ABSTRACT

Proposed schedules for short and long visits for state licensing team visits to colleges and universities are presented. The short visit, which some states use for program evaluations, involves a half day (the afternoon) prior to the formal visitation and a full day visitation. The long visit entails the afternoon prior to formal visitation, the full day visitation, and another half day. Activities are outlined by the time of day, and the areas that team members would probably want to examine are listed. The typical sequence of activities leading to licensing are also outlined separately. Preceding the visit, the institution provides a report to the state agency, which in turn provides the material to the consultants. The institution is also informed about the selection of the consultants and allowed to submit objections. After the visitation, the team report is submitted to the state agency and the institution. The state agency then reviews the institutional report, the team report, and institutional response prior to making the decision on licensing of the institution. (SW)

Typical Schedule for State Licensing
Team Visits

(Short visit* ends on Monday at 5:00 p.m.
Long visit ends on Tuesday morning.)

Approximately four weeks prior to the evaluation visit, state agency sends team a copy of the institutional response to state agency questionnaire.

SHORT VISIT

SUNDAY: (afternoon prior to formal visitation)

- 4:00 p.m. Team members and state agency representatives meet (in chairman's suite or assigned meeting room in hotel) to exchange first impressions of report, clarify individual team member's assignments, and tentatively decide on major questions for informal discussion with institutional representatives at dinner.
- 6:00 p.m. The team and representatives of the state agency meet in the lobby of the hotel. A representative of the state agency or the institution will provide transportation for the team members to the place where dinner will be served, if required.
- 6:15 p.m. A brief "get acquainted period" will precede dinner which should commence at approximately 6:30 p.m. It is usually helpful to the visiting team when the institution includes the following people at the dinner: Board of Trustees' representatives, key administrators, a few students, and others whom the president feels would be appropriate.
- 8:30 p.m. The team will have a brief meeting with representatives of the college to chart a schedule for the following day.
- 9:00 p.m. Brief meeting at hotel of team and state agency to review evening and plan for Monday. In no case should this meeting last beyond 11:00 p.m.

MONDAY: (full day visitation)

The complete schedule for this day will be arranged by the team. A typical pattern is outlined below. This outline is tentative at best and is subject to total revision by the team.

- 7:30 a.m. Team members and representatives of the state agency meet for breakfast at the hotel.
- 8:30 a.m. Team members drive to the college.

*Some states use short visit for program evaluations.

9:00 a.m. The team members and representatives of the state agency meet in the president's office for a brief orientation with appropriate personnel.

9:30 a.m. During the morning, the team members would probably desire to examine the following areas:

- purposes and objectives of the institution
- admissions and admission standards
- faculty qualifications
- class size and teaching loads
- the curriculum offered
- course outlines
- library and learning resources
- special facilities
- graduation requirements
- student records
- student personnel services
- program administration
- program budget and finances
- catalog and announcements
- administration
- buildings and grounds
- Board of Trustees

12:00 noon Closed session for team members and state agency representatives. College to provide lunch.

1:00 p.m. Team members would continue to explore those areas listed above. In addition, research activities and long-range plans for the college would be reviewed.

2:00 p.m. Informal group meeting with student representatives. Individual meetings with faculty members.

3:00 p.m. Team members and representatives of the state agency meet to discuss major findings with the president and others whom he may designate.

4:00 p.m. Team and state agency representatives meet with president and others whom he may designate. At this time, the team may present some of its observations with opportunity for the institution to react.

5:00 p.m. Team is disbanded.

Within seven days, each team member will submit his segment of the team report to the team chairman. The chairman will consolidate the report and send it to the team members for endorsement or modification. A copy of the report will be furnished the college for purposes of determining factual accuracy (e.g., number of full-time faculty, etc.) and responding to any specific team recommendations.

The completed report and institutional response are reviewed by the staff of the state agency and appropriate actions are taken.

Typical Sequence of Activities
Leading to Licensing

1. Letter from institution expressing interest in receiving license.

3. Selection of consultants - institution is informed of consultants which agency is considering, to determine whether institution has serious and substantial reservations about any particular consultant.

5. Visit - see attached schedule of typical licensure visit.
