Abstract

Praise be to Allah and Peace be upon His Prophet, his family and Companions

This is an investigatory study to review a part of the book " Tatimat Alebana Ann Furou Aldiyanah" a supplementary explanation of religious matters. The book is written by Imam Abu Saad Abdulrahman Bin Mohammed Al- Mamoon Al Mutawali, who died in H. He starts the book with a chapter on the issue of "Wasayah" or commandments, and ends up with a chapter on " Alwadia" or will. Al Mutawali was one of the prominent scholars who extensively studied Al Shafie School. He was considered to be a reliable authority in narrating from this school, and his book had countless advantages. Nearly all of Al Shafie followers regarded it as the most authentic reverence since long time ago.

It was written in a neat and consistent style. It is also one of the most reliable references to promement scholars such as Al Rafie, Al Nawawi and Al Sobki.

The study is initiated with a prelude and brief introduction about the importance of the manuscript and the position of its author. It also includes review for some parts of the book, as well as specification of the part, which will be studied, and how it will be analyzed. This is followed by the main study which comprises introduction to the era of Al Mutwali and his biography, nicknames, birth, brought up, schooling, travels, teachers, traits, and his scholarly position. It also include the famous opinions of scholars about him, his creed, students, books and his death. The chapter also traces the origin of the book and the motives of the author and authentication of the book and the author. It also reviews it importance in the major critic works as well as methodology of Imam Al Mutawali and the main terminology used in the book. The chapter talks also about the main references, the remarks on it, and a full account of its scripture, showing the authentic samples used in the study.

In the investigatory chapter, the researcher focuses on authenticating the text and presenting it free from any alteration and variation. He uses three copies and follows the method of " selected text". He writes the text in the current scripture with accurate punctuation marks. He arranges the titles and subtitles and fixes numbers of templates on manuscripts. Quranic verses are written in Osmal calligraphy. The researcher studies the traditions of the prophet and biographies of his companions and narrators of Hadeeth. He also reviews the Figh matters which mentioned in the book and points out the reliable arguments in Al shafie school and other Figh schools. He shed lights on biography of outstanding schools and tribes. He explains the meaning of strange expressions and terms. He adds comments on some parts of the book, which he thinks necessary. The researcher concludes the study with reference to verses, Hadeeth, manuscripts and books he mentioned in the text as well as Figh rules and fundamental principles and disagreements.

The researcher investigates into around eight hundred and five matters related to " Wasaya" or will and its conditions- place of will, distribution of will, will renders to kinship ...etc. He also investigates into the conditions of deposit and depositor.

Upon completion of the dissertation, the researcher has been awarded PH.D in Islamic Figh.
