ABSTRACT

This course outline has been prepared as a guide to help the student gain mastery in the proper brush techniques required for proficiency in brush lettering. The skills of Brush Lettering 1 are a prerequisite. Consisting of 135 clock hours, the course prepares the student to understand brush lettering for poster production and advertising layout. The outline organizes instruction into five blocks of instruction: (1) brush lettering practice review, (2) brush lettering the gothic alphabet, (3) brush lettering the roman alphabet, (4) brush lettering the italic alphabet, and (5) brush lettering the single thickness script alphabet, followed by a sample post-test. A bibliography of basic references and sample post-tests conclude the course description. (MW)

State Category Number	County Dept. Number	County Course Number	Course Title

This quinmester is dependent upon the skills introduced in Brush Lettering I (9183.05). The student receives a review of the basic methods and techniques of brush manipulation and stroking. The Gothic, Roman, Italic, Old English and Single Thickness Script Alphabets are covered. Upon completion of this quinmester the student should have sufficient manipulative versatility to be proficient in all areas of brush lettering.

Indicators of Success: Prior to entry into this course the vocational student will display mastery of the skills indicated in Brush Lettering I (9183.05)

Clock Hours: 135

The following course outline has been prepared as a guide to help the student gain mastery in the proper brush techniques required for proficiency in brush lettering. It is a one-quinmester course.

The student is first given a review of the stroking and striping practices of the preceding course before entering into the actual practice of lettering the three alphabets.

The student is guided through these alphabets in the proper order gaining mastering of one before progressing to the next alphabet until the three alphabets have been accomplished.

This is a 135 hour unit of work necessary before the student can undertake brush lettering for poster production and advertising layout. This outline consists of six blocks of instructions which are subdivided into several units each.

In presenting the skills outlined in this course, the instructor uses the lecture and demonstration methods with active participation and practice by the student.

On the last page of this outline is found a bibliography which lists the basic references used throughout the course.

This outline was developed through the cooperative efforts of the instructional and supervisory personnel, the Quinmester Advisory Committee, and the Vocational Curriculum Materials Service, and has been approved by the Dade County Vocational Curriculum Committee.
