JORDAN LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY ROLES AND POWERS IN DIPLOMACY AND FOREIGN POLICY

By
Eman Radwan Arar

Supervisor
Dr. Mohammad Al-Masalha

Abstract

The Jordan Legislative Authority is considered one of the most important institutions. The field of jurisdiction of this Authority covers the internal, political and financial matters with the international developments and overlapping of relations, the Legislative Authority has strenuously endeavored to get past the internal bounds to the external bounds as it has substantiated its role in participating in the foreign policy. This role was known to be the "Parliamentary Diplomacy".

Through observing the historical developments, fundamentals and setup of the Jordanian Legislative Authority as well as exercise of its legislative, financial and political duties and functions and its relation, with the Throne Institution and Government, we find that it depends in this respect on the legal aspect where its application is confined to the provisions of the Jordanian Constitution and its by-laws.

The development of the concept and objects of the Jordanian foreign policy have lead to deepening the constitutional and legal basis for the political functioning of the Jordan Legislative Authority. The multiple tools and means of foreign policy have assisted it in the performance of its duty. The activity and role of Jordan Legislative Authority have expanded in the field of foreign policy and the parliamentary diplomatic role of the Jordanian parliament has become prominent in the Jordanian foreign policy through its participation in multi parliamentary conferences including the international, Arab, regional and the like conferences.

The role of the Jordanian parliament, did not stop at its participation in such conferences, but it was rather extended to preparing for and holding them on the Kingdom's soil

This means the substantiation of Jordan initiative in the realization of the parliamentary diplomacy in the foreign policy field wherein the Jordanian Parliament has realized considerable parliamentary accomplishments and activities as well passed many political decisions and statements.

The Jordan Parliament has also received many parliamentary delegations and senior political personalities as well as exchanged visits with them. The Jordanian Parliament constituted specialized committees which concern itself with the issue of the Jordanian foreign policy where its role was conspicuous through the interviews and meetings which are held by it with the Heads of States and Foreign Ministers.

The Jordanian Parliament has become skilled in maintaining the international relations and international cooperation through the establishment of Parliamentary Friendship Societies which are created on the basis of developing cooperation and solidarity between the Jordanian Parliament and Parliaments of the sister and friendly States.

The Jordanian Parliament has relied, on the performance of its functions, on competent systems and concerned individuals who collect, analyze and study the information then forward them to the Parliament in its real form thereby asserting the importance of information and sources thereof in the role of the Jordanian Parliament towards the foreign policy of Jordan.

The accomplishments and role of the Jordanian Parliament in the foreign policy of Jordan, method of its dealing with the most important international, Arab and Islamic issues is the best evidence on the Jordanian Parliamentary applications in the foreign policy and international relation fields, hence ensuring thereby the realization and spread of international security and stability amongst all countries.
