ORDER OF EXHIBITION, &c.

FIRST DAY—Cattle, Sheep, and Hogs.

SECOND DAY—Blood and Draft Horses.

THIRD DAY—Fine Horses and Mules.

FOURTH DAY—Harness Horses and Poultry.

FIFTH DAY—Saddle Horses, Sweepstakes, and Asses.

All stock must be entered by half past 8 o'clock of the day of exhibition.

Each day's exhibition will commence precisely at 9 o'clock—the stock to be brought into the amphitheatre in the order of the premium list.

The awards of the Judges will be announced as soon as the decision is made.

All animals, to which premiums shall be awarded, will be required to remain on the grounds until the close of the Fair, except withdrawn by permission of the President.

All articles must be entered during the first day, and placed in the appropriate halls for exhibition, to remain in charge of the Superintendents, until the close of the Fair.

The halls will be open, after the first day, for the admission of visitors.

Premiums will be paid on the last day.

The Annual Address will be delivered at 12 o'clock on the second day, by the HON. CHARLES S. MOREHEAD, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

REGULATIONS, &c.

1. Each member and his family shall have free admission to the Fair grounds, the right to exhibit stock or other articles, for which premiums may be offered, and shall be entitled to receive a copy of published proceedings, lists of premiums, prize essays, &c., which may be printed by the Society, free of cost.

2. Persons desiring to become members, must do so ten days before the Fair.

3. Any person, not a member, may compete for premiums on the payment of Three Dollars, which will also entitle him and his family to admission to the grounds.

4. Books for the entry of stock and articles, will be open one month before the Fair; and exhibitors are earnestly requested to make all their entries, if in their power, before the commencement of the Fair.

5. All stock and articles must be entered by the owner.

6. Exhibitors will be particular to enter their stock in the proper class.

7. The halls, for the reception of articles, will be open the day before the Fair.

8. All articles must be entered and labelled before received by the Superintendents of the halls.

9. Judges of stock are requested to report themselves at the business office, on the grounds, by half past 8 o'clock of the day on which they are to act in that capacity. Judges of articles are requested to report themselves during the first day of the Fair.

10. All Judges or Alternates will be entitled to receive a ticket of admission to the grounds.

11. No person who is an exhibitor can act as judge in the class in which he exhibits.

12. When the Judges of stock have agreed upon their award, in each class, they will report to the Marshals, who shall proclaim the names of the persons entitled to premiums, and furnish the names to the Secretary, in person.

13. The Judges of articles will be required to furnish the Secretary a list of their awards.

14. The President, Vice Presidents, or one of the Directors, shall attend each awarding Committee, in viewing the different classes of stock and articles.

15. No person, other than the Judges, will be permitted to go into the ring where stock is exhibiting, except the officers of the Society and the Marshals.

16. The gate of the Amphitheatre will be closed in ten minutes after the call by the Marshal for each class of stock.

17. No stock will be permitted to enter the ring unless under halter, and in care of a groom.

18. Exhibitors will place in the hands of the groom a card, containing the age of all animals under four years old.

19. Exhibitors of Blood Horses will be required to deposit with the Secretary an authentic pedigree of each animal, during the first day of the Fair.

20. No animal will be permitted to enter but one class, except in the herd and sweepstakes.

21. No person will be permitted to enter the ring to show his own stock, and in violation of the rule, will forfeit the premium.

22. If any person shall make known to the Judges his ownership of stock, or the pedigree thereof, he shall not be entitled to a premium on said stock.

23. The premiums, except for the products of the farm and garden, are open to the world.

24. No Stallion, Mare, Bull, Cow, Jack, or Jennet, four years old, shall be permitted to compete for a premium, unless it has proven itself a breeder.

25. No premium will be awarded to any animal or article, where there is no competition, unless the Judges shall deem such worthy of it.

26. The owner of every animal, to which a premium shall be awarded, will be required to deliver to the Secretary, in writing, its name, age, and pedigree, as far as known, before the delivery of the premium.

27. Discretionary premiums will be awarded, upon the recommendation of the Judges, by the Board.

28. Premiums will be paid in silver plate or coin.

29. Provender for stock will be furnished on the grounds, to exhibitors, at actual cost.
