1) Editor's Greeting:

Hello everyone, and welcome to our new subscribers!

This is our 9th monthly Newsletter for our new site, EducationOnlineForComputers.com, giving you the most current Free online Software Training and Tutorial Resources that we have recently discovered and researched. This newsletter is free to anyone subscribing (instructions at bottom, no username/password is needed). To access our member site, however, you do need a user name and password - registering as a member of EducationOnlineForComputers.com costs only $14 for two months, for more information please see below 'Become a Member of EducationOnlineForComputers.com'.

My desire is that these free resources will help you with your computer education and training and are tools to advance your career. Our main mission is the training of those less fortunate who are seeking to become computer literate, from a user's perspective.

By means of this email newsletter, you have knowledge of and access to these sites before our web site visitors do. The best of these resources will be added to our Member Training pages and the remainder to our Free Training pages.

 Current Issue *****

This issue describes a total of 40 Software and Computer training, learning and tutorial

7) Question of the Month about Software Training:

Each month Scott Turton will answer a current or important question that we have received about computer and software training.

November 2003 Question:

Do you have a search engine for your tutorials?

Answer:

Yes, we do have a search engine. You can access the search engine by going to any page on www.educationonlineforcomputers.com and using the search form on the left-hand side. This will search our entire database of tutorials for the keywords that you specify.

Also, if you have a web site where you would like to let your visitors search for free software training, you can put our search form on your site and customize it any way you'd like. Please check out this page on our site:
