utilization guides. The guides outline key points in each video and suggest questions for discussion, classroom projects and other activities. Video topics are listed in the Support Learning Resources section of this guide. The videos and accompanying support material can be obtained from ACCESS: The Education Station. Refer to the Distributor Directory at the end of this section for address, telephone, fax and Internet address.

GOVERNMENT SOURCES

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

SECTION J: SAMPLE STUDENT LEARNING GUIDES

The following pages provide background information, strategies and a template for developing student learning guides. Also included at the end of this section are several sample student learning guides for Financial Management.

A student learning guide provides information and direction to help students attain the expectations defined in a specified CTS module. It is designed to be used by students under the direction of a teacher.

Many excellent student learning guides (SLG's) are available for use and/or are in the process of being developed. While Alberta Education provides a development template accompanied by some samples, most student learning guide development is being done by individuals and organizations across the province (e.g., school jurisdictions, specialist councils, post-secondary organizations). Refer to the CTS Manual for Administrators, Counsellors and Teachers (Appendix 11) for further information regarding student learning guide developers and sources.

Note: A student learning guide is not a self-contained learning package (e.g., Distance Learning Module), such as you might receive from the Alberta Distance Learning Centre (ADLC) or Distance Learning Options South (DLOS).

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

A Student Learning Guide (SLG) is a presentation of information and direction that will help students attain the expectations defined in a specified CTS module. It is designed to be used by students under the direction of a teacher. A SLG is not a self-contained learning package such as you might receive from the Alberta Distance Learning Centre (ADLC) or Distance Learning Options South (DLOS).

Each SLG is based on curriculum and assessment standards as defined for a particular CTS module. Curriculum and assessment standards are defined in this document through:

- module and specific learner expectations (Sections D, E and F)
- assessment criteria and conditions (Sections D, E and F)
- assessment tools (Section G).

The SLG is written with the student in mind and makes sense to the student in the context of his or her CTS program. SLG's are designed to guide students through modules under the direction of the teacher. They can be used to guide:

- an entire class
- a small groups of students
- individual students.

In some instances, the Student Learning Guide may also be used as teacher lesson plans. When using SLG's as teacher lesson plans, it should be noted that they tend to be:

- learner-centred (versus teacher-directed)
- activity-based (versus lecture-based)
- resource-based (versus textbook-based).

Components of a Student Learning Guide

The student learning guide format, as developed by Alberta Education, typically has seven components as described below.

1. Why Take This Module?

This section provides a brief rationale for the work the student will do, and also establishes a context for learning (i.e., in relation to the strand, a life pursuit, a specific industry, etc.).

2. What Do You Need To Know Before You Start?

In this section, prerequisite knowledge, skills and attitudes considered necessary for success in the module are identified. Prerequisites may include other modules from within the strand or from related CTS strands, as well as generic knowledge and skills (e.g., safety competencies, the ability to measure/write/draw, prior knowledge of basic information relevant to the area of study).

3. What Will You Know And Be Able To Do When You Finish?

This information must parallel and reflect the curriculum and assessment standards as defined for the module. You may find it desirable to rewrite these standards in less formal language for student use.

4. When Should Your Work Be Done?

This section provides a timeline that will guide the student in planning their work. The timeline will need to reflect your program and be specific to the assignments you give your students. You may wish to include a time management chart, a list of all assignments to be completed, and instructions to the student regarding the use of a daily planner (i.e., agenda book) to organize their work.

5. How Will Your Mark For This Module Be Determined?

This section will interpret the assessment criteria and conditions, assessment standards, assessment tools and suggested emphasis as defined for the module within the context of the projects/tasks completed. Accepted grading practices will then be used to determine a percentage grade for the module—a mark not less than 50% for successful completion. (Note: A module is “successfully completed” when the student can demonstrate ALL of the exit-level competencies or MLE's defined for the module.)

6. Which Resources May You Use?

Resources considered appropriate for completing the module and learning activities are identified in this section of the guide. The resources may be available through the Learning Resources Distributing Centre (LRDC) and/or through other agencies. Some SLG's may reference a single resource, while others may reference a range of resources. Resources may include those identified in the Learning Resource Guide (Section I) as well as other sources of information considered appropriate.

7. Activities/Worksheets

This section provides student-centred and activity-based projects and assignments that support the module learner expectations. When appropriately aligned with curriculum and assessment standards, successful completion of the projects and assignments will also indicate successful completion of the module.

Strategies for Developing Student Learning Guides

Prior to commencing the development of a student learning guide, teachers are advised to obtain:

- the relevant Guide to Standards and Implementation
- a student learning guide template, available on disk in IBM or Mac format.

Information communicated to the student in the SLG must parallel and reflect the curriculum and assessment standards as defined for the module. Therefore, critical elements of the Guide to Standards and Implementation that need to be addressed throughout the SLG include:

- module and specific learner expectations
- assessment criteria and conditions
- assessment standards
- assessment tools.

Additional ideas and activities will need to be incorporated into the student learning guide. These can be obtained by:

- reflecting on projects and assignments you have used in delivering programs in the past
- identifying human and physical resources available within the school and community
- networking and exchanging ideas (including SLGs) with other teachers
- reviewing the range of resources (e.g., print, media, software) identified in the Learning Resource Guide (Section I) for a particular module/strand.

Copyright law must also be adhered to when preparing a SLG. Further information and guidelines regarding copyright law can be obtained by referring to the:

- Copyright Act
- Copyright and the Can Copy Agreement.

A final task in developing a student learning guide involves validating the level of difficulty/challenge/rigour established, and making adjustments as considered appropriate.

A template for developing student learning guides, also available on the Internet, is provided in this section (see "Student Learning Guide Template," pages J.5–10). Several sample student learning guides are also provided in this section (see "Sample Student Learning Guides", starting on page J.11).

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

SAMPLE STUDENT LEARNING GUIDE

FIN1010 Financial Information

WHY TAKE THIS MODULE?

- Open the door to the world of business.
- Make sense of your personal finance.
- Sharpen your business decision-making skills.
- Check out your ethics IQ.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE YOU START?

There are no prerequisites identified for this module.

However, you should be willing to learn and accept responsibility for your learning. You should also have the ability to follow oral and written instructions.

WHAT

WILL YOU KNOW AND
BE ABLE TO DO
WHEN YOU FINISH?

Upon completion of this module you will be able to:

- explain the importance of ethical conduct
- identify and explain personal and small business financial management
- demonstrate basic competencies.

WHEN

SHOULD YOUR WORK BE DONE?

Your teacher will give you a timeline for completing tasks and assignments within this module.

You may also wish to use a time-management planning chart to preplan the work that needs to be done in this module. Plan how you will use your class time as well as extra time needed to complete the assignments in this module.

FIN1010 Financial InformationHOW WILL YOUR MARK FOR THIS MODULE BE DETERMINED?

	PERCENTAGE
You must first demonstrate all of the competencies required for this module.
When you have done this, your percentage mark for the module will be determined as follows:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Concept tests and/or assignments. 	30–50%
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practical exercises and projects. 	40–60%
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Portfolio items (optional). • 	5–10%

WHICH RESOURCES MAY YOU USE?

- Making Economic Choices, Copp Clark Pitman.
- Videos and teacher resources (see Learning Resource Guide – ACCESS – Making Ethical Decisions, The Ethics Jungle).
- Newspapers, magazines, periodicals.
- Sample brochures and banking forms from financial institutions.
- Choices, Chances and Control.

FIN1010 Financial InformationACTIVITIES WORKSHEETS

1. Read the following and with the help of your teacher, fill in the calendar indicating when you will complete each activity.
2. View the video(s) on ethics and/or read the information supplied by your teacher to complete two of the following:
 - answer the questions provided in the guide that accompanies the video
OR
 - prepare a code of ethics with a minimum of 10 items for an organization with which you are familiar (e.g., students' union, a club, school team, graduation committee)
OR
 - compare the codes of ethics of three organizations, businesses and/or professions
OR
 - analyze at least five case studies and determine the difference between ethical and legal behaviour and provide this information to the class in the form of a presentation.
3. Begin a glossary of financial management terms that will be used in this module and that will be expanded if you take other modules. (TIP: save this on a disk.)
4. Alone or in a group select a topic and prepare a research report discussing how environmental, social/legal and human resource issues create change in the economic environment. (Suggested topics: smoking, waste management, recycling, clean water, forced early retirement.)
5. Choose a product, e.g. oil, wheat, computers, software, and show how it may be affected by competition, world markets, price changes and/or interest rates. Discuss with your teacher the possibilities for presenting this information in the form of a bulletin board display, comic strip, video, report, etc. Agree on the format you will use.
6. Gather materials from a variety of financial institutions and compare the services offered by these institutions. From the materials gather, prepare and present your findings.
7. Complete banking documentation required for bank transactions as directed by your teacher.
8. Complete a set of problems that compares simple and compound interest costs.
9. Using an example, describe the potential problems of using credit.
10. Explain the three Cs of credit (character, capacity, collateral) and describe a scenario where all three would be present, and a scenario where one is missing.

FIN1010 Financial Information

11. View the video, Choice, Chances and Control, and/or read information as directed by your teacher and complete one of the following:
 - you are an insurance agent. Write a letter to a small business telling it what it needs to protect the business and the owners from risk
 - OR
 - your 19-year old friend is moving away from home and now he needs insurance. Write out what your recommendations would be
 - OR
 - ask your family what kind of insurance coverage they have, analyze the coverage and explain whether it is adequate and if not what you would recommend.
12. You want to start a small business that will have three employees. Describe what government regulations you will be required to follow; e.g., federally – income tax, payroll deductions; provincially – taxes, labour laws, WCB; municipally – business tax, licences required.
13. Complete the test that will be given to you by your teacher.

FIN3010 Advanced Accounting

WHY TAKE THIS MODULE?

- You will focus your skills on mastery of advanced accounting procedures that relate to realistic business situations.
- You will explore a variety of procedures used to establish the value of assets. Some concepts included are capital assets, uncollectible accounts, accruals.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE YOU START?

Prerequisite: FIN2030: Merchandising Business 2

WHAT

WILL YOU KNOW AND
BE ABLE TO DO
WHEN YOU FINISH?

Upon completion of this module you will be able to:

- define terms relevant to capital assets, uncollectible accounts, accruals, and manufacturing or departmental accounting
- apply advanced accounting procedures that relate the above terms to realistic business situations
- demonstrate basic competencies.

WHEN

SHOULD YOUR WORK BE DONE?

Your teacher will give you a timeline for completing tasks and assignments within this module.

You may also wish to use a time-management planning chart to preplan the work that needs to be done in this module. Plan how you will use your class time as well as extra time needed to complete the assignments in this module.

- Financial Accounting (1–12), Prentice-Hall Canada Inc.
- Management Accounting, Prentice-Hall Canada Inc.
- Videos or other material (software).

Note: Extra materials on bank reconciliations will need to be provided by the teacher.

ACTIVITIES/WORKSHEETS

1. Read the following activities and with the help of your teacher, fill in your calendar indicating when you will complete each activity. Note: Assignments/worksheets may be computer generated or manual.
2. As you complete the assignments for the module and as you read the appropriate resources, add to your glossary all terms related to capital assets, uncollectible accounts, inventory, accruals and bank reconciliations.
3. Read the section of the text on Capital Assets (Century 21, pages 314–347; Financial Accounting, pages 431–472). Complete problems as directed by your teacher related to the following:
 - prepare a schedule showing calculation of depreciation of a fixed asset using various amortization methods
 - identify the concept of recording items as assets or as expenses by recording appropriate adjusting entries
 - record entries in the appropriate journal for buying and disposing of fixed assets
 - record the depreciation of a fixed asset
 - research a depleting natural resource and prepare a report.
4. Read the section of the text on Uncollectible Accounts (Century 21, pages 292–306; Financial Accounting, pages 353–360). Complete problems as directed by your teacher related to the following:
 - prepare a worksheet calculating the aging of accounts receivable
 - prepare journal entries: using the allowance method write off uncollectible accounts/collection of uncollectible accounts
 - prepare a report on the different methods of calculating the value of uncollectible accounts receivable
 - demonstrate by using T accounts the effect of writing off uncollectible accounts by using two methods (display).
5. Read the section on revenue and expense accruals (Century 21, pages 349–370, 376–387; Financial Accounting, pages 94–108). Complete problems as directed by your teacher AND/OR
 - prepare journal entries to update general ledger accounts (accruals, payroll, etc.)
 - demonstrate the effect of adjustments on accruals by using T accounts.
6. After discussion with your teacher, complete one of the following:
 - activities related to manufacturing (Century 21, pages 621–633; Management Accounting, pages 964–1008)

OR

 - activities related to departmental accounting (Century 21, pages 601–614; Management Accounting, pages 1100–1104)
