ABSTRACT

An interdisciplinary career education program called Career Education Activity Kits (CEAK) for grades 5-6 are presented in the document. The materials in the teacher's handbook may be used as an aid to achieve pre-established instructional outcomes. Fourteen career generalizations were utilized to develop the CEAK materials. Each generalization has four career education outcome statements for developing the student's thought processes: (1) identify--activities requiring recognition from the students, (2) compare/contrast--activities providing different materials which require comparison, (3) analyze--activities requiring students to identify parts or concepts and the relationship between them, and (4) evaluate--activities requiring judgments about the concepts in the career generalization. The CEAK information sheets are presented for seven subject areas: language arts (14 activities), art (two activities), interdisciplinary (four activities), mathematics (eight activities), physical education (one activity), science (one activity), and social studies (24 activities). Each activity guideline includes a career generalization, career objectives). Each objective, materials needed, preparation, procedure, and evaluation. Worksheets, transparency masters, evaluation instruments, and other instructional materials are included. Appended materials include the 14 career generalizations and objectives, a list of Career Education Consortium participants, an explanation of the feedback system, and a teacher check list for the feedback system. PREFACE

The implementation of this Career Education Activity Kits (CEAK) curriculum project was made possible through funds authorized under Part C of the Vocational Education Amendments of 1968. This project was administered through the Division of Vocational Education, State Department of Education, pursuant to Grant No. OEG-0-73-2975 from the U. S. Office of Education, Department of H. E. W.

The opinions expressed do not necessarily reflect the position or policy of the U. S. Office of Education, or the State Department of Education, and no official endorsement by the U. S. Office of Education should be inferred.

The Career Education Activity Kits were developed by curriculum, guidance and teaching personnel of the Wichita Public School system during the summer of 1974. The activities and supportive materials are field test copies only and will be revised according to teacher recommendation. In addition to teacher evaluation, students will be pre and post tested to measure advancement in career concepts.

ORIENTATION

Career Education Activity Kits (CEAK, pronounced seek) incorporate the developmental approach to career education into learning center activities for elementary students. The CEAK activities are interdisciplinary and should enhance current instructional goals by reinforcing learned capabilities. The intent is that materials be used as an aid to achieve pre-established instructional outcomes.

The CEAK Program distinguishes activities for all elementary children through three grade level groupings---K-2; 3-4; 5-6. In addition, some activities are appropriate for students with special needs. The material is not sequential, giving students and teachers freedom to enter most activities at any time.

The Wichita Career Education Curriculum Consortium utilized fourteen career generalizations to develop the materials in CEAK. Each generalization has four career education outcome statements that progress the student through an intellectual design that develops the student's thought processes. The intellectual design provides students with identity activities that simply require recognition from the students. Compare and contrast activities provide the student with differing materials that require comparison. The more complicated thought process of analysis is approached through activities that require students to identify parts or concepts and the relationship between them. Finally, evaluative activities ask the students to make judgments that value the concepts inherent in the career generalization.

In addition to the career generalization and career objective statements, each CEAK activity has a performance objective that is written in behavioral terms. The performance objective enables the teacher to easily evaluate student participation.

The philosophy guiding CEAK development was based on the premise that teachers generally do not have time to make hands-on activities that are suggested in standard curriculum guides. Therefore, the materials required in each CEAK activity are provided in the kit. If the activity is a game, then the game is provided in the kit. When spirit masters are needed then thermofax masters can be found in the teachers handbook. Any materials not provided in CEAK are standard classroom supplies that are normally on hand in the classroom.

Teachers are also provided with preparation instructions informing them when an activity requires preparations in advance of the activity. Similarly, procedure instructions are provided to aid the teacher in getting the activity underway.

Finally, each CEAK activity has an evaluative tool included. The evaluation is not required but does provide the teacher with a measurable means of evaluating student performance. Suggested levels of acceptable performance are provided. However, no problem is incurred if the instructors wish to adjust these levels to their situations.

In summary, CEAK is a career education curriculum that actively involves students in learning. The activities are interdisciplinary and are designed to supplement current instructional goals. CEAK should be used as a means of achieving pre-established outcomes and not as an addition to the school day.

HOW TO USE CEAK MATERIALS

For the instructor to effectively utilize the CEAK materials it is important that the curriculum model and packaging be understood.

The CEAK materials for each grade level are packaged in the teachers handbook and an activity box.

The teachers handbook has twenty (20) sections. Section One provides orientation information to the CEAK model. Section Two includes the instructions for using the CEAK kits. Sections 3-16 contain the activity information sheets. These sheets are divided according to the career generalization numbers. Section 17 is an appendix that includes a listing of all the career generalizations and their career objectives. Section 18 explains the feedback system. Section 19 is a special thanks to the Career Education Consortium participants. Finally, Section 20 is a miscellaneous section for teacher records.

Contained in the CEAK box are all the materials that are not provided in this notebook. These materials include game boards and pieces ranging in size from 8½" x 11" to 22" x 25".

The remainder of this section concerns the use of the activity information sheets provided in Sections 3-16.

Code Numbers

Each activity has a code number that helps the teacher identify the grade level grouping, career generalization and career objective of the activity. The code is divided into three components. The first two digits indicate the grade level grouping. The third and fourth digits refer to the career generalization. The letter signifies the process involved in the intellectual design and the career objective related to the generalization. Activity coding may progress as shown in the table below.

Table of Coding Progression

Grade Level	Career Generalization	Career Objective
K-2	01 08	A - identify
3-4	02 09	B - compare/contrast
5-6	03 10	C - analyze
	04 11	D - evaluate
	05 12
	06 13
	07 14

For example a code number K202A, refers to an activity for Kindergarten through second grade. The career generalization is the number two which states that "education and training are required for most work". The letter "A" signifies that the intellectual process utilized in the activity is identity and meets career objective A for generalization number two. The coding 3410C belongs to a third and fourth grade activity for generalization 10 using career objective C. Similarly the coding 5614D signifies a fifth and sixth grade activity for generalization fourteen involving the evaluative career objective. Every piece of material provided in CEAK has a code number printed on it. If a piece is misplaced, it may be refiled with proper kit by reading the code number.

Discipline Identification

The subject area identification appears at the top of the activity information sheet. Included with the subject area identification are concepts or skills within that subject addressed by the activity. For example:

Language Arts: Listening, word recognition. The preceding identifies this activity as a Language Arts activity that involves the children in listening and word recognition.

In order to select a CEAK activity for your class, simply scan the activity information sheets' subject area identifications until you find one that is appropriate to the needs of your class at the present time.

Materials

The materials statement on the activity information sheet identifies the materials needed for the activity. Those materials with an asterisk (*) appearing before them are already provided for you in the CEAK package. Those materials without the asterisk are generally in supply for any classroom and must be provided by the school.

When the activity requires consumable items, one master copy is provided for the teacher. Student copies can be duplicated through the use of a thermofax spirit master and a spirit duplicator.

Preparation

It is important that the teacher read the preparation statement at least one day in advance of the activity implementation. The preparation statement alerts the instructor to reproduce or gather materials when necessary. Anything that needs to be done in advance of the activity is identified in this section of the activity information sheet.

Procedures

The procedure statement provides information for the instructor that will aid in implementing and operating the activity as efficiently as possible. The activities were originally created for learning centers, but many of the activities could be used with other management styles.

Evaluation

· Provided with each activity is an evaluation activity. Each evaluation activity has an answer key. Simply follow the instructions for using the evaluation. Some have suggested levels of performance. Converting the evaluation to a grade is left to the teacher.

"RUN FOR YOUR LIFE" GAME DIRECTIONS

1. Four players are required for this game.
2. Deal eight job cards to each player. Place the remaining cards at the top of the game board, leaving one card face up.
3. Play begins when the first player rolls the dice to see how many spaces he will move his Roadrunner marker. If the player must cross one of Wile's traps to move the correct number of spaces, he must play a card bearing the title of a job with the minimum education requirement listed on the space.

Do not play a card with a job title that requires more education or training. Refer to the answer sheet for correct responses after play is made. If an incorrect answer is given, the player may not move the number of spaces indicated on the die. If the player does not have a card which applies to the requirement, discard one card and draw from the stack of free cards.

4. Other players can use this traded card, provided it is the top card on the discard stack.
5. The first player to reach the finish line with the least number of cards left wins.

3. The postal employee is to read each job title card and place the card in the proper educational training section of the box.
4. There are 3 copies of each job title, which means that some job titles may be placed in 3 different educational sections in the box, or in only one section. Put the extra cards not filed in the section labeled extra cards.
5. After the postal employee has classified all cards, the postal inspector uses the Answer Key to evaluate the employee's performance.
6. The inspector should place correct responses in one stack and incorrect ones in another.

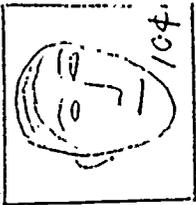

EVALUATION:

The student should classify the career cards with 80% accuracy. Not more than 20 should be in the incorrect stack after the postal inspector has evaluated the player. If this is not achieved, the player must play again or observe the inspector as he assumes the employee's role.

Interdisciplinary: Goal Setting, Planning, Self Awareness

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Education and training are required for most work.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will evaluate the educational options available in relation to his/her personal objectives and needs.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given a list of human needs, work attitudes, and educational options, the student will be able to choose those which apply to his/her lifestyle.

MATERIALS:

- *"Grandstand Play"
- *Activity sheets (2 pages)

PREPARATION:

Reproduce enough copies of the activity sheets for each student.

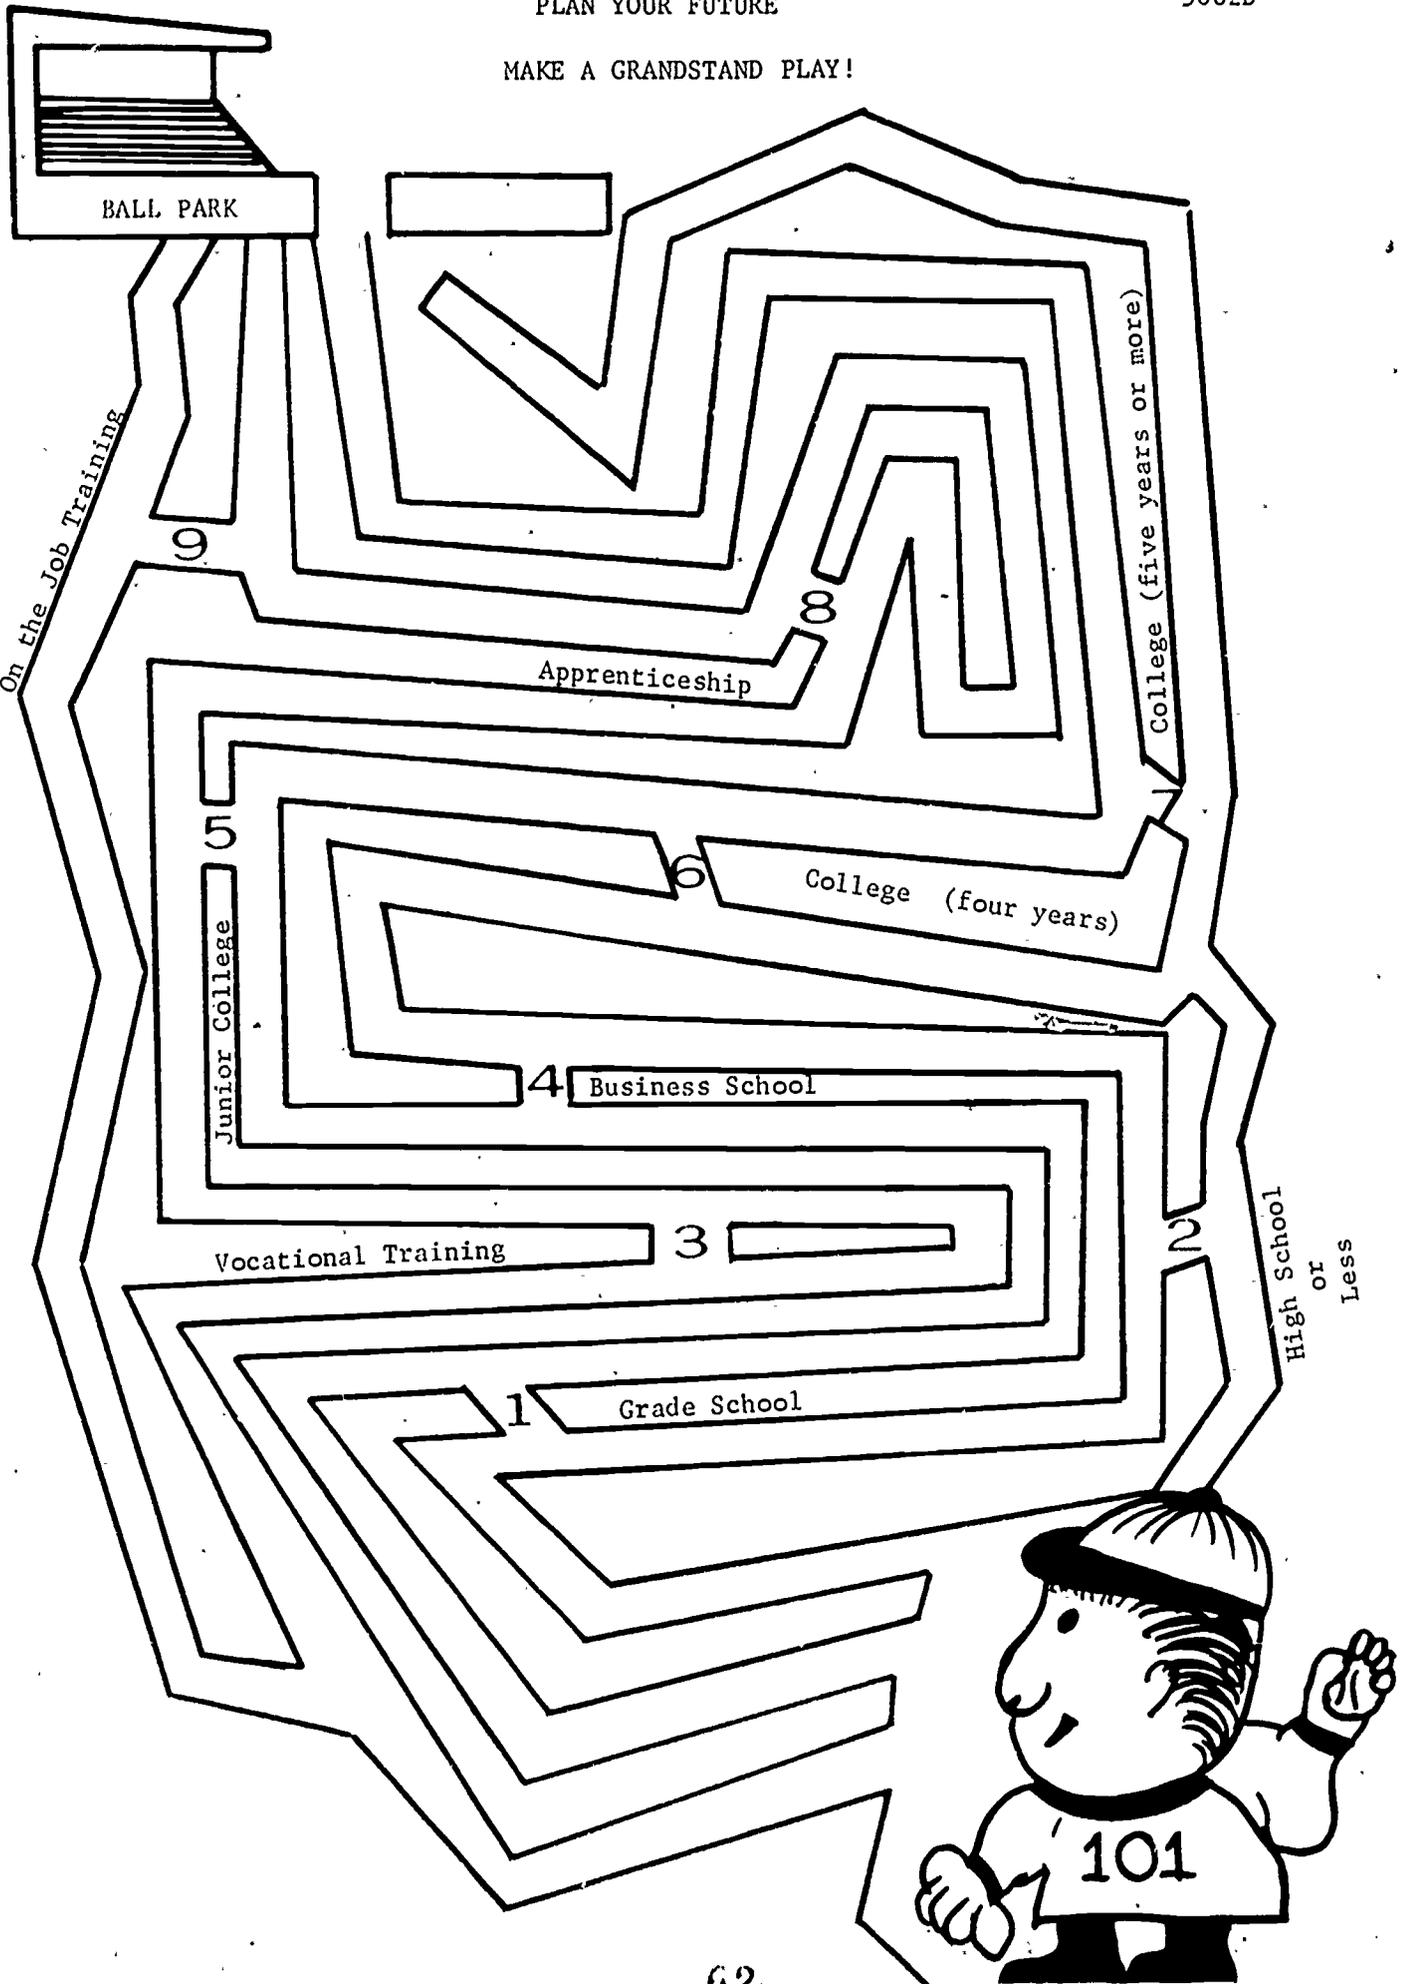

PROCEDURE:

1. Distribute copies of the activity sheets to each student.
2. Follow the directions on the activity sheets carefully.
3. The student will choose from a list of human needs and work attitudes those which apply to his/her interests.
4. From these choices, the student will name a career which would supply the needs and possess the work attitudes named.
5. Once the student has named a career choice, he will "map" out his/her educational path which will result in qualifying for that career.

EVALUATION:

The student should complete all five exercises on the activity sheet.

MAKE A GRANDSTAND PLAY!

"GRANDSTAND PLAY"

- I. Before you make your "Grandstand Play" for the future, it is necessary to decide what you consider important. Listed below are some human needs that people have. Check those which you consider most important.

Housing	_____	Luxuries	_____
Food	_____	Happiness	_____
Clothing	_____	Pride	_____
Transportation	_____	Freedom	_____
Health	_____	Respect	_____
Help Others	_____	Excitement	_____
To be liked	_____	Expressing ideas	_____
Power	_____	Competition	_____

- II. In the list of work characteristics below, check those which are most important to you.

Traveling	_____	Working at Night	_____
Danger	_____	Adventure	_____
Helping Sick People	_____	Working with Animals	_____
Working with Children	_____	Wearing a uniform	_____
Operating big machines	_____	Driving a car or truck	_____
Getting Dirty	_____	Working with numbers	_____

- III. Now that you have completed exercises I and II, write your checked items under the headings below.

NEEDS

WORK CHARACTERISTICS

IV. Study your choice of needs and characteristics listed in Exercise III. What career could you choose that would relate to these? Write the name of the career below.

V. Now you are ready for your "Grandstand Play". On page 3, write the career name from exercise IV on the heavy black line near the Ball Park. This is your goal.

You must now decide which path you will take. Note that each gate is labeled with a different educational option. You may use one gate or several to achieve your career goal.

Go through only those that are necessary to achieve your goal. When you are finished, hand your paper to the teacher.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Specialization results in interactions and interdependencies among workers.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will identify different work roles and their interrelatedness in given specialized work situations.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

The student will be able to match sentences, that state work roles with the worker with 80% accuracy - game situation).

MATERIALS:

- *"Build-A-House" Game board
- *Game sentence cards
- *Directions for "Build-A-House"
- *Answer sheet to game
- *Suggested preparation activities
- Game markers
- 1 die
- Red construction paper
- Scissors

PREPARATION:

Suggested preparation activities may be used before the game:

Laminate and cut apart the sentence cards.

Make markers out of red construction paper, but to resemble bricks.

PROCEDURE:

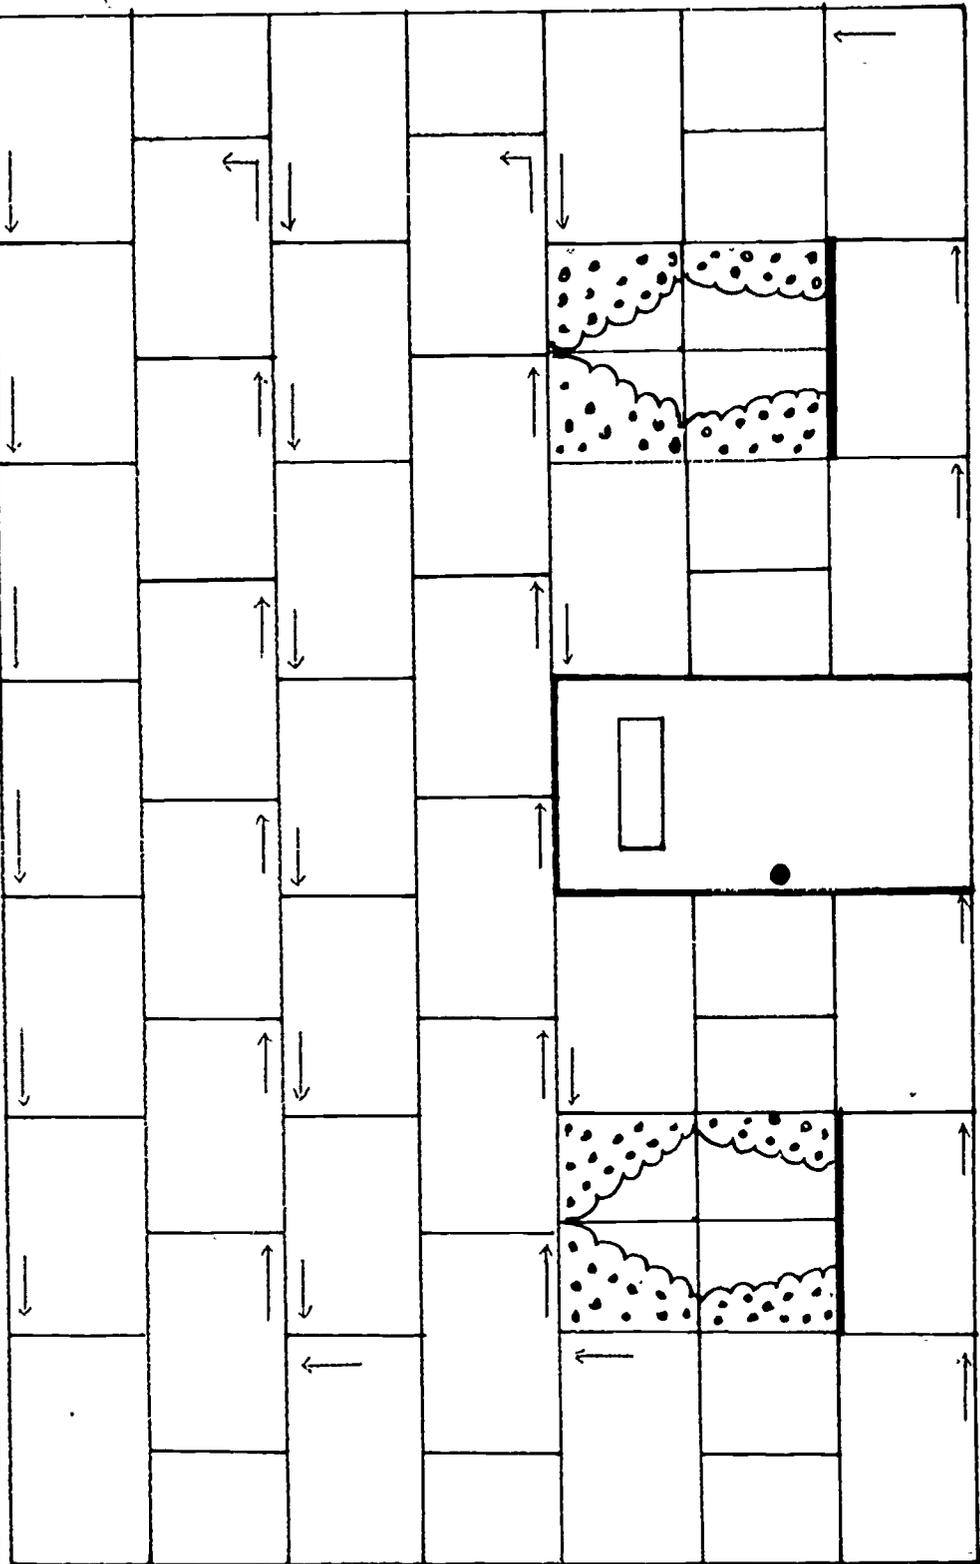

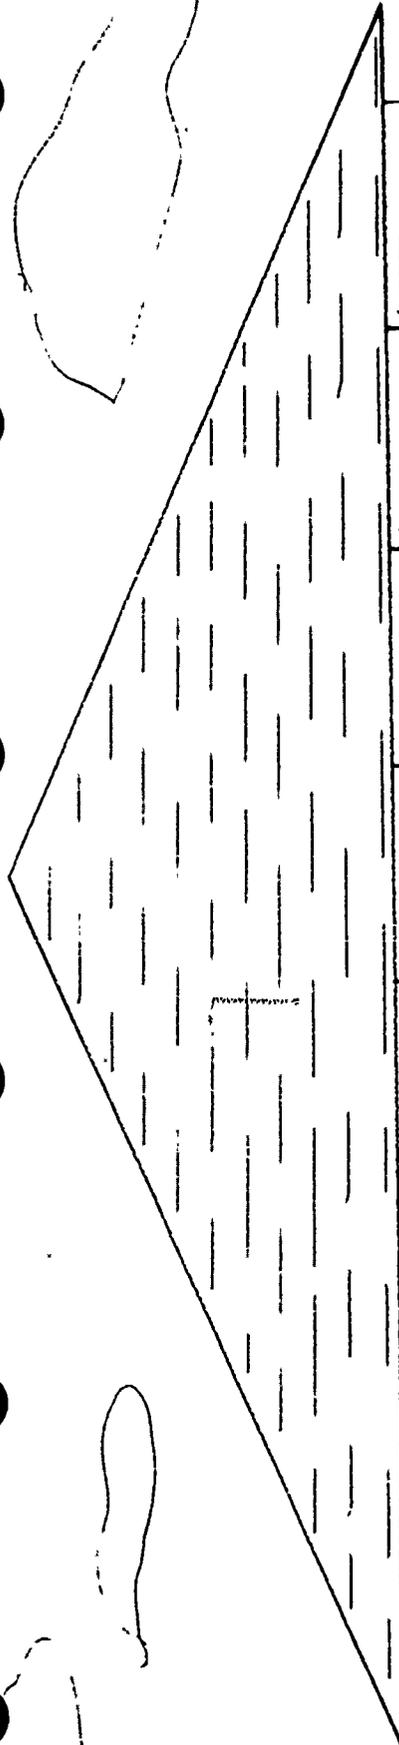

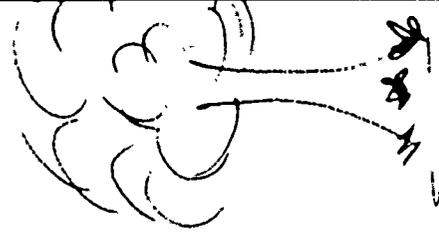

Place the game (with the directions sheet) in a learning center for 4-6 students to play.

EVALUATION:

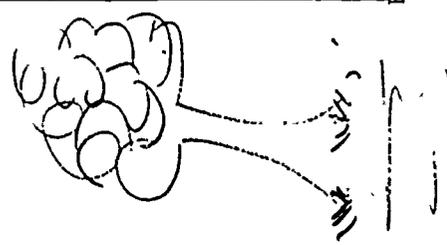

As a leader or the teacher reads the sentence cards the student should be able to name the worker with 80% accuracy. This could be done in teams or as an entire class activity.

Interdisciplinary: Recognition of Relationships Increases
Power of Orientation

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Education and training are required for most work.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will analyze opportunities afforded by each of the educational resources in relation to specific occupations.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given some occupational titles, the student will match the most appropriate educational option for each occupation.

MATERIALS:

- *Game board - "The Pathfinder"
- *Marker
- *Pathfinder directions and activity sheet
- *Pathfinder Answer Key

PREPARATION:

Print multiple copies of the activity sheet. The game is designed for two players, and each time they play they will need an activity sheet.

PROCEDURE:

Introduce the game to the players. Allow them to play as long as desired. When they have finished an activity sheet, have them check the answer key.

EVALUATION:

The student should be able to answer correctly all three questions on the activity sheet. If he does not complete this correctly, have the student play again.

"PATHFINDER" ACTIVITY SHEET

Directions:

This is an activity which tests the power of psychic thought. You and your partner will ask two questions of the Great Pathfinder. On the first move, think of a job title--any job title. Place your fingers on the marker and concentrate on the job title. The marker will begin to move!

- I. When the marker stops, write down the name of the job title to which it points. A space is provided below:

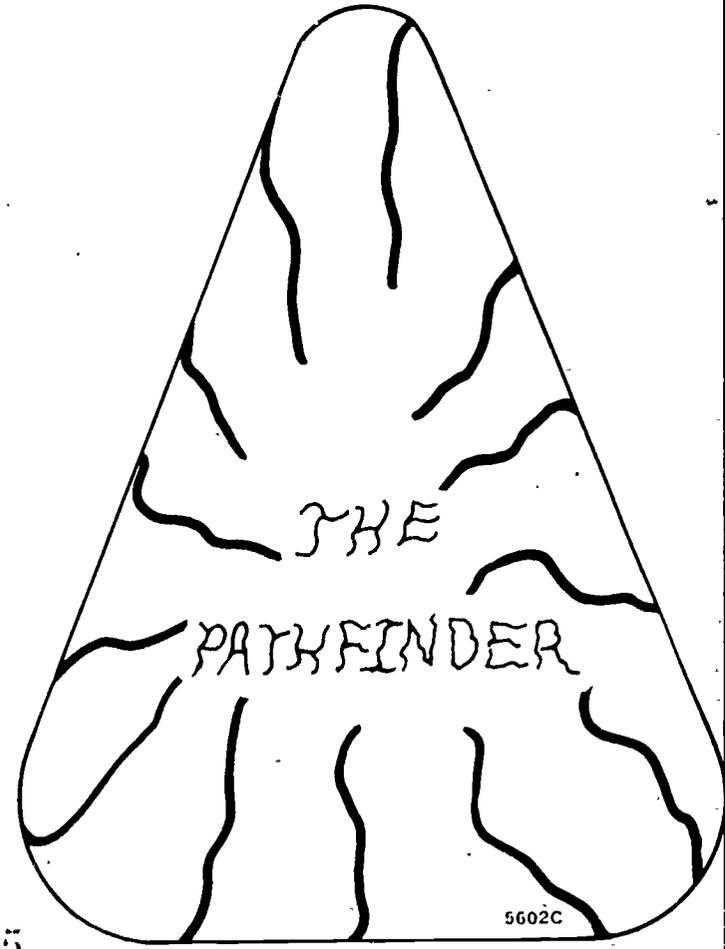

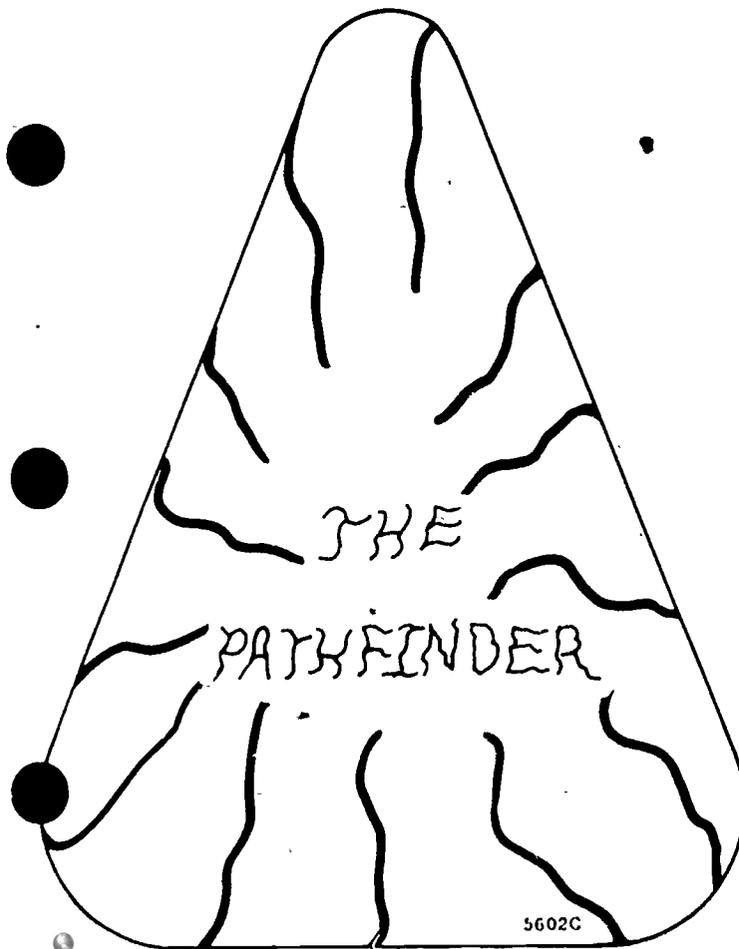

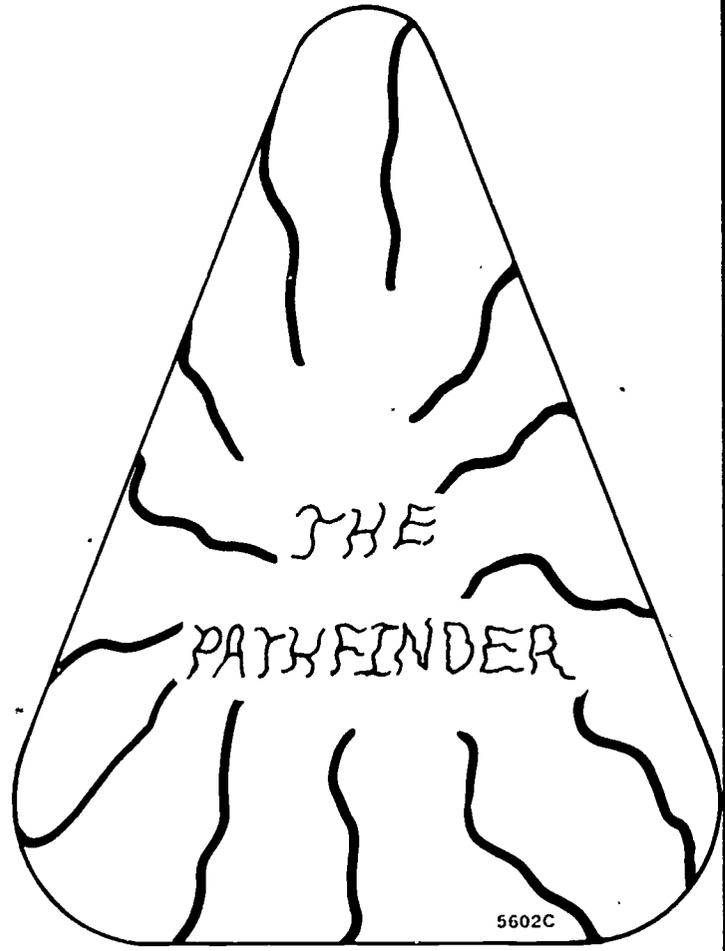

- II. Now you are to concentrate on education. Place your fingers again on the marker, close your eyes, and concentrate very hard on education. The marker again will move, only this time, to the bottom of the board. When the marker stops, write the name of the educational requirement indicated by the marker. Write it in the space below.

- III. Now it is time to concentrate even more. Compare the results of the two questions asked.
1. Was the Pathfinder correct in matching the job with the education required to perform the job?
 2. In what ways could the Pathfinder have been more truthful?

GENERALIZATION:

Specialization results in interactions and interdependencies among workers.

OBJECTIVE:

The student will evaluate the effects of specialized roles on a whole product, process, or interaction.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Career development is a life-long process.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will analyze the work of different occupations and infer the different abilities, skills, and interests required for successful performance in those occupations.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given an Activity Sheet, the student will categorize job description statements as true or false in relation to four (4) different occupations with 80 percent accuracy.

MATERIALS:

- * Activity Sheet
- * Activity Sheet Answer Key
- Pen or pencil

PREPARATION:

Duplicate an Activity Sheet for each participating student. This can be a large group or learning center activity.

PROCEDURE:

Allow the students to complete the Activity Sheet and check their work against the Activity Sheet Answer Key.

Then, have them work in pairs, each pair selecting one of the occupations (doctor, teacher, homemaker, carpenter) to discuss. Each pair should study the true statements about their occupation; and from those statements, they should make a list of the skills, interests, and abilities necessary to successfully engage in that occupation.

EVALUATION:

Informally, note during the discussion the accuracy of the students' analyses of the abilities, skills, and interests that are necessary for different jobs.

DIRECTIONS: Read each of the following statements and mark TRUE or FALSE as it applies to each occupation.

DOCTOR	TEACHER	HOMEMAKER	CARPENTER
TRUE	FALSE	FALSE	FALSE
TRUE	FALSE	FALSE	TRUE
TRUE	FALSE	FALSE	FALSE
TRUE	FALSE	TRUE	FALSE
FALSE	FALSE	FALSE	TRUE
FALSE	TRUE	TRUE	TRUE
FALSE	TRUE	TRUE	FALSE
FALSE	FALSE	FALSE	FALSE
FALSE	FALSE	FALSE	TRUE
TRUE	FALSE	FALSE	FALSE
TRUE	FALSE	FALSE	FALSE
TRUE	FALSE	FALSE	TRUE
FALSE	FALSE	FALSE	FALSE

1. Is confined indoors (environment)
2. Has high pay (interests)
3. Requires long, expensive training (education)
4. Is on call day and night (adaptation)
5. Has dull routine job (adaptation)
6. Uses creative ideas (special aptitudes)
7. Should like children (interests)
8. Can only be a woman (sex)
9. Uses a lot of math skills (special aptitudes)
10. Must pass examination for license (intelligence)
11. Must be an American citizen (citizenship)
12. Has extra benefits, like trips (exploration)
13. Provides opportunities for competition (job changes)
14. Works by appointment only (adaptation)
15. Will be outmoded in the future (technological changes)

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Different occupations require different abilities, skills, and interests.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will evaluate his/her own abilities, skills, and interests in relation to different occupational opportunities.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

The student will be able to write a job application letter, using correct form, sentence structure, punctuation, etc.

MATERIALS:

- *Directions to student
- *Personal Inventory sheet (2 pages)
- *Letter of Application (No. 1)
- *Letter of Application (No. 2)
- *Form for Business Letter
- Pencil and paper for letter writing

PREPARATION:

As many copies as needed of the Directions to Student sheet, the Personal Inventory, the Letter of Application (No. 1) and the Letter of Application (No. 2) should be run off.

Before introducing this unit, the Personal Inventory sheet should be discussed briefly to make sure all students understand how to use it.

Also, this activity should be used at a time when the class is studying letter writing. The form for Business Letter should be gone over together in class.

PROCEDURE:

All materials will be placed in a learning center, or this unit could be used with the whole class. Be sure the students first read and understand the sheet "Directions to Student". They then follow the steps, in order, on that sheet.

EVALUATION:

The student will be able to write a letter applying for a job, using correct letter form, sentence structure, punctuation, etc. Check the work after it is completed.

DIRECTIONS TO STUDENT

1. First fill in the Personal Inventory sheet. This is a list of your abilities and skills--things you do well and like to do. Follow the directions on the sheet.
2. Write the Letter of Application (No. 1) for practice. Your teacher may want to check this letter before you write the second one. Follow directions on the sheet.
3. Write the Letter of Application (No. 2). Follow the directions on the sheet. This letter will be handed to your teacher to be checked for correct letter form.

PERSONAL INVENTORY

You are being asked to list all the things that you do well. Write down sports, games, hobbies everything! Remember things you do around home, at school, with friends, with people you don't know well, with relatives, with your family, in clubs, alone, to help others, and to help yourself.

Your list could be very long. It would be difficult to list everything, but try to list as many as you can--at least 30. And remember "Little" things count.

After you have finished this list, discuss the items you have listed with 2 or 3 others in your class. Try to decide what jobs you might be good at using your list as a basis. Make a list of the jobs you think you might be able to do, then choose one of them for the Letter of Application (No. 2). Before you do the 2nd Letter of Application, practice on Letter of Application (No. 1).

Reproduce as many copies as needed of the worksheet. Have a discussion on why people choose their kind of work pointing out different interests, abilities, values, training, etc.

PROCEDURE:

After the discussion, students may be given the worksheet activity in a learning center or for independent work as a group.

EVALUATION:

Check the work done by the students and listen to his/her reason for ranking the way he/she did.

REASONS TO CHOOSE WORK

DIRECTIONS: Below are some reasons some people choose their work. Look over the reasons and number them in order of their importance to you.

- _____ Pay is good.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Each person is valuable and can be a worthwhile worker.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will identify the positive contributions made by himself/herself and/or others in a given work setting.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given ten problem situations in work settings, the student will identify the positive contributions made by various workers, including himself when appropriate.

MATERIALS:

- *Activity Sheet
- Pencils for each student

PREPARATION:

The activity sheets are designed for use with a small or large number of students. It is recommended that a child compare his answers with a partner after completion. Reproduce enough activity sheets for each child.

PROCEDURE:

Each student should complete the activity sheet individually, following the directions. Then the child should compare and discuss his responses with a partner. The teacher should recognize that there is no one correct answer, so any reasonable answer is acceptable. The teacher may wish to discuss various alternatives to the problems if a student is concerned about his response.

EVALUATION:

To evaluate the activity, each student will compare and discuss his responses with a partner. The very last question on the activity sheet should be compared among students. This question should be checked by the teacher.

If a student has recorded little or no involvement in the solution of the problem situations, he/she should be asked to suggest consequences of this action.

Example:

No involvement was suggested by student on situation number 4. He/she suggested mother and father.

Possible questions for student: a) What happens at your house if mother or father always has to carry out the trash? b) How would they feel if they were the only ones who ever carried out the trash?

ACTIVITY SHEET

Your family and you work together with workers in the community to keep your household operating smoothly. Under each situation or problem that a family member encounters, list the worker(s) (family members and yourself should be included) and their contributions which would help solve the problem.

You may list one, two, or more workers if you wish. Write your contributions in detail. Use two or three lines.

1. Your mother and father want to buy a house.

Worker(s) _____

Worker(s) _____

Contribution(s) _____

When you are finished, compare your answers with a partner. Any reasonable answers you write are acceptable.

In how many situations did you name yourself as a worker making a contribution?

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Each person is valuable and can be a worthwhile worker.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will analyze, in a given work setting, the variety of contributions made by all individuals involved.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

The student will write a paper telling how a school would be different without one of the workers.

MATERIALS:

- *List of school workers
- Interview form
- Paper and pencil

PREPARATION:

Reproduce as many copies as needed of the School Workers List and the Interview Form.

PROCEDURE:

Students will need to work in groups of 4 or 5 to do interviews. Using the interview form, someone in the group is responsible for interviewing each person in their school from the School Workers List. After all interviews are completed, the group should meet and discuss the various contributions made to the school by each of the workers. At this point the teacher may want an oral report to the rest of the class from each group. As a culmination to this activity, each student is to pick one worker from the list and write a paper on how the school would be different without that worker.

The student will identify the contributions of different occupations to society.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given a contribution made by a specific occupation to society, the student will be able to identify that occupation with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

- *Game Board for Contribution
- *Contribution Cards (7 sets, 35 cards)
- *Point Cards
- *Answer Key

PREPARATION:

The game is designed for three players. Place the materials in in a learning center.

PROCEDURE:

Explain the directions to the students.

EVALUATION:

The student should complete the game activity with 80% accuracy. If he does not achieve this, he should play again or engage in a similar activity.

PLAYING THE GAME

1. Two players and one MC are needed.
2. Choose six cluster categories you wish to learn about.
3. For each category you have chosen, there is a corresponding set of Contribution Cards.
4. Arrange these cards vertically on the Game Board starting with the Cluster Card and then the Contribution Cards are placed below with ten-point cards on the top row, and the fifty-point cards on the bottom row. Arrange the corresponding Number Cards over each Contribution Card. The numbers indicate the points to be earned.
5. Game begins when one player names a cluster category and the number of points he wishes to earn. The ten-point questions are easiest and the fifty-point cards are the most difficult.
6. After the palyers call his category and points, the MC lifts the Number Card revealing the contribution, and reads this to the player.
7. The player then answers with a question indicating the job related to the contribution.

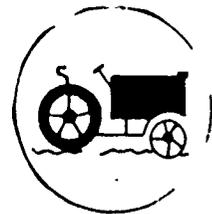

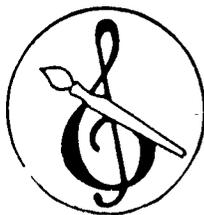

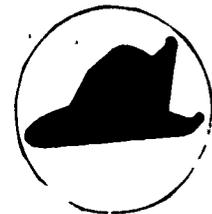

Example:

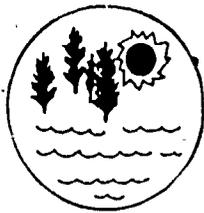

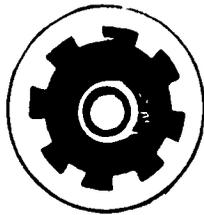

Player Response:

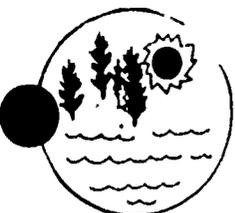

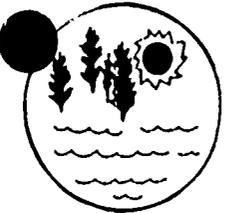

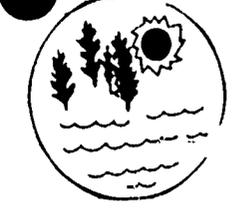

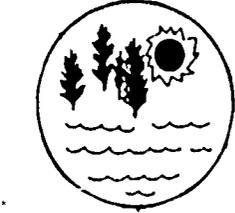

What is a telephone
repairman?

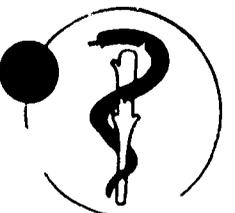

Repairs and installs
telephone equipment

8. If the player answers correctly, he earns the number of points on the Contribution Card.
9. If he misses, his opponent can state the question and earn the points.
10. The MC may consult the Answer Key if a question arises.
11. Player with the most points wins after Game Board is cleared of cards.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Every occupation contributes to society.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will analyze the contributions made to our society by specializations within our economy.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given a list of contributions made to our society, the student will be able to analyze and relate these contributions to specializations within our economy with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

*Activity Sheet "Contribution Clips"

PREPARATION:

Reproduce enough copies for each participating student.

PROCEDURE:

The student is to study the ten headlines of contributions made to our society on the Activity Sheet. Of the ten headlines, the student is to list the numbers of the headlines which he considers a result of a specialized occupation (all may be listed).

After each number, he is to name one occupation which is partially responsible for each contribution.

Each student will then compare his answers with others in small group discussions. The teacher should discuss the answers with each group.

Then the student is to name other occupations which might be considered specialized.

EVALUATION:

If student cannot complete the Activity Sheet, further discussion is necessary.

ACTIVITY SHEET: CONTRIBUTION CLIPS

I. Study the list of newspaper headlines below:

1. Hallucinogenic Drugs Used in Treating Mental Illness.
2. Pocket-size Calculators Make Mathematics Less Time Consuming.
3. Heart Transplants Save Many Lives.
4. Space-rendevous with Russians in 1975.
5. Electric Power Plants Use Nuclear Energy.

Place the numbers of these headlines indicating specialized occupations on the short lines below:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

III. On the lines following each number, write the name of one occupation which is partially responsible for each contribution.

- IV. Compare your answers with those made by your group members. Did you make the same choices?
- V. Discuss with your teacher the answers your group have made.
- VI. Name other occupations which might be considered a specialization. Could all jobs be considered specialized in some way? Explain.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Every occupation contributes to society.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will evaluate which occupation would be needed to achieve certain objectives.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given an objective or goal to be achieved in our society, the student will evaluate which occupations are needed to achieve it, and name these occupations with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

Activity 1

- *Game Board for Wallie Helps The World
- *Worker Cards
- *Answer Key

Activity 2

- *Activity Sheet "Let's Think"
- *Cards

PREPARATION:

Laminate the Game Board if desired. Reproduce enough copies of Activity Sheet "Let's Think" for each participating student.

PROCEDURE:

Activity 1 - Wallie Helps The World

Wallie the Worker helps the world meet its goals or objectives. Different Wallies are needed for different goals. Here is a game to help you learn which Wallies are needed for some of these objectives.

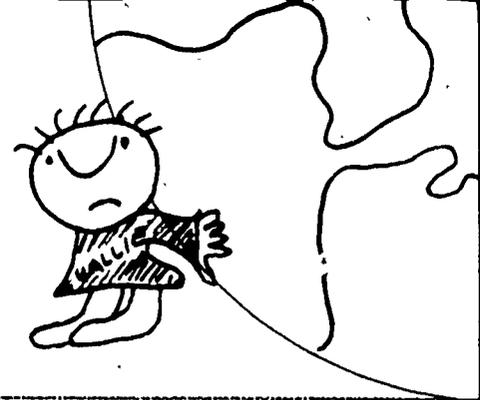

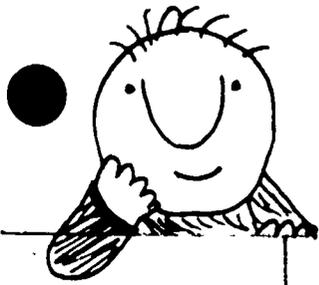

Three players are needed for this activity. Deal five cards to each player. The remaining cards are placed face down at the top of the game board with the top card showing.

Play begins when one player reads the objectives on the Game Board and studies his cards to see if one of the occupations on his cards are needed to achieve that objective. He then plays the card to the right of the objective.

EVALUATION:

The students should complete activity 1 with 80% accuracy before beginning Activity 2. If the student does not answer correctly with 80%, he should complete 12 of the 15 responses in Activity 2.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

A person may be suited for several different occupations and different levels of performance in that occupational area.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will identify a cluster of occupations that require similar skills.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given ten occupation cards, the student will sort them out into three categories, according to similar skills, with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

- *Occupation Playing Cards - 75
- *Master List
- *Description List
- *Evaluation Worksheet
- *Game Board
- Pencil for each player

PREPARATION:

The "Occupation Challenge Game" is designed to be played by 3-6 students. Reproduce as many copies of the Evaluation Worksheet as needed.

PROCEDURE:

From 75 occupation cards each child will be dealt ten cards. Children will place occupation cards on game board into one of three categories according to the primary and most important skills required. Players will play in turns and play will proceed around the table clockwise.

If any player feels a card has been placed in the wrong category, he should say, "challenge". The challenger does not have to indicate where the card should be played. He only says, "challenge" to indicate disagreement with where his opponent played the card. If a player is challenged, it is his responsibility to refer to the master list to check the correctness or incorrectness of the answers. The Description List will give further information on the job if players are unfamiliar with it.

If the challenged player is in fact incorrect, he must accept any two cards his challenger wishes to give up. He must also play the misplaced occupation card in the correct category before play begins again.

If he fails to do this, any opponent can say aloud, "Double challenge", and this opponent may give any one of his cards to the player. Double challenge cannot be called until after play has begun. If, however, the challenger proves to be wrong, then this challenger must accept any two cards the player wishes to give up.

If a player who has only two cards left, is challenged and is proved correct - he cannot give up more than one card to his challenger. If the challenger has two cards left and is proved correct, he can only give away one card.

The object of this game is to run out of cards. The first player to run out of cards wins.

Before each game begins, cards must be shuffled. If more than one game is played successively with the same players, any occupation cards not used in the previous game, should be shuffled into the deck for the second game.

Criteria for Classifying Occupations:

The Master List answers were classified, according to an occupations primary skills, concerns and responsibilities dealing with the three categorized areas. Many occupations are clearly recognizable as categorized in one area, although some obviously are subject to a great deal of interpretation as to their classification. These occupations have been purposely placed into two categories so the student is not penalized where the occupation is in question.

Definition of Categories

Things - Those tangible objects such as tools, equipment, natural resources and manufactured products. All living things included except people.

People - Persons, people, human beings - not animals.

Ideas - Refers to mental processes, problem solving, creativity, thinking, reasoning with prime emphasis on mental activity.

EVALUATION:

After the game, cards used will be reshuffled and dealt out - 10 cards per child. Each child will write the ten occupations and their classification on the worksheet provided. The student will also list all occupations he missed in the game (if not included in the list of ten) and rank them 1-2-3.

Example:

Homemaker	1. People
	2. Things
	3. Ideas

Anyway he or she ranks them is acceptable.

EXPANSION ACTIVITY:

Other categories could be used rather than people-things-ideas, depending upon the objectives of the activity. Game boards could be constructed with these categories.

1. Travel - Stationary
2. Regular Hours - Odd Hours
3. High Pressure - Low Pressure
4. Physical - Mental
5. Autonomous - Dependent
(Own boss) (supervised)

Since most occupations are not all of one category, it might be helpful to the child to rank some of these opposite traits on a 1-5 scale. For example, using these occupations, a child might rank them the way he feels. Terms, of course, should be discussed and defined.

Farming -----	High Pressure	5-4-3-2-1	Low Pressure
Stewardess --	High Pressure	5-4-3-2-1	Low Pressure

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

A person may be suited for several different occupations and different levels of performance in that occupation area.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will identify the range of performance, competence and responsibility in different occupational areas.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given a list of 45 occupations the student will choose 10 occupations and match each of these 10 with two competencies common to that occupation. 80% accuracy or 16 correct out of 20 is required.

MATERIALS:

- *Occupations and Clues Sheets - 7
- *Qualities Desirable in Occupations
- *Evaluation Worksheet
- *Suggested Answer Sheet
- Pencil for each student

PREPARATION:

These materials are designed to be used by 10 students at a time. One student moderator will be necessary to play the game. Children should be divided into teams of equal numbers if possible.

This game may also be used with entire class divided into two teams of equal size with the teacher serving as moderator.

Reproduce copies of the Evaluation Worksheet, one for each participating student.

PROCEDURE:

The students will use the materials to play "WHAT'S MY LINE?" "WHAT'S MY LINE?", is played similar to "PASSWORD". After the two teams have been organized, the moderator begins by reading aloud the first clue of a given occupation to a member of team one. Using the clue, the player from team one tries to guess the occupation with only one guess. If the player from team one misses, the second clue is given to a player from team two. Play proceeds like this back and forth from team to team until the occupation is guessed correctly. If the occupation is not guessed after using all four clues, show both teams the correct occupation, but no points are awarded either team.

Some occupational titles have several terms which are synonymous in meaning. In guessing occupations, these synonymous terms will be acceptable. Such terms will be listed to the right of the original occupational title. If a child guesses yet another synonymous title which is not listed, this response will be considered correct. In this situation student leader may need to confer with teacher.

Points are awarded as follows:

Correct response on first clue - 4 points
second clue - 3 points
third clue - 2 points
fourth clue - 1 point

The moderator is in charge of recording points scored on a scoresheet. It is important that the first clue be given to the teams in alternate order. If team one gets the first clue on one set, then team two should receive the first clue on the next set irregardless of who scored the most points on the previous set.

The winning team can be determined in a variety of ways, such as the most points earned after a given number of sets, (20), or the most points after 15 minutes of playing. The children or teacher may decide this criteria for winning.

The player who guesses the most correct occupations in a game may trade places with the student moderator for the second game. (optional)

EVALUATION :

After the game is played, each child and leader will complete the Evaluation Worksheet matching the occupations with competencies. Each child must match any ten occupations used in the game with the competencies listed on the separate sheet, (entitled "Qualities Desirable In Occupations"). The worksheet and directions are enclosed. The student may check his or her answers against the suggested answer sheet and record the number correctly, or the teacher may check the worksheets.

When a child completes the matching worksheet, occasionally his answer may not agree with the suggested answer sheet. If he can clearly justify his answer, it will be acceptable. However, if he can't, the answer will be considered incorrect.

DIRECTIONS FOR BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATERS

The purpose of this game is to develop an awareness that all decisions involve positive and negative points.

The game is designed for two (2) to four (4) players.

To begin, a high throw of the die determines the starting player. The play moves counter-clockwise. Place game pieces on the starting line. With each throw of the die, the player moves the number of spaces on the die. When the player lands on a situation square, he moves forward (+) or backward (-) according to the number in the square. The game begins on the top row and then continues across the bottom of the gameboard. The player who crosses the finish line first wins.

CHOOSE THE CONSEQUENCES

DIRECTIONS:

This game is for 5-6 players. Shuffle the cards and place them in the middle of a table with job titles up. The players draw cards in turn and give an answer, which is a consequence of having the job shown on the front side of the card. They may check the back side of the card for the correct answer. The game starts at the 50 yard line and players move their markers toward opposite goals. For correct answers, players move 10 yards forward; for incorrect answers, 10 yards backwards.

Six points are received for crossing the goal line and one extra point is given if the next card is correctly answered. The marker is then returned to the 50 yard line and the game is continued. When the cards are exhausted, the player or team with the most points wins.

GAME INFORMATION SHEET

Long Training

Jobs that require more education usually pay more. Dentists, lawyers and doctors take a long time to be trained. Their skills are considered important by people and are costly.

Salary Change

Some workers are not paid a regular set amount of money. Some sales persons are paid according to how much they sell. They work on a commission. If they sell a lot, they earn a lot. When they sell less, they earn less. Successful salespeople are among the highest paid workers in the world.

Certain other workers are paid only for each "piece" of work done; pieceworkers. They receive an amount of money for each hat, radio or box of cherries completed. They are very fast workers or else they could not make enough money.

Seasonal Workers

Workers who get work for only parts of the year usually do not earn as much as workers who work the year round. Fruitpickers have to go where the crop is and so work mainly during the harvest season. For this reason they are called "seasonal workers".

Danger In Work

People who take chances or risks in their work usually make more money. Sometimes they risk their lives, like the workers who paint bridges or work with explosives. These workers will usually earn more money than those who do not take these risks.

EVALUATION CHECK SHEET

Put a check in one of the columns after each job which is a consequence of that job.

SITUATIONS

1. Promotion:

Derek Dean is married and has three children in elementary school. He works for an insurance company and has been offered a promotion with a considerable increase in salary. The raise is appealing, although he would have to pay more taxes. Taking the promotion, however, will mean moving to a distant, unfamiliar city. The city is larger and offers cultural opportunities, but the children dread going to a new school.

2. Travel:

Paul Yates is an over-the-road truck driver. He was recently married and is considering a change of occupation. He enjoys driving, but sitting in one place for hours at a time can be tiring, especially under the strain of continuous driving at night. He is well paid, but the work required being away from his wife and friends for days or even weeks.

3. Long Training

Karelyn Miller enjoys working with people and is thinking of being a social worker. There are many opportunities available, but a bachelor's degree, preferably in social welfare, generally is the minimum educational requirement for beginning jobs in social work. Certain specialized areas require a master's degree. This training is expensive and will take several years. Karelyn is anxious to get involved and thinking of going to work at a local day care center where pay is comparatively lower.

4. Salary Change:

Mrs. Smith works as a salesperson in a department store. She is not paid a regular salary every week. Some weeks she makes more, and some weeks she makes less. She is paid according to how much she sells. Her hours are irregular; sometimes she has to go earlier, and sometimes she has to work later. The 20% discount that she gets off of anything that is bought at the store is really appreciated by Mrs. Smith. This really cuts her cost of living. She likes her work.

5. Seasonal Worker:

Mr. Carlos Martiniz does construction work. He works for a large company, constructing buildings, highways, dams, and airports. Construction work is physically strenuous, since it requires frequent bending, stooping and heavy lifting. Much of the work is performed outdoors, and some work time is lost because of bad weather. His work takes him to many different cities, which takes him away from his family often. He is a member of a unionized group. Union minimum hourly wage average from $5.57 to $7.27 an hour.

6. Dangerous Work:

Mr. Arthur Scott works as a Lineman for an electric company. Sometimes he is involved with danger with his work. His job consists of maintaining the network of powerlines that carry electricity from the generating plants to consumers. He installs, replaces, and repairs equipment. He is on call at all times even after he completes his regular job schedule. The people he works with are most enjoyable. He likes his work very much. His pay is very good; the average hourly earning for a lineperson is about $5.95.

TIC TAC FIND

DIRECTIONS:

This game is played in the same way you play Tic Tac Toe. The only difference is that once you choose a box you MUST answer the question in that box. After you give the word for the blank, then choose a card from the card stack that has the same word, put a zero 0 in the box (in pencil.) The other player then takes his turn and does the same thing using the letter X. Remember, to win you must have three boxes in a row. Caution: an incorrect answer is a box for your opponent. Check your answers on the Answer Key.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Different job functions require different clothing, equipment, instruments, and/or tools.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will identify the clothing, equipment, instruments and/or tools related to different occupations.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given a list of tools and a list of workers, the student will match the tools to the workers with 75% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

- *CITE Tic Tac Toe Job Cluster Cards (15)
- *CITE Tic Tac Toe Caller Cards 9 per cluster (15 clusters)
- *CITE Matching Sheet
- *CITE Answer Key
- Washable felt tip pens

PREPARATION:

The TIC TAC TOE game is played by groups of 3 people, 2 as players and 1 as caller. However, since there are 15 different cards, several groups of 3 may play the game at the same time, each group using a different card. Laminate the cards.

PROCEDURE:

Put the game materials in a learning center. Several (3-4) groups of 3 may play at the same time. One person out of each group of 3 will be the caller. The caller should follow the directions on the caller's envelope. The other 2 people in the group are the players. The 2 players share the same card. Each of the 15 different Cluster Cards have 9 representative jobs from that cluster arranged like a TIC TAC TOE game. The caller's cards are 9 cards with clothing, equipment, instruments or tools from that cluster. The caller picks a card from his 9 cards and reads the name on it. The two players, one using an X and one an O, take turns trying to connect the tools, equipment, etc., with a particular job on the Cluster Card. If they connect it correctly they can place their X or O in that space. If they have an incorrect answer, the other player gets their X or O in the space. Three X's or three O's in a row, column or diagonal, wins the game. Winning is purely a matter of chance and on some games there will be no winner. The key for the Caller Cards is on the cards.

EVALUATION:

The student should be able to complete the CITE evaluation sheet with 75% accuracy. They should not do the evaluation sheet until they have played the game with all 15 of the Cluster Cards. If they do not get 75% correct, have them play the game again.

DIRECTIONS FOR CALLER'S ENVELOPE:

Turn all Caller Cards face down. Choose one of the cards at random for the Cluster Card the players are using. Read the item on the card. If the player whose turn it is can correctly match it with a worker on his card, he may put an O or X in that space. Players take turns. The caller checks the answer at each turn from his Caller Cards.

Directions for playing the game "What Do They Need?"

Each of the Job Cards will fit under at least one of the headings on the Game Board. If there is a job that you think might fit under more than one heading, put it under the one that is most important for that job. There is more than one of some of the Job Cards. For example: an upholsterer would use a truck and a hammer, so there are two Job Cards for upholsterer. You may check your answers with the Key.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will evaluate the efficiency and effectiveness of different clothing, tools, equipment, and/or instruments for different occupational tasks.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

The student will determine whether or not specific clothing, tools, equipment and/or instruments are necessary for specific jobs with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

- *Story Sheet "What Would You Use?"
- *Activity Sheet
- *Story Sheet Key
- *Activity Sheet Key
- Pencil

PREPARATION:

Reproduce a Story Sheet and an Activity Sheet for each participating student.

PROCEDURE:

Put the materials in a learning center. Have the children read the paragraphs on the Story Sheets and cross through any item that would not be appropriate for the activity described. After checking their own work from the Key, have them do the Activity Sheet.

EVALUATION:

The student should be able to do the Activity Sheet with 80% accuracy. Informally check their work.

"WHAT WOULD YOU USE?"

In each of the following situations a person starts to accomplish a job or activity using certain tools, clothing, equipment, and instruments. Read the paragraph and cross through anything that you don't think would be appropriate for doing that task.

1. Joe was going to put a new roof on his garage. He put on his good suit and got out his materials. He went to the garage and got out a camera, ladder, shingles, paint brush, hammer, nails, scissors and pipe wrench.
2. Anita loved to paint pictures of country scenes. She decided one day to spend the afternoon at her aunt and uncle's farm painting. She dressed in a work shirt and jeans and loaded her equipment in her car. First she packed her paints, typewriter, brushes, test tubes, watercolor paper and pencils. She put in an easel and a stool. She was ready to leave when she decided maybe she should take her camera, a microscope and a picnic lunch.
3. Tom had a summer job working with a lawn service company. He went to work in his work clothes and barefoot. He helped the other men load the truck with the lawnmowers, edgers, rakes, barbed wire, hoes, and lawn sweeper. After they arrived at their first job for the day, they realized they had forgotten the dust rags and brooms.
4. Mike had a new job as a newspaper boy. His route was in the neighborhood where he lived. He had only had the job for 2 weeks, since the first of January. Mike got up early and dressed hurriedly in his shirt, shorts and sandals so he wouldn't be late delivering the papers. He quickly ate his breakfast, got his papers and bag, picked up his tape measure, list of customers, glue, and rubber bands; and was off to work before most people were awake.
5. Mary Ann had a job she found very interesting. She was a nurse's aide at the hospital in her city. She worked the evening shift. After eating an early supper she dressed in her uniform, put on her 3" wooden clogs, and left for work. Because she had an apartment close to the hospital, she decided to walk to work. However, it wasn't long before she wished she had driven her car. The typewriter, and adding machine were much heavier than she had realized.

6. Karen was receptionist for a large accounting firm. She always wore her jeans and a sweatshirt to work. She worked all day with an appointment book, typewriter, fabric, needles, pins, and a sewing machine. She had to have a pleasant voice because she used the telephone and a microphone a lot in her work.
7. Gary had always loved the outdoors and wild life, so he trained himself to work for the government as a forester aide. Gary always dresses in sturdy clothing, especially good boots because his job requires a lot of walking. In his work he uses binoculars, a dictating machine, invoice orders, maps, tape measures, a pick-up truck, and a limousine. Gary enjoys his work and plans to continue with it and eventually become a forester.
8. Steve and Andy work as carpet layers for a large retail carpet company in their city. When they leave the store each day for their first job, they must be sure they have their carpet, padding, sewing machine, carpet knife, ladders, hammer and nails, paint brush and tape measure. After collecting everything needed, they leave for the job on their motorcycles.
9. Sue works as a waitress evenings and goes to college in the morning. She has a uniform she wears to work and she always makes sure she has on comfortable shoes. While working she works with dishes, silverware, food, pots, pans, and skillets, a menu, order tickets, a telephone, desk and chair, and numbers. Maybe most important she works with people, so she needs to have a pleasant manner and remember to KEEP SMILING.
10. Anita's hobby was making her own clothes, including the designing. Anita always watched the fabric sales and the paint sales to pick up bargains for her hobby. She had a spare room in the basement for her sewing room. It was full of material, thread, paint, needles, pins, tape measure, level, sketching paper, test tubes, cutting table, knives, pliers, and of course, her sewing machine. Anita wanted to be a professional dress-designer when she was older.

SPIN-A-FACT

PLAYING DIRECTIONS:

The game is played by two to four players. The word cards are three different colors which correspond with the three colors on the spinner (yellow, green and blue).

The cards are stacked in three piles face down on the board according to color. The first player spins the dial and takes a card from the top of the pile that is the same color as the color he has spun. The next player spins and draws one card in the same manner. The players continue spinning and drawing one card at a time until someone is able to make a complete sentence that makes sense or is true. That player scores five points. The game continues until all cards have been drawn. The player with the most points wins.

If a question arises concerning the correctness of a sentence, the teacher or the Answer Key may be consulted.

DIRECTIONS FOR GAME "CHANGE CONCENTRATION"

Shuffle the cards and place them all face down on the game board (or table).

The first player turns over two cards. If the two cards match (a cause of change and an effect of change) the player keeps the cards. If they are not a match he places them face down where they were and the next player has a turn. Players must concentrate to remember information on cards previously turned over in order to make a match. The player with the most matching cards at the end of the game wins.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Changing social and technological conditions affect careers and career opportunities.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will analyze the effect of specific technological and social changes on a particular setting and its occupants.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given the Story Sheet, the student will underline words or phrases describing inventions, that wouldn't have existed in Colonial America, with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

*Story Sheet
Pencil

PREPARATION:

Lead a discussion concerning changes in our way of life since colonial times. Consider the following topics: Value of changes-- advantages and disadvantages? How have these changes affected your life? What about future changes?

Reproduce as many copies as needed of the Story Sheet.

PROCEDURE:

Story Sheet may be used in learning center as individual or group work. Have the students use them, following the directions.

EVALUATION:

The students might list as a group the jobs created due to changes in life styles brought about by technological and social factors.

STORY SHEET

In the following paragraphs Andi is taking you through most of a normal day in her life. Andi is an average American girl living in today's world.

Read the paragraphs and underline words or phrases used to tell of situations or actions that would not have appeared in the story had it been written by a girl living in Colonial America. Be ready to give reasons for your decisions.

Look again at the words or phrases underlined and be ready to list jobs that were created due to technological and social changes.

A DAY WITH ANDI

I am Andi.

Before going to bed last night I enjoyed a warm bubble bath in the upstairs bathroom. I slept well because the air-conditioner kept my room at a comfortable temperature. The perma-press sheets on my posturepedic mattress added to my comfort.

I was awakened early this morning by the music from my clock radio. I arose quickly and dressed in my no-iron shorts and halter. I used my electric toothbrush and took my flouride tablet. I put on my makeup and used my new hot comb.

When I went downstairs mother had my breakfast of toast spread with margarine and a fruit juice prepared in the blender ready for me. When I finished with my breakfast I put the dishes in the dishwasher.

Mother needed some help so I took out the vacuum cleaner and vacuumed the living room carpet and polished the furniture. My next job was the laundry. I went to the laundry room, took the soiled clothes from the hamper and put a load in the washing machine. I decided to bake some cookies while the clothes were washing, so I set the electric oven at correct temperature, took a can of prepared dough from the refrigerator, sliced it with the electric knife, put the cookies on the cookie sheet, and place them in the oven.

Just as I finished putting the clothes in the drier, the phone rang. It was Monica calling to confirm the time we were going to the movies.

For lunch I baked a T.V. dinner and made a glass of instant tea. I went downstairs and watched T.V. while I ate my lunch.

I had promised to pick Monica up at one, so I told mother of my plans. She asked me to drive the Ford since the air-conditioner on the Chevy was not in working condition.

I took the freeway to Monica's because it was quicker than going through all the stoplights downtown.

After the movie we ate at a downtown restaurant and then made it home by bedtime.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Different occupations are related in many ways.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will identify the different occupational clusters, and jobs within those clusters.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given the Classifying Careers Sheet, the student will match the names of workers with the correct cluster with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

- *Career Cluster Bingo Cards (9 different cards)
- *Classifying Careers Sheets (3 different sheets)
- *Master Copy of Worker names (3 different sheets)
- *Cluster Discs (30 sheets)
- *Caller's Directions

PREPARATION:

The Career Cluster Bingo game is designed for three to nine students. If only three students are playing, you will want each student to have a card representing different cluster symbols. For six to play the cards would all have different worker names but each set of two students would have the same cluster symbols. When nine players are involved every set of three students would have cards with the same cluster symbols. Each of the nine cards has a different combination of worker names.

Reproduce as many of the Classifying Careers Sheets as you need.

PROCEDURE:

Place the materials necessary to play the game in a learning center. Choose one extra player to be the caller. While the students look over their cards, the caller should follow the instructions on the Caller's Envelope.

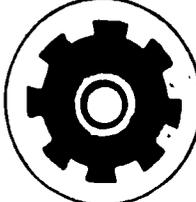

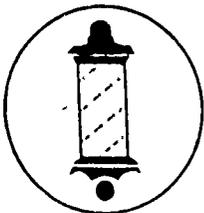

After the game is played, each student should complete the Classifying Careers Sheet. The Classifying Careers Sheet cluster symbols should match the symbols on their Career Cluster Bingo card.

EVALUATION

The student should be able to complete the sheet with 80% accuracy. If not, have the student play the game again with a different card or engage in another activity in this section.

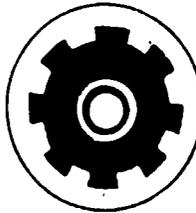

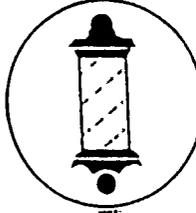

This game is called Career Cluster. It is played similar to Bingo. The caller will call out the name of a Career Cluster, and then the name of a worker within that cluster. CALLER'S DIRECTIONS

Empty the game parts into a shoe box or similar size container. Mix the pieces thoroughly with both hands.

Draw the pieces out one at a time. Tell the players the name of the cluster symbol and the name of the worker printed on the piece. For example: Consumer and Homemaking--Fabric consultant.

As you call the names, group them together by cluster symbol. When someone bingos, check their card with the names you have called.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Different occupations are related in many ways.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will identify the different occupational clusters, and the jobs within those clusters.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given a job name, the student will match the job name with another from the same occupational cluster.

MATERIALS:

- *Clustering Game Board
- *3 Sets of Career Cards (30 cards each set)
- *15 Cluster Puzzles (30 cards each puzzle)
- *Occupational Cluster Cards (15)
- *Clustering Answer Keys (3)

PREPARATION:

1. Arrange one Cluster Puzzle Set in numerical order face-down on the game board.
2. Arrange a set of Career Cards with job name showing on the game board, on top of the puzzle.
3. Arrange the number cards in numerical order on top of (covering) the Career Cards.

PROCEDURE:

1. Four players are needed for this game, which is very similar to the TV game, Concentration.
2. Two players designated as contestants will attempt to match Career Cards in the same cluster. The remaining two players serve as M. C. and game board operator.
3. Play begins when one player calls out two numbers in an attempt to make a match. The two designated number cards are taken from the board, revealing two job names. If the jobs match, the cards are removed from the board, revealing two parts of the Cluster Puzzle. The player then has a chance to guess the puzzle. If a match is not achieved, the number cards are placed back on the game board.
4. Each player receives 10 points for each correct match, and 25 points if he identifies the Cluster Puzzle.

5. Game ends when all cards on board are matched, or when a player identifies the Cluster Puzzle.
6. The player with the most points wins.

GAME VERSATILITY:

Several sets of Puzzle Cards and Career Cards are included in this package to enable students to play any number of times without repetition.

EVALUATION:Materials:

Career Cards (more than one set)
Occupational Cluster Cards (15)
Game Board

Preparation:

Arrange the set of Occupational Cluster Cards on the Game Board so that two pegs are below each Occupational Cluster Card.

Procedure:

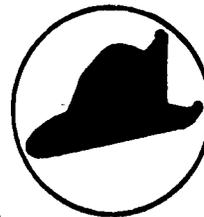

1. Using more than one set of Career Cards, the M.C. reads a job title to one contestant, who then names the related job cluster.
2. If a correct classification is given, the card is placed on the Game Board beneath the cluster name, and the contestant receives 10 points.
3. Incorrect answers may be challenged by the opponent.
4. If neither player can identify the cluster, the card is placed aside to be reviewed after other cards have been used.

CAREER GENERALIZATION:

Different occupations are related in many ways.

CAREER OBJECTIVE:

The student will evaluate his/her abilities, interests, and skills in relation to the occupational clusters.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given the appropriate materials for each of the eight activities, the student will complete the activities with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

*Refer to materials listed on each Activity Sheet.

*Comparison Sheet (used after eight activities)

PREPARATION:

Gather materials for each activity. Some activities will be designated to small groups or individuals.

PROCEDURE:

Have the students perform the eight activities following the directions for each activity. Then have the students complete the Comparison Sheet.

EVALUATION:

The student should be able to perform all activities with 80% accuracy.
Refer to evaluation on each Activity Sheet.

ACTIVITY #1 - "Working with your Hands"

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given three copies of a picture of a worker (drawn by student), the student will elevate the picture into three dimensions with 80% accuracy.

MATERIALS:

Silicone glue (clear)
3 copies of a picture of a worker for each student
Construction paper squares with dimensions 4" x 5", in various colors
Crayons
Cardboard squares, 4" x 5" (optional)

PREPARATION:

Gather materials.
Ask each student to: draw a picture of a worker in his work situation and trace two copies of the picture; color all three pictures the same; leave one print as is; cut two other prints out.

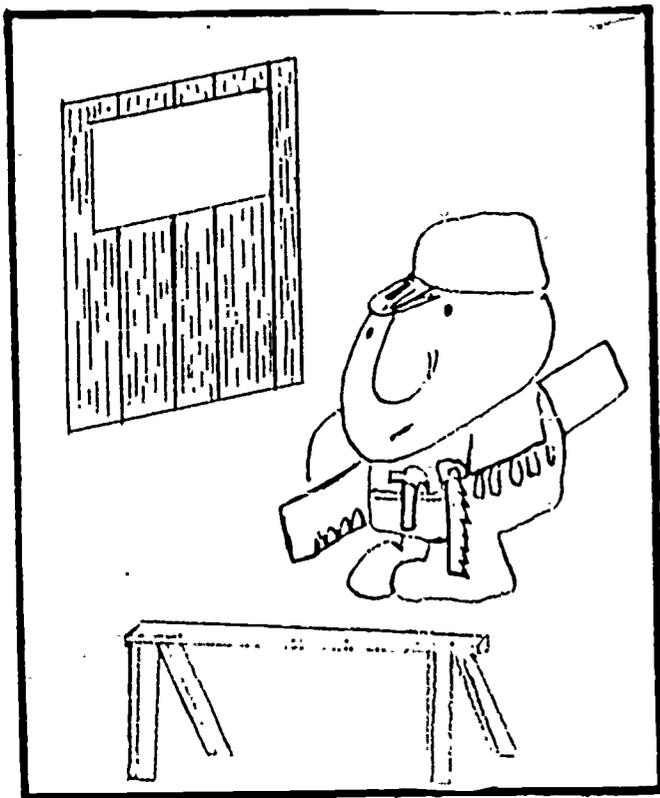

PROCEDURE:

1. Glue print to construction paper background.
2. Decide which parts of your picture are farther away and which parts are closer.
3. Apply silicone glue in a peak fashion to the parts designated as background.
4. Place the glued parts so that they are directly over the base print and elevated approximately 1/4 inch. Be sure that the glued piece is directly over the part on the base print.
5. Now with the picture parts designated as closer to the front of the picture, glue them in a like fashion. Try to elevate over 1/4 inch so that picture parts will be elevated more than background parts.

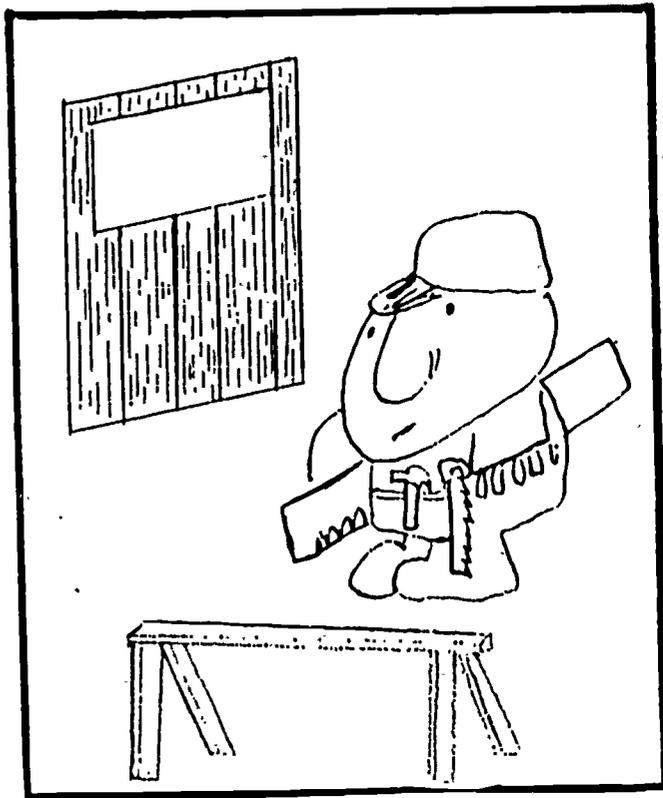

EVALUATION:

The student should complete the picture with 80% accuracy. Count five points for each error in following directions. Evaluate on scale of 100 as perfect score.

The three pictures that follow are used to make a shadow box picture. (Three dimensional) picture #1 is the base. Follow the instructions below each picture.

1. This is the base picture. Color the picture with your favorite colors. Now cut the picture off the page along the heavy black boarder.

2. Color the carpenter and his tools with the same colors you used on the carpenter in the first picture. Cut the carpenter out. Glue the carpenter over the carpenter in picture #1. Color, cut and glue the sawhorse to picture #1.

PROBLEM

HOW WE HELP

THE FEEDBACK SYSTEM

As with any new curriculum we anticipate some problems. In order for the CEAK program to be successful in the future we must have a means for revising the materials after the field test--hence, this feedback system.

You are the key to the system. As the person utilizing the kit you are the only one who can assess the kit's value for your students. Without your feedback, upgrading the materials will be impossible.

The check list on the following page is designed to gather pertinent information in the least amount of time. We estimate a maximum of 5 minutes per check list. Please complete one check list for each coded activity.

After completing the check list, insert it in the miscellaneous section of your handbook. Periodically during the field test, the check lists will be gathered and tabulated. At the end of the field test we will use your suggestions to revise the CEAK program for district wide dissemination.

If problems occur that require immediate attention, we want to help. When you need help call:
