ABSTRACT

This reference circular contains selected sources for the purchase, rental, or loan of fiction and nonfiction spoken-word recordings. The sources in sections 1, 2, and 3 are commercial and, unless otherwise noted, offer abridged and unabridged titles on audio cassette. Sources in section 1 make available popular fiction; classics; poetry; drama; biographies; and titles in business and related fields, personal development, and the social sciences. Some of the sources offer interviews with authors or contemporary personalities, and vintage radio programs. In section 2, companies with titles in specialized subject areas are identified. Commercial sources specializing in spoken-word recordings for children or offering separate catalogs for children's titles are covered in section 3. Section 4 presents information about recorded books available on loan to persons with physical or visual disabilities, and section 5 lists selected resources for additional information. The information was compiled from current catalogs. (AEF)

Introduction

This reference circular contains selected sources for purchase, rental, or loan of fiction and nonfiction spoken-word recordings.

The sources in Sections I, II, and III are commercial and, unless otherwise noted, offer abridged and unabridged titles on audio cassette. Sections I and II list companies providing titles primarily of adult interest. Sources in Section I make available popular fiction; classics; poetry; drama; biographies; and titles in business and related fields, personal development, and the social sciences. Some of the sources also offer interviews with authors or contemporary personalities, and vintage radio programs. Section II identifies companies with titles in specialized subject areas. Commercial sources specializing in spoken-word recordings for children or offering separate catalogs for children's titles are treated in Section III.

Section IV presents information about recorded books available on loan to persons with physical or visual disabilities. Section V lists selected resources for additional information.

Information for this circular was compiled from current catalogs. A listing in this circular does not imply an endorsement.

(202) 707-0712 Fax
(202) 707-0744 TDD
800-424-8567

Administers a national library service that provides braille and recorded books and magazines on free loan to persons who cannot read standard print because of visual or physical disabilities. Reading materials and playback machines are distributed to eligible borrowers through cooperating regional and subregional libraries. A listing of libraries, eligibility requirements, a directory of Volunteers Who Produce Books, and other information will be provided on request.

Recording for the Blind (RFB)

20 Roszel Road

Princeton, NJ 08540

(609) 452-0606

800-221-4792

(609) 987-8116 Fax

Provides educational materials and textbooks to individuals with print disabilities. Recorded books are loaned; computer disks of textbooks are available for purchase. The services are available to persons with a verified visual, physical, or specific learning disability that substantially limits reading. A one-time registration fee of $37.50 is required of all applicants.
